John the Baptist beheaded

31 And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.

32 And they departed into a desert place by ship privately.

33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him.

34 And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things.

35 And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed:

36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.

37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat?

38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes.

39 And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass.

40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

42 And they did all eat, and were filled.

43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men.

45 And straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and Christ walketh on the sea to go to the other side before unto Beth-sāi-dā, while he sent away the people.

46 And when he had sent them away, he departed unto a mountain to pray.

47 And when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.

48 And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them.

49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out:

50 For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid.

51 And he went up to them into the ship; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered.

52 For they considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their heart was hardened.

53 And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gēn-nēs-ā-rēt, and drew to the shore.

54 And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him, 55 And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was.

56 And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched him were made whole.

CHAPTER 7

THEN came together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, which came from Jerusalem.

2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled, that is to say, with unwashed, hands, they found fault.

3 For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, brassen vessels, and of tables.

16 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

17 And when he was ^aentered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him;

19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the ²draught, purging all meats?

20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

21 For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an ³evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

24 ⁴And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of ⁵Tyre and ⁶Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be hid.

25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet:

26 The woman was a ⁷Greek, a Syro-phœnic⁸-i-⁹an by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

27 But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the ¹⁰dogs.

28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

29 And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 ¹¹And again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of ¹²Decapolis.

32 And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.

33 And he ¹³took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he ¹⁴spit, and touched his tongue;

34 And ¹⁵looking up to heaven, he ¹⁶sighed, and saith unto him, Eph¹⁷-ph¹⁸-thā, that is, Be opened.

35 And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.

36 And ¹⁹he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, ²⁰so much the more a great deal they published it;

37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

CHAPTER 8

¹IN those days the multitude being ²very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,

³I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:

⁴And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far.

⁵And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?

⁶And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

⁷And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people.

⁸And they had a few small fishes: and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

⁹So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets.

A blind man receiveth his sight

¹¹And straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of ¹²Dāl-mā-nū-thā.

¹³And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

¹⁴And he ¹⁵sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

¹⁶And he left them, and entering into the ship again departed to the other side.

¹⁷Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

¹⁸And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of ¹⁹the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

²⁰And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.

²¹And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened?

²²Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

²³When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

²⁴And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

²⁵And he said unto them, How is it that ye do not understand?

²⁶And he cometh to Bēth-sāi²⁷-dā; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him.

²⁸And he ²⁹took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had ³⁰spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.

25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, ²⁷nor tell it to any in the town.

27 ²⁸And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Caesarea Phil²⁹-ip³⁰-pi; and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

28 And they answered, John the Baptist: but some say, E-li³¹ās; and others, One of the prophets.

29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ.

30 And he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31 ³²And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

34 ³⁵And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

35 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.

36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

37 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

38 ³⁹Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this audacious and sinful generation; *of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

CHAPTER 9

AND he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power.

2 ¶ And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was separated before them.

3 And his raiment became shining, exceeding *white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them.

4 And there appeared unto them E-li-ās with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.

5 And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for E-li-ās.

6 For he wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid.

7 And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.

8 And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

9 ¶ And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean.

11 ¶ And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes that E-li-ās must first come?

12 And he answered and told them, E-li-ās verily cometh first, and restor-eth all things; and how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be set at naught.

13 But I say unto you, That E-li-ās is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

14 ¶ And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, What question ye with them?

17 And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit;

18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not.

19 He answereth him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.

20 And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming.

21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child.

22 And oftentimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

23 Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief.

25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

He foretelleth his death and resurrection

26 And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead.

27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose.

28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?

29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.

30 ¶ And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it.

31 For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

33 ¶ And he came to Că-pě-r-nă-um: and being in the house he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way?

34 But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest.

35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.

36 And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them, 37 Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

38 ¶ And John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us: and we forbid him, because he followeth not us.

39 But Jesus said, Forbid him not: for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me.

40 For he that is not against us is for our part.

41 ¶ For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.

42 And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

43 ¶ And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

44 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

45 And if thy foot offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

46 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

47 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire:

48 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

49 For every one shall be salted with fire, and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.

50 Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his saltiness, wherewith will ye season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace one with another.

CHAPTER 10

AND he arose from thence, and came into the coasts of Judaea by the farther side of Jordan: and the people resort unto him again; and as he was wont, he taught them again.

2 ¶ And the Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? tempting him.

3 And he answered and said unto them, What did Moses command you?

4 ¶ And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.

5 And Jesus answered and said unto them, For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept.

6 But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female.

7 ⁷ For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife;

8 And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.

9 What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

10 And ¹⁰ in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter.

11 And he saith unto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

13 ¹³ And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

14 But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

15 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever ¹⁵ shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

16 And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

17 ¹⁷ And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?

18 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God.

19 Thou knowest the commandments, ¹⁹ Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother.

20 And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth.

21 Then Jesus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me.

22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions.

23 ²³ And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answered again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them ²⁴ that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

27 And Jesus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.

28 ²⁸ ¶ Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

29 And Jesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's, 30 But he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life.

31 ³¹ And many that are first shall be last; and the last first.

32 ³² ¶ And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him,

33 Saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles:

34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again.

35 ³⁵ ¶ And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldst do for us whatsoever we shall desire.

36 And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you?

37 They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.

38 But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with ³⁸ the baptism that I am baptized with?

39 And they said unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized with shall ye be baptized:

40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John.

42 ⁴² But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 But so shall it not be among you; but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister:

44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

46 ⁴⁶ ¶ And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bār-ti-mæ'ūs, the son of Ti-mæ'ūs, sat by the highway side begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou ⁴⁷ son of David, have mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.

49 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee.

50 And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

52 And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

CHAPTER 11

AND when they came nigh to Jerusalem, unto Bēth-phā-gē and Bethany, at the ¹ mount of Olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,

2 And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you; and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring him in.

3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him; and straightway ³ he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.

5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt?

6 And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded: and they let him go.

7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him; and he sat upon him.

8 And many spread their garments in the way; and others cut down branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna; ^a Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord:

10 Blessed be ^a the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest.

11 ^b And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple; and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto ^d Bethany with the twelve.

12 ^e ¶ And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry:

13 And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.

14 And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.

15 ^f ¶ And they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrow the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves;

16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple.

17 And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, 'My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of thieves.

18 And the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the people was ^g astonished at his doctrine.

19 And when even was come, he went out of the city.

20 ^h ¶ And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.

21 And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away.

22 And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God.

23 For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

24 Therefore I say unto you, 'What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

25 ⁱ ¶ And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.

26 But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

27 ^j ¶ And they come again to Jerusalem: and as he was walking in the temple, there came to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders, 28 And say unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?

29 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I will also ask of you one question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

30 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men? answer me.

31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him?

32 But if we shall say, Of men; they feared the people: for all men counted John, that he was a prophet indeed.

33 And they answered and said unto Jesus, We cannot tell. And Jesus answering saith unto them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

CHAPTER 12

^a AND he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the ^b winefat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they ^c cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some.

6 Having yet therefore one son, his wellbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.

7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be our's.

8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.

10 And have ye not read this scripture; 'The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner;

11 This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

12 And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people: for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

13 ^d ¶ And they send unto him certain of the Pharisees and of the ^e Herodians, to catch him in his words.

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a penny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Caesar's.

17 And Jesus answering said unto them, Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.

18 ^t ¶ Then come unto him the Sadducees, which say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying,

19 Master, Moses wrote unto us, 'If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Moses, ^u how in ^v the bush God spake unto him, saying, 'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

^v For Mk. 12: 1

28 ¶ And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, ^a Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord:

30 And ^a thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like, namely this, ^a Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.

32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; and ^a there is none other but he:

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, ^a is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. ^a And no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 ¶ And Jesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the ^a son of David?

36 For David himself said ^a by the Holy Ghost, ^a The Lord said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 David therefore himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he then his son? And the common people ^a heard him gladly.

38 ¶ And he said unto them in his doctrine, Beware of the scribes, which love to go in long clothing, and love salutations in the marketplaces,

39 And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts:

40 Which ^a devour widows' houses, and ^a for a pretence make long, prayers: these shall receive greater damnation.

41 ¶ And Jesus sat over against ^a the treasury, and beheld how the people ^a cast money into the treasury; and many that were rich cast in much.

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two ^a mites, which make a farthing.

43 And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury:

44 For all they did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living.

AND as he went out of the temple, ^a one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!

2 And Jesus answering said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there ^a shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the ^a mount of Olives over against the temple, Peter and James and John and ^a Andrew asked him privately, 4 Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5 And Jesus answering them began to say, Take heed lest any man deceive you:

6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

7 And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorrows.

9 ¶ But take heed to yourselves: for every ^a man shall deliver you up to counsel; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.

10 And the gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate; but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Ghost.

12 Now the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 And ^a ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 ¶ But when ye shall see the ^a abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then let them that be in Judea flee to the mountains:

15 ^a And let him that is on the house-top not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house:

16 And let him that is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment.

17 But woe to them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

19 For in those days shall be affliction, ^a such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created unto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.

21 And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ; or, lo, he is there; believe him not:

22 For false Christs and ^a false prophets shall rise, and shall ^a shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect.

23 But take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things.

24 ¶ But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light,

25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.

26 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.

27 And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

28 Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near:

29 So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors.

30 Verily I say unto you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done.

31 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

32 ¶ But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, ^a but the Father.

33 Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

34 For the Son of man is as a man ^a taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.

35 Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning:

36 Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping.

37 And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

3 ¶ And being in ⁶Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an ^aalabaster box of ointment of ^{3c}spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

6 And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

7 For ye have the poor with you always, and whosoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

10 ¶ And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 ¶ And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And whosoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

17 ¶ And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 And as they sat and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me.

19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?

20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dipeth with me in the dish.

21 The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

22 ¶ And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.

23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

24 And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.

25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

26 ¶ And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

27 And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

28 But after that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee.

29 But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.

30 And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

31 But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

32 ¶ And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray.

33 And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy;

34 And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.

35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed ⁶that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

36 And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.

37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour?

38 Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.

39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

42 Rise up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 ¶ And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

44 And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whosoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely.

45 And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, Master, master; and kissed him.

46 ¶ And they laid their hands on him, and took him.

47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take me?

49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but the scriptures must be fulfilled.

50 And they all forsook him, and fled.

51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him:

52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 ¶ And they led Jesus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.

54 And Peter followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.

55 And the chief priests and all the council sought for ⁶witness against Jesus to put him to death; and found none.

56 For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.

57 And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying, 58 We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.

59 But neither so did their witness agree together.

60 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerst thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

61 But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?

62 And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses?

64 Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

65 And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophecy: and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands.

66 ¶ And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest:

67 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth.

68 But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch: and the cock crew.

69 And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

70 And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art a Galilaean, and thy speech agreeth thereto.

71 But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak.

72 And the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept.

CHAPTER 15

AND straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.

2 And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering said unto him, Thou sayest it.

3 And the chief priests accused him

Jesus is bound, and accused before Pilate of many things: but he answered nothing.

4 And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

5 But Jesus yet answered nothing; so that Pilate marvelled.

6 Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.

7 And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy.

11 But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.

12 And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews?

13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.

14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

15 ¶ And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

16 And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Praetorium; and they call together the whole band.

17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head, 18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!

19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him,

His crucifixion, death, and resurrection

they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

21 And they compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross.

22 And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull.

23 And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.

25 And it was the third hour, and they crucified him.

26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 And with him they crucify two thieves; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.

28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressors.

29 And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, 30 Save thyself, and come down from the cross.

31 Likewise also the chief priests mocking said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save.

32 Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him reviled him.

33 And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lā-mā sā-bāch-thā-ni which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth E-li-ā.

36 And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let alone; let us see whether E-li-ā will come to take him down.

ST. MARK 16

37 And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.

38 And the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.

39 ¶ And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.

40 There were also women looking on afar off: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome;

41 (Who also, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered unto him;) and many other women which came up with him unto Jerusalem.

42 ¶ And now when the even was come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath, 43 Joseph of Arimathæa, an honourable counsellor, which also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus.

44 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.

45 And when he knew it of the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph.

46 And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.

47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where he was laid.

CHAPTER 16

And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

2 And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.

5 And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted.

6 And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.

7 But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; and they trembled and were amazed: neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid.

9 ¶ Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils.

10 And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. LUKE

CHAPTER I

FORASMUCH as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us, 2 Even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were eyewitnesses, and ministers of the word;

3 It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all

The preface of Luke to his whole gospel

12 ¶ After that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.

13 And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them.

14 ¶ Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

16 ¶ He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.

17 And these signs shall follow them that believe: In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues;

18 ¶ They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

19 ¶ So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God.

20 And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

things from the very first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent Theophylact, 4 ¶ That thou mightest know the certainty of those things, wherein thou hast been instructed.

5 ¶ There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judaea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abiathar; and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth.

The angel Gabriel visiteth Mary

6 And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

7 And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.

8 And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course, 9 According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13 But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth.

15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb.

16 And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God.

17 And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

18 And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

19 And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

20 And, behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21 And the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them; and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying, 25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.

26 And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, 27 To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God.

31 And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.

32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest; and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David:

33 And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the angel answered and said unto her, "The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also ¹that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the ²Son of God.

36 And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.

37 For ³with God nothing shall be impossible.

38 And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

39 And Mary arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Juda;

40 And entered into the house of Zach-⁴ari-⁵as, and saluted Elisabeth.

41 And it came to pass, that, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost:

42 And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, ⁶Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

44 For, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 And blessed is she that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.

46 ⁷And Mary said, My soul doth magnify the Lord, 47 And my spirit hath rejoiced in ⁸God my Saviour.

48 For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth all generations ⁹shall call me blessed.

49 For ¹⁰he that is mighty ¹¹hath done to me great things; and ¹²holy is his name.

50 And ¹³his mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation.

51 ¹⁴He hath shewed strength with his arm; ¹⁵he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

52 ¹⁶He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

53 ¹⁷He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath sent empty away.

54 He hath ¹⁸holpen his servant Israel, in ¹⁹remembrance of his mercy;

55 ²⁰As he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to ²¹his seed for ever.

56 And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

57 Now Elisabeth's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.

58 And ²²her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her.

59 And it came to pass, that on ²³the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and ²⁴they called him Zach-²⁵ari-²⁶as, after the name of his father.

60 And his mother answered and said, Not so; but ²⁷he shall be called John.

61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.

62 And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing²⁸ table, and wrote, saying, His name is John.

64 And ²⁹they marvelled all.

65 And ³⁰his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, and ³¹praised God.

66 And ³²they fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judaea.

67 And all they that heard them ³³laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be! And ³⁴the hand of the Lord was with him.

68 And his father Zach-³⁵ari-³⁶as was filled with the Holy Ghost, and prophesied, ³⁷saying,

The birth of Christ

68 ³⁸Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath ³⁹visited and ⁴⁰redeemed his people, 69 And hath raised up ⁴¹a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David;

70 ⁴²As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began:

71 ⁴³That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;

72 To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to ⁴⁴remember his holy covenant;

73 ⁴⁵The oath which he swore to our father Abraham,

74 That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, 75 ⁴⁶In holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life.

76 And thou, child, shalt be called ⁴⁷the prophet of the Highest: for ⁴⁸thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways;

77 ⁴⁹To give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the ⁵⁰remission of their sins,

78 Through the tender mercy of our God; whereby ⁵¹the dayspring from on high hath visited us, 79 ⁵²To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, ⁵³to guide our feet into the way of peace.

80 ⁵⁴And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was ⁵⁵in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel.

CHAPTER 2

AND it came to pass in those days, that there went out ¹a decree from ²Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be ³taxed.

2 (And ⁴this taxing was first made when Cy-⁵re-⁶ni-⁷us was governor of Syria.)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 And ⁸Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called ⁹Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:)

5 ¹⁰To be taxed with ¹¹Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 And she brought forth her first-born son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the ¹²inn.

8 And there were in the same country ¹³shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9 And, lo, the ¹⁴angel of the Lord came upon them, and ¹⁵the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and ¹⁶they were sore afraid.

10 And the angel said unto them, ¹⁷Fear not: for, behold, I bring you ¹⁸good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11 For unto you is born this day in the city of David ¹⁹a Saviour, which is ²⁰Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a ²¹sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and ²²saying, 14 ²³Glory to God in the highest, and on earth ²⁴peace, good will toward men.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18 And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 But Mary ¹kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, ²glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21 And when ³eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, ⁴his name was called JESUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when ⁵the days of her purification according to ⁶the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord;

23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, ⁷'Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;)

24 And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, ⁸'A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons.

25 And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was ⁹just and devout, ¹⁰waiting for the consolation of Israel; and the ¹¹'Holy Ghost was upon him.

26 And it was ¹²revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should ¹³'not see death, before he had seen ¹⁴the Lord's Christ.

27 And ¹⁵he came by the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law,

28 Then took he him up in his arms, and ¹⁶'blessed God, ¹⁷and said, 29 Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word:

30 For mine eyes ¹⁸'have seen thy salvation,

31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;

32 ¹⁹'A light to lighten the Gentiles, and ²⁰'the glory of thy people Israel.

33 And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.

34 And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, 35 (Yea, a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

36 And there was one Anna, ²³'a prophetess, the daughter of Phā-nū-ēl, of the tribe of Aser: she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity;

37 And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but ²⁴'served God with fastings and prayers night and day.

38 And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that ²⁵'looked for redemption in Jerusalem.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth.

40 And ²⁶'the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and ²⁷'the grace of God was upon him.

41 Now his parents went to Jerusalem ²⁸'every year at the feast of the passover.

42 And when he was twelve years old, ²⁹'they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of the feast.

43 And when they had fulfilled ³⁰'the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not of it.

44 But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance.

45 And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.

46 And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of ³¹'the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.

48 And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing.

49 And he said unto them, ³²'How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be ³³'about my Father's business?

50 And ³⁴'they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

51 And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

52 And ³⁵'Jesus increased in wisdom and ³⁶'stature, and ³⁷'in favour with God ³⁸'and man.

CHAPTER 3

NOW in the fifteenth year of the reign of ¹'Ti-bē-ri-ūs Cēsār, ²'Pontius Pilate being governor of Judæa, and ³'Herod being tē-tārch of Galilee, and ⁴'his brother Philip tetrarch of I-tū-ræ-ā and of the region of Trāch-ō-nītis, and Lŷ-sā-ē-ni-ās the tetrarch of Ab-i-lē-nē,

2 ⁵'Annas and ⁶'Cāi-ā-phās being the ⁷'high priests, the word of God came unto John the son of Zāch-ā-ri-ās ⁸'in the wilderness.

3 And he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for the ⁹'remission of sins;

4 As it is written in the book of the words of E-sā-ās the prophet, saying, ¹⁰'The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth;

6 And all flesh ¹¹'shall see the salvation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have ¹²'Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

CHAPTER 4

^a AND Jesus being ^b full of the Holy ^c Ghost returned from Jordan, and ^d was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,

2 Being forty days ^e tempted of the devil. And in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered.

3 And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

4 And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That ^f man shall not live by bread alone, (but by every word of God.)

5 And the devil, taking him up into an high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

6 And the devil said unto him, All this power wilt I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it.

7 If thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine.

8 And Jesus answered and said unto

Christ at Nazareth and Capernaum him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

9 And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence:

10 For it is written, ^b He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee:

11 And in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

12 And Jesus answering said unto him, It is said, ^c Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him ^d for a season.

14 ^a And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.

15 ^a And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.

16 ^a And he came to ^b Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up ^c for to read.

17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet E-śā-ās. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

18 ^a The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, 19 To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

22 And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this ^a Joseph's son?

23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in Cā-pēr-nā-um, do also here in thy country.

24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, ^a No prophet is accepted in his own country.

25 But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of ^b E-lī-ās, when ^c the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;

26 But unto none of them was E-lī-ās sent, ^d save unto ^e Sā-rēp-tā, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow.

27 And many lepers were in Israel in the time of ^f E-lī-sē-ūs the prophet; and none of them ^g was cleansed, saving ^h Nā-ā-mān the Syrian.

28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath, 29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong.

30 But he ^a passing through the midst of them went his way, 31 ^a And came down to Cā-pēr-nā-um, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath days.

32 And they were ^a astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with power.

33 ^a And in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice, 34 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; the Holy One of God.

35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not.

ST. LUKE 5

36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

38 ¶ And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her.

39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered unto them.

40 ¶ Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

41 And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And he rebuking them suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.

42 ¶ And when it was day, he departed and went into a desert place: and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them.

43 And he said unto them, I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent. And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

CHAPTER 5

AND it came to pass, that as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gēn-nēsā-rēt,

2 ¶ And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch out into

The miraculous draught of fishes the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Simon answering said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.

7 And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:

10 And so was also James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed him.

12 ¶ And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jesus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

15 ¶ But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 ¶ And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there

One sick of the palsy healed were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judaea, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 ¶ And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the housetop, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jesus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?

22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.

27 ¶ And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi; sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.

30 But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

31 And Jesus answering said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick.

32 I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ And they said unto him, Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them?

35 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

36 ¶ And he spake also a parable unto them; No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved.

39 No man also having drunk old wine straightaway desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.

CHAPTER 6

AND it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Pharisees said unto them, Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath days?

3 And Jesus answering them said, Have ye not read so much as this, what David did, when himself was an hungred, and they which were with him;

4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the shewbread, and gave also to them that were with him; which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone?

5 And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

6 And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7 And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him.

8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing: Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

12 And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.

13 And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles;

14 Simon, (whom he also named Peter,) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew, 15 Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Al-phæ-us, and Simon called Zē-lō-tēs, 16 And Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitor.

17 And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judæa and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;

18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue out of him, and healed them all.

20 And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor: for your's is the kingdom of God.

21 Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.

22 Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.

23 Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

24 But I love you that are rich: for ye have received your consolation.

25 Woe unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. Woe unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep.

26 Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

27 But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you, 28 Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you.

29 And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloke forbid not to take thy coat also.

30 Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.

31 And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

32 For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.

33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.

34 And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

35 But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

36 Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.

37 Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven:

38 Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give unto your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.

39 And he spake a parable unto them, Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch?

40 The disciple is not above his master: but every one that is perfect shall be as his master.

41 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.

43 For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

44 For every tree is known by his own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes.

45 A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

46 And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?

47 Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like:

48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock.

49 But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell: and the ruin of that house was great.

CHAPTER 7

NOW when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Că-per-nă-um.

2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:

5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldst enter under my roof:

7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found ^athe servant whole that had been sick.

11 [¶] And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nāzān; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, ^bthe only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, weep not.

14 And he came and touched the bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, ^cArise.

15 And ^bhe that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he ^ddelivered him to his mother.

16 And ^bthere came a fear on all: and they ^eglorified God, saying, That ^fa great prophet is risen up among us; and, That ^gGod hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judaea, and throughout all the region round about.

18 [¶] And the disciples of John shewed him of all these things.

19 [¶] And John calling unto him two of his disciples sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many there was blind he gave sight.

22 Then Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached.

23 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

24 [¶] And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the ^apublicans, justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John.

30 [¶] But the Pharisees and lawyers ^brejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized of him.

31 [¶] And the Lord said, Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the marketplace, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a devil.

34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners!

35 But wisdom is justified of all her children.

36 [¶] And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And ^bhe went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat.

37 And, behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment, 38 And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and ^aanointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

41 There was ^aa certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty.

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath ^bwashed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 [¶] Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

46 My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

48 And he said unto her, Thy sins are forgiven.

49 And they that sat at meat with him began to say within themselves, Who is this that forgiveth sins also?

50 And he said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace.

CHAPTER 8

AND it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, ^apreaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him,

2 And ^acertain women, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, ^bout of whom went seven devils,

3 And ^aJoanna the wife of Chbāzā ^bHerod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance.

4 [¶] And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

11 Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

12 Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

16 ¶ No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17 ¶ For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad.

18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have.

19 ¶ Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press.

20 And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.

22 ¶ Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said unto them, Where roared is your faith? And they being afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

26 ¶ And they arrived at the country of the Gād-ā-rēnes, which is over against Galilee.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God? most high? I beseech thee, torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep.

32 And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed.

37 ¶ Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gād-ā-rēnes round about besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

38 Now the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying, 39 Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done unto him.

40 And it came to pass, that, when Jesus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 ¶ And, behold, there came a man named Jā-i-rūs, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the people thronged him.

43 ¶ And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanchd.

45 And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude thronged thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace.

49 ¶ While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master.

50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth.

53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, arise.

55 And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat.

56 And her parents were astonished: but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

CHAPTER 9

¶ THEN he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

2 And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.

4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

6 And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

7 ¶ Now Herod the tē-trārch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead;

8 And of some, that E-li'ās had appeared; and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

9 And Herod said, John have I beheaded; but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him.

10 ¶ And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done, And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bēth-sāi-dā.

11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.

12 And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes: except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

18 ¶ And it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answering said, John the Baptist; but some say, E-li-ās; and others say, that one of the old prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answering said, The Christ of God.

21 And he straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that thing;

22 Saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

23 ¶ And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

24 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

25 For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?

26 ¶ For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.

27 But I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

28 ¶ And it came to pass about an eight days after these sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistening.

30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and E-li-ās;

31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 But Peter and they that were with him were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for E-li-ās: I not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.

36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 ¶ And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

38 And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son: for he is mine only child.

39 And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him hardly departeth from him.

40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not.

41 And Jesus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

43 ¶ And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples, 44 Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

46 ¶ Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him, 48 And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 ¶ And John answered and said,

Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbade him, because he followeth not with us.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against us is for us.

51 ¶ And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, 52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him.

53 And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.

54 And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as E-li-ās did?

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.

56 For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 ¶ And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

61 And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house.

62 And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

AFTER these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face dumb spake; and the people wondered.

15 But some of them said, He casteth out devils through Bē-ēl-zē-būb the chief of the devils.

16 And others, tempting him, sought of him a sign from heaven.

17 But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth.

18 If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Bē-ēl-zē-būb.

19 And if I by Bē-ēl-zē-būb cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.

20 But if I with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

21 When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace:

22 But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he is trusted, and divideth his spoils.

23 He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth.

24 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

25 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.

26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, O blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.

28 But he said, Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

29 ¶ And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given it; but the sign of Jonas the prophet.

30 For as Jonas was a sign unto the Nin-ē-vites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation.

31 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

32 The men of Nin-ē-vē shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here.

33 No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

34 The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.

35 Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

37 ¶ And as he spake, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat.

38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner.

39 And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.

40 Ye fools, do not he that make that which is without make that which is within also?

41 But rather give alms of such things as ye have; and, behold, all things are clean unto you.

42 But woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

43 Woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

44 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

45 ¶ Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also.

46 And he said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 Woe unto you for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute:

50 That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation;

51 From the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zach-ā-ri-ās, which perished between the altar and the temple: verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation.

52 Woe unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.

53 And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things:

54 Laying wait for him, and seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

CHAPTER 12

IN the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

2 For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.

3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the house-tops.

4 And I say unto my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

5 But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him.

6 Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God?

7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows.

8 Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God:

9 But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God.

10 And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him; but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Ghost it shall not be forgiven.

11 And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:

12 For the Holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.

13 And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.

14 And he said unto him, Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you?

15 And he said unto them, Take heed, and ^abeware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully:

17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?

18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

20 But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?

21 So is he that ^alayeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.

22 ^a¶ And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

24 Consider the ^aravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and God feedeth them: how much more are ye better than the fowls?

25 And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?

27 Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that ^aSolomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind.

30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.

31 ¶ But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you.

32 Fear not, ^alittle flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure ^ato give you the kingdom.

33 ¶ Sell that ye have, and give alms; provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a ^atreasure in the heavens that faileth not, ^awhere no thief approacheth, ^aneither moth corrupteth.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35 ¶ Let your loins be girded about, and ^ayour lights burning;

36 And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the ^awedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

37 ¶ Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that ^ahe shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.

38 And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third ^awatch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

39 ¶ And this know, that if the Goodman of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through.

40 Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.

41 ¶ Then Peter said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all?

42 And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise ^asteward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season?

43 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

44 Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath.

45 But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the men-servants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken;

46 The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.

47 And that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

48 But ^ahe that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him ^ashall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

49 ¶ I am come to send fire on the earth; and what will I, if it be already kindled?

50 But ^aI have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished!

51 ¶ Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division:

52 For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.

53 The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother in law against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

54 ¶ And he said also to the people, ^aWhen ye see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shower; and so it is.

55 And when ye see the south wind blow, ye say, There will be ^aheat; and it cometh to pass.

56 Ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky and of the earth; but how is it that ye do not discern this time?

57 Yea, and why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right?

58 ¶ When thou goest with thine adversary to the magistrate, as thou art in the way, give diligence that thou mayest be delivered from him; lest he hale thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into prison.

59 I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast paid the very last mite.

CHAPTER 13

THERE were present at that season some that told him of the Galilaens, whose blood ^aC Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galilaens ^awere sinners above all the Galilaens, because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, Nay; but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in ^aSiloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwell in Jerusalem?

5 I tell you, Nay; but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable: A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and ^afound none.

7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: ^acut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?

8 And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9 And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

11 ¶ And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself.

12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

13 And he laid his hands on her; and immediately she was made straight; and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath day.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16 And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?

17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 ¶ Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it?

19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

20 And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

22 And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem.

23 Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, 24 ¶ Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 ¶ When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence ye are:

26 Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.

27 But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity.

28 ¶ There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out.

29 And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God.

30 And, behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.

31 ¶ The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying unto him, Get thee out, and depart hence: for Herod will kill thee.

32 And he said unto them, Go ye, and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to day and to morrow, and the third day I shall be perfected.

33 Nevertheless I must walk to day, and to morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Jerusalem.

34 ¶ O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not!

35 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: and verily I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until the time come when ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

CHAPTER 14

AND it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath day, that they watched him.

2 And, behold, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy.

3 And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go;

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath day?

6 And they could not answer him again to these things.

7 ¶ And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them,

8 When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him;

9 And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

10 But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

11 For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

12 ¶ Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompense be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:

14 And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just.

15 ¶ And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.

16 ¶ Then said he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many:

17 And sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready.

18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.

19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

22 And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.

23 And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

24 For I say unto you, That none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

25 ¶ And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said unto them, 26 ¶ If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.

27 And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

28 For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it?

29 Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him, 30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish.

31 Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?

32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassador, and desireth conditions of peace.

33 So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.

34 ¶ Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned?

35 It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill; but men cast it out. ¶ He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

CHAPTER 15

¶ THEN drew near unto him all the publicans and sinners for to hear him.

2 And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.

3 ¶ And he spake this parable unto them, saying,

4 ¶ What man of you, having an hundred dished sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost.

7 I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.

8 ¶ Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it?

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost.

The parable of the prodigal son

10 Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

11 ¶ And he said, "A certain man had two sons:

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.

13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

18 I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, 19 And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

20 And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:

23 And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry:

24 For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

The parable of the unjust steward

25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick and dancing.

26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.

27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.

28 And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and intreated him.

29 And he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:

30 But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.

31 And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine.

32 It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

CHAPTER 16

¶ AND he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship? I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

9 And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?

12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?

13 ¶ No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

14 And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.

15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.

16 ¶ The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

17 And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tithe of the law to fail.

18 Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery.

19 ¶ There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in ^apurple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:

20 And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate full of sores, 21 And desiring to be fed with ^athe crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the ^adogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the ^aangels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;

23 And in ^ahell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth ^aAbraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

24 And he cried and said, ^a"Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for ^aI am tormented in this flame."

25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime ^areceivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. 26 And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house:

28 For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham saith unto him, They have ^aMoses and the prophets; let them hear them.

30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

CHAPTER 17

^aTHEN said he unto the disciples, It is impossible but that offences will come: but woe unto him, through whom they come!

2 It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.

3 ^aTake heed to yourselves: ^aif thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him.

4 And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

5 And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith.

6 ^aAnd the Lord said, If ye had faith as ^aa grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this ^asycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

7 But which of you, having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, ^awill say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?

8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink?

9 Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not.

10 So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, ^a"We are unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do."

11 ^aAnd it came to pass, as he ^awent to Jerusalem, that he passed ^athrough the midst of Samaria and Galilee.

12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were ^alepers, which stood afar off:

13 And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.

14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go ^ashew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice ^aglorified God,

16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was ^aa Samaritan.

17 And Jesus answering said, ^aWere there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?

18 There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.

19 And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: ^athy faith hath made thee whole.

20 ^a¶ And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, ^awhen the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation:

21 ^aNeither shall they say, Lo here! or, ^athere! for, behold, the kingdom of God is ^awithin you.

22 And he said unto the disciples, The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 And they shall say to you, See here; or, see there: ^ago not after them, nor follow them.

24 For ^aas the lightning, that lighteth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall also the Son of man be in his day.

25 But first ^amust he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation.

26 ^a¶ And as it was in the days of Noë, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.

27 They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noë entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

28 Likewise also as it was ^ain the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded;

29 But the same day that Lot went out of ^aSodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.

31 ^a¶ In that day, he which shall be upon the housetop, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

32 ^aRemember Lot's wife.

33 ^aWhosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it.

34 I tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

35 ^aTwo women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

36 Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

37 And they answered and said unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, ^aWhosoever the body is, thither will the ^aeagles be gathered together.

CHAPTER 18

AND he spake a parable unto them ^ato this end, that men ought ^aalways to pray, and not to faint;

2 Saying, I there was in a city a judge, which ^afeared not God, neither regarded man:

3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, ^aAvenge me of mine adversary.

4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;

5 ^aYet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she ^awear me out.

6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.

7 And shall not God ^aavenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8 I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

9 And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, ^aand despised others:

10 Two men ^awent up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.

11 The Pharisee ^astood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, usurers, adulterers, or even as this publican.

12 ^aI fast twice in the week, I give ^btitles of all that I possess.

13 And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but ^csmote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that ^dexalteth himself shall be abased; and he that ^ehumbleth himself shall be exalted.

15 ^fAnd they brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child ^gshall in no wise enter therein.

18 ^hAnd a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God.

20 Thou knowest the commandments, ⁱDo not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and ^jdistribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, ^kHow hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.

28 Then Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, 30 Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.

31 ^l¶ Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.

32 For he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on:

33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again.

34 And ^mthey understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

35 ⁿ¶ And it came to pass, that as he was come nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way side begging:

36 And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by.

38 And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou ^oson of David, have mercy on me.

39 And they which went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried so much the more, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.

40 And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him, 41 Saying, What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.

42 And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: ^pthy faith hath saved thee.

43 And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, ^qglorifying God: and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

CHAPTER 19

AND Jesus entered and passed A through Jericho.

2 And, behold, there was a man named Zacchæus, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And ^rhe sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a ^ssycomore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zacchæus, make haste, and come down; for to day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is ^ta sinner.

8 And Zacchæus stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods ^uI give to the poor; and if I have ^vtaken any thing from any man by false accusation, I ^wrestore him fourfold.

9 And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as he also is a ^xson of Abraham.

10 ^y¶ For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because ^zthey thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

12 ^{aa}¶ He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come.

14 But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.

17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been ^{ab}faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin:

21 For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou laydest not down, and repeat that thou didst not sow.

22 And he saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth wilt I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and repeating that I did not sow:

23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)

26 For I say unto you, That ^{ac}whoever to every one which hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.

27 But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and ^{ad}slay them before me.

28 ^a And when he had thus spoken, ^a he went before, ascending up to Jerusalem.

29 ^a And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Beth-phà-gè and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, 30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him.

32 And they that were sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him.

35 And they brought him to Jesus: and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon.

36 And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen;

38 Saying, Blessed be ¹ the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: ² peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39 ¹ And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out.

41 ¹ And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and ² wept over it, 42 Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

43 For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall ¹ cast a

² trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, 44 And shall lay thee even with the ground, ² and thy children within thee; and they ³ shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the ⁴ time of thy visitation.

45 ¹ And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought;

46 Saying unto them, It is written, ² My house is the house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of thieves.

47 And he taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him, 48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people were very attentive to hear him.

CHAPTER 20

AND it came to pass, that on one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders,

2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer me:

4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

6 But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: for they be persuaded that John was a prophet.

7 And they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

9 ¹ Then began he to speak to the people this parable; A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.

10 And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

12 And again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be our's.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, ² The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

18 ³ Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 ¹ And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 ² And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.

21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God truly:

22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Caesar, or no?

23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shew me a penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Caesar's.

25 And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Caesar the things which be Caesar's, and unto God the things which be God's.

26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 ¹ ² Then came to him certain of the Sadducees, which deny that there is any resurrection; and they asked him, 28 Saying, Master, Moses wrote unto us, ³ If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

31 And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jesus answering said unto them, ⁴ The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

35 But they which shall be ⁵ accounted worthy to obtain ⁶ that ⁷ world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:

36 Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are the ⁸ children of God, being the children of the resurrection.

37 Now that the dead are raised, even Moses shewed ⁹ at the bush, when he calleth the Lord ¹⁰ the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

38 For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living; for all ^alive unto him.

39 ¶ Then certain of the scribes answering said, Master, thou hast well said.

40 And after that they durst not ask him any question at all.

41 ^bAnd he said unto them, How say they that Christ is ^cDavid's son?

42 And David himself saith in the book of Psalms, ^d'The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 43 Till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

44 David therefore calleth him Lord, how is he then his son?

45 ¶ Then in the audience of all the people he said unto his disciples,

46 Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts;

47 ^e'Which devour widows' houses, and for a shew make long prayers: the same shall receive greater damnation.

CHAPTER 21

2 And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites.

3 And he said, ^h'Of a truth I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all:

4 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.

5 ¶ And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said,

6 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall not be left ⁱone stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?

8 And he said, ^j'Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come

The destruction of the temple foretold in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them.

9 But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not by and by.

10 Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:

11 And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and ^k'great signs shall there be from heaven.

12 ^l'But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake.

13 And it shall turn to you for a testimony.

14 Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer:

15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist.

16 And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death.

17 And ^m'ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake.

18 But ⁿ'there shall ^o'not an hair of your head perish.

19 In your patience possess ye your souls.

20 And when ye shall see Jerusalem ^pcompassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

21 Then let them which are in Judæa flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.

22 For these be the ^q'days of vengeance, ^r'that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

24 And they shall fall by the edge of Christ instituteth his last supper

the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until ^s'the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

25 ¶ And there shall be ^t'signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring;

26 Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.

27 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for ^u'your redemption draweth nigh.

29 And he spake to them a parable; ^v'Behold the fig tree, and all the trees; 30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand.

31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.

32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled.

33 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

34 ¶ And take heed to yourselves, ^w'lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

35 For ^x'as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

36 Watch ye therefore, and ^y'pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.

37 And in the day time he was teaching in the temple; and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the ^z'mount of Olives.

38 ^a'And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, for to hear him.

CHAPTER 22

^bNOW ^c'the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.

2 And the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

3 ¶ Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and ^d'captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude.

7 ¶ Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

12 And he shall shew you a large ^e'upper room furnished: there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the ^f'passover.

14 ¶ And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer:

16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves:

18 ^a For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

19 ^a And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 ^a But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.

22 And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed!

23 And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

24 ^a And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

25 ^a And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.

26 But ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.

27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth.

33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death.

34 And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 And he said unto them, ^a When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

37 For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, And ^a he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, ^a here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

39 ^a And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the ^a mount of Olives; and his disciples also followed him.

40 ^a And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

41 And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and ^a kneeled down, and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou beest willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done.

43 And there appeared ^a an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

44 And he being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow, 46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 ^a And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him.

48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas,

His betrayal and arrest

betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

49 When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

50 ^a And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 ^a Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed afar off.

55 And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour after another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him: for he is a Galilean.

60 And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. / And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew.

61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

62 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

63 ^a And the men that held Jesus mocked him, and smote him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophecy, who is it that smote thee?

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

66 ^a And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, saying,

67 Art thou the Christ? tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe:

68 And if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go.

69 Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

70 Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am.

71 And they said, What need we any further witness? for we ourselves have heard of his own mouth.

CHAPTER 23

^a And the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

2 ^a And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar, saying that he himself is Christ a King.

3 And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, I find no fault in this man.

5 And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto ^a Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time.

8 ^a And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him; and he ^a hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

11 And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate.

12 ¶ And the same day ^a Pilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 ¶ And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,

14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people: and, behold, I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him:

15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him.

16 ¶ I will therefore chastise him, and release him.

17 (For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.)

18 ¶ And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas:

19 (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison.)

20 Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, spake again to them.

21 But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him.

22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.

23 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed.

24 And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, which they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will.

26 ¶ And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a ^a Cyrenæan, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus.

27 ¶ And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Jesus turning unto them said, ¶ Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

29 For, behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, ¶ Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

30 ¶ Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.

31 For if they do these things in ^a a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

32 And there were also two other, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.

33 ¶ And when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

34 ¶ Then said Jesus, ¶ Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he be ^a Christ, the chosen of God.

36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar;

37 And saying, If thou be the ^a king of the Jews, save thyself.

38 And a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 ¶ And one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us.

40 But the other answering rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.

42 And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

43 And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in ^a paradise.

44 ¶ And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour.

45 And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst.

46 ¶ And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, ^a into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he gave up the ghost.

47 ¶ Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

50 ¶ And, behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counsellor; and he was a good man, and a ^a just:

51 (The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them;) he was of Arimathæa, a city of the Jews: who also himself waited for the kingdom of God.

52 This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.

53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.

55 And the women also, which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and prepared spices and ^a ointments; and ^b rested the sabbath day according to the commandment.

CHAPTER 24

¶ NOW upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments:

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

7 ¶ Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And ^a they remembered his words, 9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

10 It was Mary Magdalene, and ^a Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, ^a which told these things unto the apostles.

11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and ^a they believed them not.

12 ¶ Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

13 ¶ And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Em-mā-tis, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs.

14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened.

15 And it came to pass, that, while they communed together and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them.

16 But their eyes were holden that they should not know him.

17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are said?

18 And the one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answering said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people: 20 And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

21 But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel: and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done.

22 Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre; 23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.

24 And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre; and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not.

25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken:

26 “Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?”

27 And beginning at “Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and he made as though he would have gone further.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.

31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

36 ¶ And as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

38 And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet.

41 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat?

42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb.

43 And he took it, and did eat before them.

44 And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me.

45 Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures;

46 And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day:

47 And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

48 And ye are witnesses of these things.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. JOHN

CHAPTER 1

IN the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

5 And the light shined in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 ¶ There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

9 That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But as many as received him, to 49 ¶ And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but ye tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high.

50 ¶ And he led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them.

51 And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.

52 And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy:

53 And were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

15 ¶ John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me.

16 And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

17 For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

18 No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 ¶ And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou?

20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

21 And when he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou E-lî-âs? And he saith, "I am not. Art thou ^bthat prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

23 He said, I am ^athe voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet E-sâ-l-âs.

24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor E-lî-âs, neither that prophet?

26 John answered them, saying, "I baptize with water; but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not:

27 ^aHe it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done in ^aBêth-âb-râ beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 ^aThe next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold ^athe Lamb of God, which ^ataketh away the sin of the world.

30 This is he of whom I said, after me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And ^aI knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 And John ^abare record, saying, I saw ^athe Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, ^athe same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

35 ^aAgain the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples;

36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God!

The calling of the apostles

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, ^aWhat seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where dwellest thou?

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour.

40 ^aOne of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was ^aAndrew, Simon Peter's brother.

41 He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, ^athe Christ.

42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, ^aThou art Simon the son of Jona: ^athou shalt be called Cê-ç-phâs, by interpretation, ^aA stone.

43 ^aThe day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth ^aPhilip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

44 Now Philip was of Bêth-sâ-ç-dâ, the city of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip findeth ^aNathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom ^aMoses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of ^aNazareth, the son of Joseph.

46 And Nathanael said unto him, ^aCan there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see.

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold ^aan Israelite indeed, ^ain whom is no guile!

48 Nathanael saith unto him, ^aWhence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the ^aSon of God; thou art the ^aKing of Israel.

50 Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

Christ's first miracle, in Cana

51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see ^aheaven open, and ^athe angels of God ascending and descending upon ^athe Son of man.

CHAPTER 2

AN ^athe third day there was a marriage in ^aCana of Galilee; and ^athe mother of Jesus was there: 2 And both ^aJesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.

3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.

4 Jesus saith unto her, ^aWoman, what have I to do with thee? ^amine hour is not yet come.

5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

6 And there were set there six water-pots of stone, ^aafter the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.

7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew); the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,

10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

11 ^aThis beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth ^ahis glory; and his disciples believed on him.

12 ^aAfter this he went down to ^aCâ-per-nâ-üm, he, and his mother, and ^ahis brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.

13 ^aAnd ^athe Jews' ^apassover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem, 14 ^aAnd found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting;

15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;

16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not ^amy Father's house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, ^aThe zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

18 ^aThen answered the Jews and said unto him, ^aWhat sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

19 ^aJesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days ^aI will raise it up.

20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

21 But he spake of ^athe temple of his body.

22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, ^ahis disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 ^aNow when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, ^amany believed in his name, ^awhen they saw the miracles which he did.

24 But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because ^ahe knew all men, 25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for ^ahe knew what was in man.

CHAPTER 3

THERE was a man of the Pharisees, named ^aNicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

2 The same came to Jesus ^aby night, and said unto him, Rabbi, ^awe know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, ^aexcept God be with him.

3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man ¹ be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be ⁶ born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born ⁷ of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 ⁸ Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

8 ⁹ The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, ¹⁰ How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou ¹¹ a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, ¹² We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ¹³ ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 And ¹⁴ no man hath ascended up to heaven, ¹⁵ but he that ¹⁶ came down from heaven, even the ¹⁷ Son of man which is in heaven.

14 ¹⁸ And ¹⁹ as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man ²⁰ be lifted up:

15 That whosoever ²¹ believeth in him should not perish, but ²² have eternal life.

16 ²³ For ²⁴ God so loved the world, ²⁵ that he gave his ²⁶ only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should ²⁷ not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 For ²⁸ God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; ²⁹ but that the world through him might be saved.

18 ³⁰ He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, that ¹ light is come into the world, and ² men loved darkness rather than light, because ³ their deeds were evil.

20 ⁴ For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, ⁵ lest his deeds should be reproved.

21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, ² that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

22 ³ After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judaea; and there he tarried with them, and ⁴ baptized.

23 ⁵ And John also ⁶ was baptizing in ⁷ Aenon near to Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

24 ⁸ For John was not yet cast into prison.

25 ⁹ Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about ¹⁰ purifying.

26 And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, ² to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and ³ all men come to him.

27 John answered and said, ⁴ A man can receive nothing, ⁵ except it be given him from heaven.

28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, ⁶ I am not the Christ, but that ⁷ I am sent before him.

29 He that hath the bride is the ¹ bridegroom: but ² the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled.

30 ³ He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 ⁴ He that cometh from above is above all: ⁵ he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: he that cometh from heaven ⁶ is above all.

32 And ⁷ what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth; and ⁸ no man receiveth his testimony.

33 He that hath received his testimony hath set to his seal that ¹ God is true.

34 For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him.

35 ² The Father loveth the Son, and ³ hath given all things into his hand.

36 ⁴ He that believeth on the Son hath ⁵ everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but ⁶ the wrath of God abideth on him.

CHAPTER 4

WHEN therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and ² baptized more disciples than ³ John,

2 (Though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,)

3 He left Judaea, and departed ⁴ again into Galilee.

4 And he must needs go through Samaria.

5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the ⁶ parcel of ground that ⁷ Jacob gave to his son ⁸ Joseph.

6 Now Jacob's ⁹ well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.

7 There cometh ¹ a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, ² Give me to drink.

8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)

9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? ² for the Jews have no dealings with the ³ Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee ⁴ living water.

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 ¹ Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:

14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him ² shall never thirst; ³ but the water that I shall give him shall be ⁴ in him a well of water springing up into ⁵ everlasting life.

15 The woman saith unto him, Sir, ¹ give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:

18 For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saist thou truly.

19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art ² a prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in ³ this mountain; and ye say, that ⁴ in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, ² the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.

22 ³ Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for ⁴ salvation is of the Jews.

23 But ⁵ the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall ⁶ worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

24 ⁷ God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

25 The woman saith unto him, I know that ⁸ Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.

26 Jesus saith unto her, ⁹ I that speak unto thee am he.

27 ¹ And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

ST. JOHN 5

28 The woman then left her water-pot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men, 29 Come, see a man, ^b which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

31 ¶ In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?

34 Jesus saith unto them, My meat is ^c to do the will of him ^d that sent me, and ^e to finish his work.

35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for ^f they are white already to harvest.

36 And he that reapeth ^g receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

37 And herein is that saying true, ^h One soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

39 ¶ And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

40 So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

41 And ⁱ many more believed because of his own word;

42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the ^j Saviour of the world.

43 ¶ Now after ^k two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee.

44 For Jesus himself testified, that ^l a prophet hath no honour in his own country.

45 Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galilæans received him,

Christ's second miracle, in Cana
^a having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

46 So Jesus came again into ^a Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at ^b Cā-pēr-zā-nim.

47 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judæa into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jesus unto him, ^c Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.

49 The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, ^d come down ere my child die.

50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, ^e and his whole house.

54 ^f This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judæa into Galilee.

CHAPTER 5

AFTER this there was a ^a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is at Jerusalem by the ^b sheep ^c market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, ^d waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped 33 ^aYe sent unto John, and ^bhe bare witness unto the truth.

34 But ^aI receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 ^aHe was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

36 ^aBut I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me ^ato finish, ^bthe same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

37 And the Father himself, which hath sent me, ^ahath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, ^bnor seen his shape.

38 And ^aye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

39 ^aSo search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and ^bthey are they which testify of me.

40 And ^aye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

41 I receive not honour from men.

42 But I know you, that ye have not ^athe love of God in you.

43 I am come ^ain my Father's name, and ye ^breceive me not: ^cif another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.

44 How can ye believe, ^awhich receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from ^bGod only?

45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, ^ain whom ye trust.

46 For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for ^ahe wrote of me.

47 But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

CHAPTER 6

^aAFTER these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

3 And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

4 And the ^apassover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.

5 ^aWhen Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto ^aPhilip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?

6 And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.

7 Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, 9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many?

10 And Jesus said, ^aMake the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

11 And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, ^aGather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

14 Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth ^athat prophet should come into the world.

15 ^aWhen Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

16 And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea, 17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward ^aCă-pêr-nă-ûm. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.

20 But he saith unto them, ^aIt is I; be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

22 ^aThe day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone;

23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:)

24 ^aWhen the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Că-pêr-nă-ûm, seeking for Jesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^aYe seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

27 ^aLabour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, ^aWhat shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, ^aThis is the work of God, ^bthat ye believe on him ^cwhom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore unto him, ^aWhat sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 Our fathers did eat ^amanna in the desert; as it is written, ^bHe gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is he ^awhich cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 Then said they unto him, Lord, ^aevermore give us this bread.

35 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me ^ashall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

36 But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37 ^aAll that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and ^bhim that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

38 For ^aI came down from heaven, ^bnot to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.

39 And ^athis is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but ^bshould raise it up again at ^cthe last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which ^aseeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, ^aIs not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me ^adraw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 It is written in the prophets, ^aAnd they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

46 ^aNot that any man hath seen the Father, save ^ahe which is of God, he hath seen the Father.

47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

48 I am that bread of life.

49 ^aYour Fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 This is the bread ^awhich cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is ^amy flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

52 The Jews therefore ^astrove among themselves, saying, ^aHow can this man give us his flesh to eat?

53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and ^adrink his blood, ye have no life in you.

54 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, ^adwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As ^athe living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.

59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Că-per-nă-um.

60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is ^aan hard saying; who can hear it?

61 When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?

62 What and if ye shall see the Son of man ^aascend up where he was before?

63 It is the ^aspirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: ^athe words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

64 But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and ^awho should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that ^ano man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.

66 ^aFrom that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast ^athe words of eternal life.

69 And we believe and are sure that thou art ^athat Christ, the Son of the living God.

70 Jesus answered them, ^aHave not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is ^aa devil?

71 He spake of ^aJudas Iscariot the son of Simon: for he it was that ^ashould betray him, being one of the twelve.

CHAPTER 7

AFTER these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he ^awould not walk in Jewry, because ^athe Jews sought to kill him.

2 Now ^athe Jews' ^afeast of tabernacles was at hand.

3 ^aHis brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, ^ashew thyself to the world.

5 For neither did his brethren believe in him.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, ^aMy time is not yet come: but your time is always ready.

7 The world cannot hate you; but ^ame it hateth, because I testify of it, that ^athe works thereof are evil.

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; for my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee. 10 ^aBut when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then the Jews ^asought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And there was much ^amurmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him ^afor fear of the Jews.

14 ^aNow about the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.

15 And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, ^ahaving never learned?

16 Jesus answered them, and said, ^aMy doctrine is not mine, but ^ahis that sent me.

17 ^aIf any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, ^awhether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

18 He that speaketh of himself ^aseeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

19 ^aDid not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill me?

20 The people answered and said, ^aThou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, ^aI have done one work, and ye all marvel.

22 ^aMoses therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but ^aof the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath day circumscribe a man.

23 If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day?

24 ^aJudge not according to the appearance, but ^ajudge righteous judgment.

25 Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill?

26 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?

27 Howbeit ^awe know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me ^ais true, ^awhom ye know not.

29 But ^aI know him: for I am from him, and ^ahe hath sent me.

30 Then ^athey sought to take him: but ^ano man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 And ^amany of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?

32 ^aThe Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Jesus unto them, ^aYet a little while am I with you, and then ^aI go unto him that sent me.

34 ^aYe shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the ^adispersed among the ^aGentiles, and teach the Gentiles?

36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 ^aIn the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, ^aIf any man thirst, ^alet him come unto me, and drink.

38 ^aHe that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, ^aout of his belly shall flow rivers of ^aliving water.

39 (But this spake he of the Spirit, ^awhich they that believe on him said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and ^a hast a devil?

49 Jesus answered, I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

50 And ^a I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^a If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.

52 Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. ⁱ Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.

53 Art thou greater than our Father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself?

54 Jesus answered, If I honour myself, my honour is nothing: it is of my Father that ^h honoureth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God:

55 Yet ye have not known him; but ⁱ I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you; but I know him, and keep his saying.

56 Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and ^h he saw it, and was glad.

57 Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham?

58 Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, ⁱ I am.

59 Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, ^e going through the midst of them, and so passed by. But many more.

CHAPTER 9

AND as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, ^a who did sin, this man, or ^b his parents, that he was born blind?

3 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: ^a but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and ^afind pasture.

10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and ^ato kill, and to destroy: ^aI am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

11 ^aI am the good shepherd: the good shepherd ^agiveth his life for the sheep.

12 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and ^aleaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

14 I am the good shepherd, and ^aknow my sheep, and ^aam known of mine.

15 ^aAs the Father knoweth me, even so ^aknow I the Father: and ^aI lay down my life for the sheep.

16 And ^aother sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be ^aone fold, and one shepherd.

17 ^aTherefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have ^apower to lay it down, and I have power ^ato take it again. ^aI thus commandment have I received of my Father.

19 ^aI ^aThere was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.

20 And many of them said, ^aHe hath a devil, and ^ais mad; why hear ye him?

21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. ^aCan a devil open the eyes of the blind?

22 ^aAnd it was at Jerusalem the feast of the ^adedication, and it was winter.

23 And Jesus walked in the temple in ^aSolomon's porch.

24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.

25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: ^athe works that I do ^ain my Father's name, they bear witness of me.

26 But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.

27 ^aMy sheep hear my voice, and ^aI know them, and ^athey follow me:

28 And I give unto them ^aeternal life; and they ^ashall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.

29 My Father, ^awhich gave them me, ^ais greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of ^amy Father's hand.

30 ^aI and my Father are one.

31 Then the Jews ^atook up stones again to stone him.

32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?

33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for ^ablasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, ^amakest thyself God.

34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, ^aI said, Ye are gods?

35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken;

36 Say ye of him, whom the Father hath ^asanctified, and ^asent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God?

37 If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not.

38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works that ye may know, and believe, that ^athe Father is in me, and I in him.

39 Therefore they ^asought again to take him: but ^ahe escaped out of their hand, 40 And went away again beyond Jordan ^ainto the place ^awhere John at first baptized; and there he abode.

41 And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle: but all things that ^aJohn spake of this man were true.

42 And ^amany believed on him there.

CHAPTER 11

NOW a certain man was sick, named ^aLazarus, of ^aBethany; the town of ^aMary and her sister ^aMartha.

2 (It was that Mary which ^aanointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, ^abut for the glory of God, that the Son of God ^amight be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still ^ain the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judaea again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? ^aIf any man walk in the day, ^ahe stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man ^awalk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus ^asleepest; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for thy sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

16 Then said ^aThomas, which is called ^aDidymus, unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave ^afour days already.

18 Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off:

19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house.

21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, ^aLord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

22 But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, ^aGod will give it thee.

23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.

24 Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again ^ain the resurrection at ^athe last day.

25 Jesus said unto her, ^aI am the resurrection, and ^athe life: ^ahe that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me ^ashall never die. Believest thou this?

27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art ^athe Christ, ^athe Son of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.

31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, ^aLord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he "groaned in the spirit, and was troubled,

34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.

35 ^cJesus wept.

36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!

37 And of them some said, Could not this man, "which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and 'a stone lay upon it.

39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead 'four days.

40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldst see "the glory of God?

41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus "lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And "I knew that thou hearest me always: but 'because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe "that thou hast sent me.

43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

44 And he that was dead came forth, 'bound hand and foot with grave-clothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 Then "many of the Jews which came to Mary, and 'had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

47 ^gThen gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a "council, and said, What do we? for this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them, named ^bCaif: a-phās, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied "that Jesus should die for that nation;

52 And not for that nation only, but that also he should "gather together in one the "children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore "walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called E'phraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ^gAnd "of the Jews "passover was nigh at hand: and "many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, "to purify themselves.

56 Then "sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

CHAPTER 12

^b THEN Jesus six days before the "passover came to "Bethany, where "Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 There they "made him a supper; and "Martha "served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then took "Mary a pound of ointment of "spikenard, very costly, and "anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

Jesus rideth into Jerusalem

4 Then saith one of his disciples, "Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him, 5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and "given to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For "the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 ^gBut the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death;

11 Because that by reason of him "many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 ^gOn the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 Took branches of "palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna: "Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written, 15 "Fear not, daughter of Zion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

16 These things "understood not his disciples at the first: but "when Jesus was glorified, "then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? "behold, the world is gone after him.

20 ^gAnd there were certain "Greeks among them "that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to "Philip, which was of Beth-sai-dā of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, "we would see Jesus.

22 Philip cometh and telleth "Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.

23 ^gAnd Jesus answered them, saying, "The hour is come, that the "Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, "Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 "He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 If any man serve me, let him "follow me; and "where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, "him will my Father honour.

27 "Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? "Father, "save me from this hour: but "for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, glorify thy name. "Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

29 The people therefore, that stood by, and "heard it, said that it thundered: others said, "An angel spake to him.

30 Jesus answered and said, "This voice came not because of me, but "for your sakes.

31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall "the prince of this world "be cast out.

32 And I, "if I be lifted up from the earth, "will draw all men unto me.

33 This he said, "signifying what death he should die.

34 The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that "Christ "abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, "The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jesus said unto them, "Yet a little while ^a is the light with you. Walk ^b while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for ^c he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the ^d children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and ^e did hide himself from them.

37 ^f But though he had done so many miracles before them, ^g yet they believed not on him:

38 That the saying of E-sai-as the prophet ^h might be fulfilled, which he spake, ⁱ Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because that E-sai-as said again, 40 ^j He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 These things said E-sai-as, ^k when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 ^l Nevertheless ^m among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but ⁿ because of the Pharisees ^o they did not confess him, lest they should be ^p put out of the synagogue:

43 For ^q they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

44 ^r Jesus cried and said, ^s He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on ^t him that sent me.

45 And he that ^u seeth me seeth him that sent me.

46 ^v I am come alight into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, ^w I judge him not: for ^x I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

48 He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in ^y the last day.

49 For ^z I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he ^{aa} gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

CHAPTER 13

NOW before the feast of the passover, when Jesus ^a knew that ^b his hour was come that he ^c should depart out of this world unto the Father, ^d having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.

2 And supper being ended, ^e the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him;

3 Jesus knowing that ^f the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was ^g come from God, and went to God;

4 He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and ^h took a towel, and girded himself.

5 After that he poureth water into a bason, and began ⁱ to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?

7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.

10 Jesus saith to him, ^j He that is washed needeth not save ^k to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ^l ye are clean, but not all.

11 For ^m he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?

13 ⁿ Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.

14 If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 For ^o I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

16 Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^p The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.

17 If ye know these things, ^q happy are ye if ye do them.

18 ^r I speak not of you all: ^s I know ^t whom I have chosen: but ^u that the scripture may be fulfilled, ^v He that catcheth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.

19 Now ^w I tell you before it come, that when it is come to pass, ye may believe ^x that I am he.

20 ^y Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whosoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth ^z him that sent me.

21 ^{aa} When Jesus had thus said, ^{ab} he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake. 23 Now there was ^{ac} leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, ^{ad} whom Jesus loved.

24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

25 He then lying on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.

27 And after the sop ^{ae} Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29 For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he ^{af} should give something to the poor.

30 He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night.

31 ^{ag} Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the ^{ah} Son of man glorified, and ^{ai} God is ^{aj} glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.

33 Little children, ^{ak} yet a little while I am with you. ^{al} Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you.

34 ^{am} A new commandment I give unto you, ^{an} That ye love one another; ^{ao} as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

36 ^{ap} Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, ^{aq} thou shalt not follow me now; but ^{ar} thou shalt follow me afterwards.

37 ^{as} Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake.

38 ^{at} Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

CHAPTER 14

LET not your heart be troubled: ^{au} I ^{av} ye believe in God, believe also in me.

2 In my Father's house are many ^{aw} mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. ^{ax} I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, ^{ay} I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that ^{az} where I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

5 ^{ba} Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am ^{bb} the way, the truth, and ^{bc} the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

things unto you, ^asorrow hath filled your heart.

7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; it is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the ^aComforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, ^aI will send him unto you.

8 And when he is come, ^ahe will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

9 Of sin, because they believe not on me;

10 Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

11 Of judgment, because the ^aprince of this world ^ais judged.

12 Have yet many things to say unto you, but ^aye cannot bear them now.

13 Howbeit when he, ^athe Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.

14 ^aHe shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

15 ^aAll things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

16 ^aA little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.

19 Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but ^ayour sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21 A woman when she is in travail ^ahath sorrow, because her hour is come; but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but ^aI will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

23 And ^ain that day ye shall ask me nothing. ^aVerily, verily, I say unto you, ^aWhatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ^aask, and ye shall receive, ^athat your joy may be full.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in ^aparables: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in parables, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

26 At that day ye shall ask in my name, and ^aI say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you:

27 ^aFor the Father himself loveth you, ^abecause ye have loved me, and ^ahave believed that I came out from God.

28 ^aI came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb.

30 Now are we sure that ^athou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe, that thou comest forth from God.

31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe?

32 Behold, ^athe hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ^aye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet ^aI am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 These things I have spoken unto you, that ^ain me ye might have peace. ^aIn the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; ^aI have overcome the world.

CHAPTER 17

THESE words spake Jesus, and ^alifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, ^athe hour is come; ^aglorify thy Son, that thy Son also ^amay glorify thee:

2 ^aAs thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give ^aeternal life to as many ^aas thou hast given him.

3 And this is life eternal, ^athat they might know thee ^athe only true God, and Jesus Christ, ^awhom thou hast sent.

4 I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had ^awith thee ^abefore the world was.

6 ^aI have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.

8 For ^aI have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and ^ahave known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9 ^aI pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

10 And ^aall mine are thine, and thine are mine; and ^aI am glorified in them.

11 And now I am no more in the world, but these I am in the world, and I come to thee. ^aHoly Father, ^akeep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, ^athat they may be one, ^aas we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and ^anone of them is lost, ^abut the son of perdition; ^athat the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have ^amy joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word; and ^athe world hath hated them, ^abecause they are not of the world, ^aeven as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that ^athou shouldst take them out of the world, but that thou shouldst keep them from the evil.

16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 ^aSanctify them through thy truth: ^athy word is truth.

18 ^aAs thou hast sent me into the world, ^aeven so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes ^aI sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.

20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which ^ashall believe on me through thy word;

21 That they all may be one; ^aas thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

22 ^aAnd the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one:

23 ^aI in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that ^athe world may know that thou hast sent me, and ^ahast loved them, ^aas thou hast loved me.

24 Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, ^abe with me where I am; that they ^amay behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovest me ^abefore the foundation of the world.

25 O righteous Father, ^athe world hath not known thee: but ^aI have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.

26 And ^aI have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and ^aI in them.

CHAPTER 18

WHEN Jesus had spoken these words, ^ahe went forth with his disciples over the brook ^aCē-drōn, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus often times resorted thither with his disciples.

3 Jesus then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, "knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.

8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:

9 That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none.

10 Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him, 13 And led him away to Annas first; for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year.

14 Now Caiaphas was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.

16 But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

17 Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.

25 And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied again: and immediately the cock crew.

28 Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover.

29 Pilate then went unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32 That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, "signifying what death he should die.

33 Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews?

34 Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?

36 Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king.

38 To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

39 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault at all.

40 But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

41 Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

CHAPTER 19

Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him.

2 And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe,

3 And said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands.

4 Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him.

5 Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man!

6 When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.

7 The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.

8 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;

9 And went again into the judgment hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer.

10 Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Jesus answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.

12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Caesar's friend: who-soever maketh himself a king speaketh against Caesar.

13 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King!

15 But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him.

Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king, but Cæsar.

16 Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away.

17 And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha:

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.

19 ¶ And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin.

21 Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews.

22 Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.

23 ¶ Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.

25 ¶ Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene.

26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son!

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home.

28 ¶ After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar; and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.

31 The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) besought Pilate that they might be taken away; and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs:

34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water.

35 And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

36 For these things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken.

37 And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 ¶ And after this Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus.

39 And there came also Nicodemus, which at the first came to Jesus by night, and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

42 There laid they Jesus theretore because of the Jews' preparation day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

CHAPTER 20

THE first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 ¶ Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in.

6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie.

7 And the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

8 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

11 ¶ But Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre, 12 And seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

26 ¶ And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you.

27 Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing.

28 And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God.

29 Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: ¶ blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

30 ¶ And ¶ many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book:

31 But ¶ these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is ¶ the Christ, the ¶ Son of God; and that believing ye might ¶ have life through his name.

CHAPTER 12

AFTER these things Jesus ¶ shewed himself again to the disciples at the ¶ sea of Tiberias; and on this wise shewed he himself.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and ¶ Thomas called ¶ Didymus, and ¶ Nathanael of ¶ Cana in Galilee, and ¶ the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter saith unto him, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night ¶ they caught nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore; but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.

5 Then Jesus saith unto them, Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 And he said unto them, ¶ Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore that disciple ¶ whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now ¶ when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals thereon, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land ¶ full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

14 ¶ This is now the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, ¶ after that he was risen from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Jesus saith to ¶ Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs.

16 He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him ¶ Feed my sheep.

17 He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, ¶ Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, ¶ thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

18 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, ¶ When thou wast young, thou girdest thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, ¶ thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 This spake he, signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.

20 Then Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved following; ¶ which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 Peter seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall this man do?

22 Jesus saith unto him, ¶ If I will that he tarry ¶ till I come, what is that to thee? follow thou me.

23 Then went this saying abroad among ¶ the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, ¶ If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?

24 ¶ This is the disciple which testified of these things, and wrote these things; and we know that his testimony is true.

25 And ¶ there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

THE

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

CHAPTER 1

THE former treatise have I made, ¶ O ¶ Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,

2 Until ¶ the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost ¶ had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen:

3 ¶ To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things ¶ pertaining to the kingdom of God:

4 And, being assembled together with them, ¶ commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for ¶ the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me.

5 For ¶ John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized ¶ with the Holy Ghost not many days hence.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, ¶ wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?

7 And he said unto them, It is not for you ¶ to know the times or the seasons, ¶ which the Father hath put in his own power.

8 But ¶ ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall ¶ be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, ¶ two men stood by them in white apparel;

11 Which also said, ¶ Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, ¶ shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

12 Then ¶ returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called ¶ Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day's journey.

13 And when they were come in, they went up into an ¶ upper room, where abode both ¶ Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon Zebedee, and ¶ Judas the brother of James.

14 These all continued ¶ with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and ^aMary the mother of Jesus, and with his ^bbrethren.

15 ^aAnd in those days Peter stood up in the midst of ^athe ²disciples, and said, (the number of names together were about an hundred and twenty.)

16 Men and brethren, ^athis scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning ^aJudas, which was guide to them that took Jesus.

17 For ^ahe was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ^aministry.

18 Now this man ^apurchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and ^afalling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch as ^athat field is called ^a'in their proper tongue, A-cēl-dā-mā, that is to say, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, 'Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and ^ahis ^a'bishopsrick let another take.

21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, 22 Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Joseph called ^aBār-sā-bās, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.

24 And ^athey prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, ^awhich knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen, 25 That he may take part of this ministry and ^aapostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.

26 And ^athey gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHAPTER 2

AND when came the ^aday of Pentecost was fully come, they were all ^awith one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of ^aa rushing mighty wind, and ^ait filled all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them ^acloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

4 And they were all ^afilled with the Holy Ghost, and began ^ato speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

6 Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak ^aGalileans?

8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?

9 Pār-^athi-āns, and ^aMedes, and ^aElamites, and the dwellers in ^aMēs-ō-pō-tā-mi-ā, and in Judea, and ^aĀp-pā-dō-ċi-ā, in ^aPontus, and ^aAsia,

10 ^aPhrygia, and ^aPām-phyl-ā, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about ^aCy-rē-nē, and strangers of ^aRome, Jews and proselytes, 11 ^aCretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?

13 Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.

14 ^aBut Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.

16 But ^athis is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel;

17 ^aAnd it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:

19 And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:

20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:

21 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man ^aapproved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

23 Him, being delivered by the ^adeterminate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ^aye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:

24 ^aWhom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

25 For David speaketh concerning him, ^aI foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:

26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope:

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

29 Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the ^apatriarch

David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day.

30 Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that ^aGod had sworn with an oath to him, that ^aof the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne;

31 He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, ^aneither his flesh did see corruption.

32 This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof ^awe all are witnesses.

33 Therefore ^abeing by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father ^athe promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath ^ashed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

34 For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, ^aTHE LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.

36 Therefore let all the house of Israel ^aknow assuredly, that ^aGod hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and ^aChrist.

37 ^aNow when they heard this, ^athey were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, ^awhat shall we do?

38 Then Peter said unto them, ^aRepent, and ^abe baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ ^afor the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.

39 ^aFor the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to ^aall that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this ^auntoward generation.

41 ^aThen they that gladly received his word ^awere baptized: and the same day ^athere were added unto them about three thousand souls.

42 And they ^acontinued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in ^abreaking of bread, and in prayers.

43 And ^afear came upon every soul: and ^amany wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

44 And all that believed were together, and ^ahad all things common:

45 And ^asold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need.

46 And they, continuing daily with one accord ^ain the temple, and breaking bread ^afrom house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 Praising God, and ^ahaving favour with all the people. And the Lord added ^ato the church daily ^bsuch as should be saved.

CHAPTER 3

NOW Peter and John went up together ^ainto the temple at the hour of prayer, being ^athe ninth hour.

2 And a certain man ^alame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple;

3 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms.

4 And Peter, ^afasting his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

6 Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: ^aIn the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk.

7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up; and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength.

8 And he ^aleaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 And ^aall the people saw him walking and praising God:

10 And ^athey knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

The lame man healed by Peter and John

11 And as the lame man which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.

12 ^aAnd when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk?

13 ^aThe God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, ^ahath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye ^adelivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go. 14 But ye denied ^athe Holy One and ^athe Just, and ^adesired a murderer to be granted unto you;

15 And ^akilled the ^aPrince of life, whose God hath raised him from the dead; whereof ^awe are witnesses.

16 And ^ahis name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 And now, brethren, I wot that ^athrough ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers.

18 But those things, ^awhich God before had shewed ^aby the mouth of all his prophets, that ^aChrist should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

19 ^aRepent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord;

20 And he shall send ^aJesus Christ, which before was preached unto you:

21 ^aWhom the heaven must receive until the times of ^arestitution of all things, ^awhich God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets ^asince the world began.

22 For Moses truly said unto the fathers, ^aA prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.

23 ^aAnd it shall come to pass, that

Peter and John are brought before the council every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.

24 Yea, and all the prophets from ^aSamuel and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

25 Ye are the children of the prophets, and of ^athe covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And ^ain thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

26 Unto you ^afirst God, having raised up his ^aSon Jesus, sent him to bless you, ^ain turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

CHAPTER 4

AND as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the ^acaptain of the temple, and the ^aSadducees, came upon them.

2 Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus ^athe resurrection from the dead.

3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide.

4 Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and ^athe number of the men was about five thousand.

5 ^aAnd it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and ^aelders, and scribes,

6 And ^aAnnas the high priest, and ^aCaïaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priests, were gathered together at Jerusalem.

7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, ^aBy what power, or by ^awhat name, have ye done this?

8 Then Peter, ^afilled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,

9 If we this day be examined of ^athe good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;

10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that ^aby the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, ^awhom ye crucified, ^awhom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

11 This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, ^awhich is become the head of the corner.

12 ^aNeither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

13 ^aNow when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were ^aunlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

14 And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

15 But when they had ^acommanded them to go aside out of ^athe council, they conferred among themselves, 16 Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed ^aa notable miracle hath been done by them in manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

18 And they called them, and ^acommanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.

19 But Peter and John answered and said unto them, ^aWhether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

20 For we cannot but speak the things ^awhich we have seen and heard.

21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all men ^aglorified God for that which was done.

22 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 ^aAnd being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.

24 And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God ^awith one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God,^a which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is:

25 Who by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, 'Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?

26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For of a truth against thy ^holy ⁱchild Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, ^jboth Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, ^kwere gathered together, 28 For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel ^ldetermined before to be done.

29 And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all ^mboldness they may speak thy word, 30 By stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that ⁿsigns and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jesus.

31 ¶ And ^owhen they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and ^pthey were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

32 And the multitude of them that believed were of ^qone heart and of one soul: they said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but ^rthey had all things common.

33 And ^swith great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all.

34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, 35 And laid them down at the apostles' feet: and ^tdistribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

36 And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed ^uBarnabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation), a Levite, and of the country of ^vCyprus, 37 Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

The sin of Ananias and Sapphira

CHAPTER 5

BUT a certain man named ^wĀn-ā-ni-ās, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, and ^x'kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

3 But Peter said, ^yĀn-ā-ni-ās, why hath ^zSatan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

5 And ^{aa}Ān-ā-ni-ās hearing these words ^{ab}'fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great ^{ac}'fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men arose, ^{ad}'wound him up, and ^{ae}'carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together, ^{af}to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

10 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by his husband.

11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 ¶ And by the hands of the apostles were many ^{ag}'signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all with ^{ah}'one accord ^{ai}'of Solomon's porch.

13 And of the rest durst no man join himself to them: but ^{aj}'the people magnified them.

14 And believers ^{ak}'were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)

15 ¶ Inasmuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, ^{al}'bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 ¶ Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the ^{am}'Sadducees), and were filled with indignation, 18 And laid their hands on the apostles, and ^{an}'put them in the common prison.

19 But the ^{ao}'angel of the Lord by night ^{ap}'opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, 20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all ^{aq}'the words of ^{ar}'this life.

21 And when they heard that, they entered ^{as}'into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called ^{at}'the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest and the ^{au}'captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for ^{av}'they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them, 28 Saying, ^{aw}'Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend ^{ax}'to bring this man's blood upon us.

29 ¶ Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, ^{ay}'We ought to obey God rather than men.

30 ¶ The God of our fathers ^{az}'raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and ^{ba}'hanged on a tree.

31 ¶ Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a ^{bb}'Prince and a ^{bc}'Saviour, for ^{bd}'to give repentance to Israel, and ^{be}'forgiveness of sins.

32 And ^{bf}'we are his witnesses of these things; and ^{bg}'so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 ¶ When they heard that, they ^{bh}'were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

34 Then stood there up one of the council, a Pharisee, named ^{bi}'Gā-mā-li-ēl, a ^{bj}'doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and ^{bk}'commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;

35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For ^{bl}'before these days rose up Theū-dās, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the ^{bm}'taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought:

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; ^blest haply ye be found even to fight against God.

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and ^bbeaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

41 ¶ And they departed from the presence of the council, ^arejoicing that they were counted worthy ^ato suffer shame for his name.

42 And daily ^ain the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach ^aJesus ^aChrist.

CHAPTER 6

AND in those days, ^awhen the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the ^aGrecians against the ^aHebrews, because their ^awidows were neglected in the ^adaily ministrations.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, ^alook ye out among you seven men ^aof honest report, ^afull of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 ¶ And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and ^aPhilip, and Pröch^a-ö-rüs, and Ni-cä-nör, and Timon, and Pärz-mē-nās, and Nicolas ^aa proselyte of An-ti-öch:

6 Whom they set before the apostles: and ^awhen they had prayed, ^athey laid their hands on them.

7 And the ^aword of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company ^aof the priests were obedient to ^athe faith.

8 And Stephen, full of faith and power, did ^agreat wonders and miracles among the people.

9 ¶ Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Lib^a-er-tines, and ^aCy-rē-ni-äns, and Alexandrians, and of them of ^aCi-li-q-i-ä and of ^aAsia, disputing with Stephen.

10 And ^athey were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

11 Then they ^asuborned men, which said, We have heard him ^aspeaking blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the ^acouncil,

13 And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law:

14 For we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth ^ashall destroy this place, and shall ^achange the customs which Moses delivered us.

15 And all that sat in the council, looking stedfastly on him, ^asaw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

CHAPTER 7

THEN said the high priest, Are these things so?

2 And he said, Men, ^abrethren, and fathers, hearken: ^aThe God of glory ^aappeared unto ^aour father Abraham, when he was in ^aMēs-ö-pö-tä-mi-ä, ^abefore he dwelt in ^aChär-rän, 3 And said unto him, ^aGet thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and ^acome into the land which I shall shew thee.

4 Then came he out of the land of the Chäl-dä-äns, and dwelt in Chär-rän, and from thence, ^awhen his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.

5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet ^ahe promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, ^awhen as yet he had no child.

The answer of Stephen to his accusers

6 And God spake unto this wise, That ^ahis seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring thither into bondage, and entreat them evil ^afour hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and ^aserve me in this place.

8 And ^ahe gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begat ^aIsaac, and circumcised him the ^aeight day; and Isaac begat ^aJacob; and Jacob begat the twelve patriarchs.

9 And the patriarchs, ^amoved with envy, ^asold Joseph into Egypt: but ^aGod was with him,

10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of ^aPhär-äöh king of Egypt; and he made him ^agovernor over Egypt and all his house.

11 Now ^athere came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Chä-nä-än, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance.

12 But ^awhen Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first.

13 And at the second time Joseph ^awas made known to his brethren; and ^aJoseph's kindred was made known unto Phär-äöh.

14 Then ^asent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, ^athreescore and fifteen souls.

15 So ^aJacob went down into Egypt, and ^adied, he, and our fathers, 16 And ^awere carried over into Sy-chen, and laid in the sepulchre ^athat Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Em-mör the father of Sychem.

17 But when the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, ^athe people grew and multiplied in Egypt, 18 Till another king arose, ^awhich knew not Joseph.

19 The same ^adealt subtly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, ^aso that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.

20 In which time ^aMoses was born, and was ^aexceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months:

21 And when he was cast out, Phär-äöh's daughter took him up, and ^anourished him for her own son.

22 And Moses was learned in all the ^awisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds.

23 And ^awhen he was full ^aforty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.

24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian:

25 For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.

26 And ^athe next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ^aye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then ^afled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, ^awhere he begat two sons.

30 And when forty years were expired, ^athere appeared to him in the wilderness of ^amount Sina an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in ^aa bush.

31 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, 32 Saying, ^aI am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold.

33 Then said the Lord to him, ^aPut off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 ^aI have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt.

35 These Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush.

36 He brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness forty years.

37 This is that Moses, which said unto the children of Israel, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear.

38 This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with the angel which spake to him in the mount Sina, and with our fathers: who received the fifty oracles to give unto us:

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt.

40 Saying unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

41 And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness?

43 Ye, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them; and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen.

45 Which also our fathers that came after brought in with Jesus into the possession of the Gentiles, whom God drave out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of David;

46 Who found favour before God, and desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob.

47 But Solomon built him an house.

48 Howbeit the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet, 49 Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest?

50 Hath not my hand made all these things?

51 Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye.

52 Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been before the betrayers and murderers:

53 Who have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it.

54 When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth.

55 But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God.

56 And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God.

57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, 58 And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul.

59 And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.

60 And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

5. Stephen was stoned to death by the Jews who were jealous of the Jews.

CHAPTER 8

AND Saul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles.

2 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him.

3 As for Saul, he made havock of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word.

5 Then Saul persecuted Philip westward to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them.

6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For uncleanness spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, called Simon, which beforetime in the same city used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one:

10 To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

13 Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done.

14 Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John:

15 Who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost:

16 (For as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.)

17 Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money, 19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost.

20 But Peter, said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.

24 Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

26 And the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert.

27 And he arose and went: and, behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem to worship, 28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Esaias the prophet.

29 Then ^athe Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

30 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet E-sai-as, and said, Understandest thou what thou readeſt?

31 And he said, ^aHow can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him.

32 The place of the scripture which he read was this, ^aHe was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and ^abegan at the same scripture, and ^apreached unto him Jesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; ^awhat doth hinder me to be baptized?

37 ^aAnd Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and ^ahe baptized him.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, ^athe Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

40 But Philip was found at ^aA-zo-tis: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Cæsarea.

CHAPTER 9

AND Saul said, ^abreathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,

2 And desired of him letters to ^aDa-mascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of ^athese, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

3 ^aAnd as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven:

4 And ^ahe fell to the earth, and ^aheard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: ^ait is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

6 And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, ^ahearing a voice, ^abut seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 ^aAnd there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named ^aAn-a-ni-as; and ^ato him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, ^aof Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth, 12 And hath seen in a vision a man named An-a-ni-as coming in, and ^aputting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then An-a-ni-as answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, ^ahow much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind ^aall that call on thy name.

15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for ^ahe is ^aa chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name ^abefore the Gentiles, and ^akings, and ^athe children of Israel:

The baptism of Saul

16 For ^aI will shew him how great things ^ahe must suffer ^afor my name's sake.

17 And An-a-ni-as went his way, and entered into the house; and ^aputting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, ^athat thou mightest receive thy sight, and ^abe filled with the Holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and ^awas baptized.

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were ^aat Damascus.

20 And straightway he ^apreached Christ ^ain the synagogues, ^athat he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said; Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and ^aconfounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving ^athat this is very ^aChrist.

23 ^aAnd ^aafter that many days were fulfilled, the Jews ^atook counsel to kill him:

24 But their laying await was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him ^aby night, and ^alet him down by the wall in a basket.

26 And ^awhen Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

27 But ^aBarnabas took him, and ^abrought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had ^apreached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem.

29 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the ^aGreecians; but ^athey went about to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cæsarea, and sent him forth to ^aTarsus.

31 ^aThen had the churches rest throughout all Judæa and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; and ^awalking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, ^awere multiplied.

32 ^aAnd it came to pass, as Peter passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at ^aLydda.

33 And there he found a certain man named ^aE-né-as, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy.

34 And Peter said unto him, E-né-as, ^aJesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda and ^aSaron saw him, and ^aturned to the Lord.

36 ^aNow there was at ^aJoppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called ^aDorcas: ^athis woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in an ^aupper chamber.

38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them.

39 Then Peter arose and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Peter ^aput them all forth, and ^akneeled down, and prayed; and turning him to the body said, Tabitha, arise. ^aAnd she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

41 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up, and when he had called the saints and widows, presented her alive.

42 And it was known throughout all Joppa; and many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.

CHAPTER 10

THERE was a certain man in Caesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band,

2 A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway.

3 He saw in a vision evidently about the ninth hour of the day an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.

4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.

5 And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter:

6 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side; he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually;

8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

9 On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the housetop to pray about the sixth hour:

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance,

11 And saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the

Peter's vision. He goeth to Caesarea four corners, and let down to the earth:

12 Wherein were all manner of four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.

15 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

17 Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius had made enquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate, 18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

21 Then Peter went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cornelius; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entered into Caesarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends.

25 And as Peter was coming in,

He preacheth Christ to Cornelius

Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me?

30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner by the sea side: who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:

35 But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

36 The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all:)

37 That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached;

38 How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him.

39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree:

40 Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly; 41 Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

42 And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead.

43 To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whatsoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

44 While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we?

48 And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

CHAPTER 11

AND the apostles and brethren that were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended with him,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

4 But Peter rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it ⁵by order unto them, saying,

5 I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me:

6 Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Peter; slay and eat.

8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Casarea unto me.

12 And the Spirit bade me go with them, ^anothing doubting. Moreover these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house:

13 And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter;

14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and ^call thy house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, ^dthe Holy Ghost fell on them, as on us at the beginning.

16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, ^ehow that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

17 Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ; ^fwhat was I, that I could withstand God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and ^gglorified

The disciples first called Christians

God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles ^bgranted repentance unto life.

19 ¶ Now ^cthey which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as ^dPhē-ni-cē, and ^eCyprus, and An-ti-ōch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and ^fCē-rē-nē, which, when they were come to ^gAn-ti-ōch, spake unto the ^hGrecians, preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them; and ⁱa great number believed, and ^jturned unto the Lord.

22 ¶ Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth ^kBarnabas, that he should go as far as An-ti-ōch.

23 Who, when he came, and had seen the ^lgrace of God, was glad, and ^mexhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and ⁿfull of the Holy Ghost and of faith: and ^omuch people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Barnabas to ^pTarsus, to see seek Saul;

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto An-ti-ōch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called ^qChristians first in Antioch.

27 ¶ And in these days came ^rprophets from Jerusalem unto An-ti-ōch.

28 And there stood up one of them named ^sAg-a-būs, and ^tsignified by the Spirit that there should be great ^udearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of ^vClaudius Cēsar.

29 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined ^wto send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea:

30 ¶ Which also they did, and sent it to the ^xelders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

Peter's imprisonment and deliverance

CHAPTER 12

NOW about that time ^aHerod the king stretched forth his hands ^bto vex certain of the church.

2 And he killed ^cJames the brother of John with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the ^ddays of unleavened bread.)

4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him ^ein prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison: but ^fprayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, ^gbound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

7 And, behold, the ^hangel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him; and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; ⁱwhich opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath ^jsent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of ^kJohn, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together praying.

13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a ^ldamsel came to hearken, named Rhoda.

14 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ^min ⁿan, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, ^oIt is his angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But he, ^pbeckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto ^qJames, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and ^rcommanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judaea to Casarea, and there abode.

20 ¶ And Herod was highly displeased with them of ^sTyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because ^ttheir country was nourished by the king's treasury.

21 And upon a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his ^uthrone, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

23 And immediately the angel of the Lord ^vsmote him, because he ^wgave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24 ¶ But ^xthe word of God grew and multiplied.

25 And ^aBarnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had ^bfulfilled their ministry, and took with ^cJohn, whose surname was Mark.

CHAPTER 13

NOW there were in the church that was at ^aAntioch certain prophets and teachers; as ^bBarnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and ^cLucius of ^dmCy-rē-nē, and Mān-fā-ēn, which had been brought up with ^eHerod the tetrarch, and Saul.

2 As they ministered to the Lord, and ^afasted, the ^bHoly Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto ^cI have called them.

3 And when they had fasted and ^aprayed, and ^blaid their hands on them, they sent them away.

4 ^aSo they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto ^bSē-lē-cī-ā; and from thence they sailed to ^cCyprus.

5 And when they were at ^aSāl-ā-mis, they preached the word of God ^bin the synagogues of the Jews; and they had also ^cJohn to their ^dminister.

6 And when they had gone through the isle unto ^aPā-phōs, they found a certain ^bsorcerer, a ^cfalse prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-jesus:

7 Which was with the ^adeputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But Elyās-mās the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 Then Saul, (who also is called Paul,) ^afilled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all ^asubtily and all mischief, thou ^bchild of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

11 And now, behold, ^athe hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a

Paul preacheth at Antioch in Pisidia season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some ^cto lead him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and his company loosed from ^aPā-phōs, they came to ^bPamphylia: and ^cJohn departing from them returned to Jerusalem.

14 ^aBut when they departed from Perga, they came to ^bAntioch in ^cPi-sid-ā, and went ^dinto the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down.

15 And after the ^areading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood up, and ^abeckoning with his hand said, Men of Israel, and ^bye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of this people of Israel ^achose our fathers, and exalted the people ^bwhen they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an ^chigh arm ^dbrought he them out of it.

18 And about the time of ^aforty years ^bsuffered he their manners in the wilderness.

19 And when he had destroyed ^aseven nations in the land of ^bChā-nā-ān, he ^cdivided their land to them by lot.

20 And after that he ^agave unto them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until ^bSamuel the prophet.

21 And afterward they desired a king: and ^aGod gave unto them ^bSaul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years.

22 And ^awhen he had removed him, ^bhe raised up unto them David to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, ^cI have found David the son of Jesse, ^da man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

The Gentiles believe

23 ^aOf this man's seed hath God according to his promise raised unto Israel ^ba Saviour, Jesus:

24 When John had first preached before his coming ^athe baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? ^aI am not he. But, behold, ^bthere cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose.

26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, ^ato you is the word of this salvation sent.

27 For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because ^athey knew him not, nor yet ^bthe voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath day, they have fulfilled them ^cin condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should ^abe slain.

29 And ^awhen they had fulfilled all that was written of him, ^bthey took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.

30 But ^aGod raised him from the dead:

31 And he was seen many days of them ^awhich came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are ^bhis witnesses unto the people.

32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that ^athe promise which was made unto the fathers, 33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm; ^aThou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, ^aI will give you the sure mercies of David.

35 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, ^aThou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

36 For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, ^afell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:

37 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption.

38 ^aBe it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you ^bthe forgiveness of sins:

39 And by him ^aall that believe are justified from all things, ^bfrom which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in the prophets;

41 ^aBehold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in you, days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

42 And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath.

43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and ^areligious ^bproselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, ^cpersuaded them to continue in ^dthe grace of God.

44 ^aAnd the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.

45 But ^awhen the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and ^bblaspheming.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas ^awaxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should ^bfirst have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves ^cunworthy of everlasting life, lo, we ^dturn to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, ^aI have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldst be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

48 And when the ^aGentiles heard this, they were glad, and ^bglorified the word of the Lord: and as many as ^cwere ordained to eternal life believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

50 But the Jews stirred up the ^adevout and ^ahonourable women, and the chief men of the city, and ^araised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

51 But they ^ashook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto ^aI-cō-ni-ūm.

52 And the disciples were filled ^awith joy, and with the Holy Ghost.

CHAPTER 14

AND it came to pass in ^aI-cō-ni-ūm, that they went both together ^ainto the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed.

2 But ^athe unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they ^aspeaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto ^athe word of his grace, and granted ^asigns and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, ^ato use them despitefully, and to ^astone them, 6 They were ware of it, and fled unto ^aLystra and ^aDē-rē-bē, cities of Lŷ-cā-ō-ni-ā, and unto the region that lieth round about:

7 And there they preached the gospel.

8 ¶ And there ^asat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked:

9 The same heard Paul speak: who ^asteadfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed, 10 Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he ^aleaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lŷ-cā-ō-ni-ā, ^aThe gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

Paul healeth a cripple, and is stoned

12 And they called ^aBarnabas, ^aJupiter; and Paul, ^aMēr-cū-ri-us, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Jupiter, ^awhich was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and ^awould have done sacrifice with the people.

14 Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, they ^arent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? ^aFor we also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should ^aturn from these ^avanities unto the ^aliving God, ^awhich made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:

16 Who in times past ^asuffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 Nevertheless he ^aleft not himself without witness, in that he did good, and ^agave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 ¶ And there came thither certain Jews from ^aĀn-ti-ōch and I-cō-ni-ūm, who persuaded the people, and, having ^astoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Dē-rē-bē.

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to I-cō-ni-ūm, and Ān-ti-ōch, 22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and ^aexhorting them to continue in the ^afaith, and that we must ^athrough much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had ordained them ^aelders in every church, and ^ahad prayed with ^afasting, they ^acommended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout P-i-si-d-i-ā, they came to ^aPamphylia.

Great dissension touching circumcision

25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into ^aAt-tā-li-ā;

26 And thence sailed to ^aĀn-ti-ōch, ^afrom whence they had been ^arecommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, ^athey rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had ^aopened the door of faith unto the Gentiles.

28 And there they abode long time with the disciples,

END OF 13 Missionary Journey
CHAPTER 15

AND ^acertain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised ^aafter the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Paul and ^aBarnabas had no small dissension and dispute with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, ^ashould go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and ^aelders about this question.

3 And ^abeing brought on their way by the church, they passed through ^aPhē-ni-cē and Samaria, declaring ^athe conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and ^athey declared all things that God had done with them.

5 But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.

6 ¶ And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, ^athat the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

8 And God, which ^aknoweth the hearts, bare them witness, ^agiving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us;

9 And ^aput no difference between us and them, ^apurifying their hearts by faith.

10 Now therefore ^awhy tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, ^awhich neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be ^asaved, even as they.

12 ¶ Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what ^amiracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them.

13 ¶ And after they had held their peace, ^aJames answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me:

14 ^aSimeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, ^ato take out of them a people for his name.

15 And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written,

16 ^aAfter this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up:

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, ^asaith the Lord, who doeth all these things.

18 Known unto God are all his works ^afrom the beginning of the world.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which ^afrom among the Gentiles are turned to God: 20 But ^athat we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood.

21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, ^abeing read in the synagogues every sabbath day.

22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to ^aĀn-ti-ōch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed ^aBarsabas, 35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the ^aserjeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul. The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, ^bbeing Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

38 And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and ^cthey feared, when they heard that they were Romans.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAPTER 17

NOW when they had passed through ^aAm-phil⁶-lis and Ap⁶-lō-ni⁴-ā, they came to ^bThēss-ā-lō-ni⁴-cā, where was a ^csynagogue of the Jews:

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them ^dout of the scriptures,

3 Opening and alleging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and ^erisen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is ^fChrist.

4 And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and ^gSilas; and of the ^hdevout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 ⁱ¶ But ^jthe Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of ^kJason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they ^ldrew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have ^mturned the world upside down are come hither also;

7 Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the ⁿdecrees of Caesar, saying that there is ^oanother king, ^pone Jesus.

8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

10 ^q¶ And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas ^rby night unto ^sBē-rē-ā: who coming thither ^twent into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more noble than those in Thēss-ā-lō-ni⁴-cā, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and ^usought the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also of ^vhonourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thēss-ā-lō-ni⁴-cā had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Bē-rē-ā, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

14 And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and ^wTi-mōth-ē-ūs abide there still.

15 And they that conducted Paul brought him unto ^xAthens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Ti-mōth-ē-ūs for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 ^y¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city ^zwholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the Ep-i-cū-rē-āns, and of the Stō-icks, encountered him. And some said, What will this babler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him unto Ar-ē-ōp-ā-gūs, saying, May we know what this ^a'new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.

21 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)

22 ^b¶ Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are ^ctoo superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 God that ^dmade the world and all things therein, seeing that he is ^eLord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in ^ftemples made with hands;

25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, ^gas though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and ^hbreath, and all things;

26 And ⁱhath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath ^jdetermined the times before appointed, and ^kthe bounds of their habitation;

27 That they ^lshould seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, ^mthough he be not far from every one of us:

28 For ⁿin him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of ^oyour own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

29 ^p¶ Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, ^qwe ought not to think that the ^rGodhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

30 And the times of this ignorance ^sGod winked at; but now ^tcommandeth all men every where to repent:

31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness ^aby that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that ^bhe hath raised him from the dead.

32 ^c¶ And when they heard of the ^d'resurrection of the dead, some mocked; and others said, ^e'We will hear thee again of this matter.'

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Di-ō-nys-i-ūs the Ar-ē-ōp-ā-gite, and a woman named Dām-ā-ris, and others with them.

CHAPTER 18

AFTER these things Paul departed from ^aAthens, and came to ^bCorinth;

2 And found a certain Jew named ^cAquila, born in Pontus, lately come from ^dItaly, with his wife ^ePriscilla; (because that ^fClaudius had commanded all Jews to depart from ^gRome:) and came unto them.

3 And ^hbecause he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers.

4 And he reasoned ⁱin the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.

5 And when ^jSilas and ^kTi-mōth-ē-ūs were come from Macedonia, Paul was ^lpressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was ^mChrist.

6 And ⁿwhen they opposed themselves, and ^o'blasphemed, he ^p'shook his raiment, and said unto them, ^q'Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles.'

7 And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, ^rone that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.

8 And ^sCrispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord ^t'with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were ^ubaptized.

9 Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night ^a by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10 For ^a I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city.

11 And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 ¶ And when Gāl'li-ō was the ^a deputy of A-cha'i-ā, the Jews ^a made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the ^a judgment seat, 13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gāl'li-ō said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you:

15 But ^a if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.

16 And he drave them from the judgment seat.

17 Then all the Greeks took ^a Sōs-thē-nēs, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gāl'li-ō cared for none of those things.

18 ¶ And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into ^a Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having ^a shorn his head in ^a Cēn-chrē'ā: for he ^a had a vow.

19 And he came to ^a Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself ^a entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not:

21 But bade them farewell, saying, ^a I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem: but I will return again unto you, ^a if God will. And he sailed from Ephesus.

22 And when he had landed at Caesarea, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to ^a An'ti-ōch.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and ^a went over all the country of Galatia and Phrygē-i-ā in order, ^a strengthening all the disciples.

24 ¶ And a certain Jew named ^a A-pōl'los, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus.

25 This man was ^a instructed ^a in the way of the Lord; and being ^a fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only ^a the baptism of John.

26 And he began to speak ^a boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and ^a expounded unto him the ^a way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was disposed to pass into ^a A-cha'i-ā, the brethren ^a wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, ^a helped them much which had believed through grace:

28 For he ^a mightily convinced the Jews, and that publicly, shewing by the scriptures that Jesus was Christ.

CHAPTER 19

AND it came to pass, that, while ^a A-pōl'los was at ^a Corinth, Paul having passed ^a through the upper coasts came to ^a Ephesus: and finding certain disciples,

2 He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, ^a We have not so much as heard ^a whether there be any Holy Ghost.

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, ^a Unto John's baptism.

4 Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, ^a saying unto the people, that they should believe on him ^a which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.

5 When they heard this, ^a they were baptized ^a in the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had ^a laid his hands upon them, ^a the Holy Ghost came on them; and ^a they spake with tongues, and ^a prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And he ^a went into the synagogue, and ^a spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading ^a the things concerning the kingdom of God.

9 But ^a when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil of ^a that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.

10 And this continued by the space of ^a two years; so that all they which dwelt in ^a Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And God wrought special ^a miracles by the hands of Paul:

12 ^a So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the ^a evil spirits went out of them.

13 ¶ Then certain of the vagabond Jews, ^a exorcists, ^a took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, ^a We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Scēvā, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And ^a the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fell out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and ^a fear fell on them all, and ^a the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

18 And many that believed came, and ^a confessed, and shewed their deeds.

19 Many of them also which used ^a curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 ^a So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.

21 ¶ After these things were ended, Paul ^a purposed in the spirit, ^a when he had passed through ^a Macedonia and ^a A-cha'i-ā, to go to Jerusalem, saying, ^a After I have been there, ^a I must also see Rome.

22 So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, ^a Ti-mōthē-ūs and ^a Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time ^a there arose no small stir about ^a that way.

24 For a certain man named Dēmē-tri-ūs, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for ^a Diana, ^a brought no small gain unto the craftsmen;

25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, ^a and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, ^a saying that they be no gods, which are made with hands:

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and ^a the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught ^a Gāl'ūs and ^a Ar-is-tār-chūs, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the ^a chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 ^a Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part know not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander ²beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 And when the townclerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from ²Jupiter?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither ²robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.

38 Wherefore if ²Dē-mē²-trī-us, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, ²the law is open, and there are ²deputies; let them implead one another.

39 But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

CHAPTER 20

AND after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed for to go into ²Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had ²given them much exhortation, he came into Greece.

3 And there abode three months. And when the Jews ²laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into ²Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

4 And when he accompanied him into ²Asia, ²Sō-pā-tēr of ²Bē-rē²ā; and Eutychus restored to life of the ²Thēs-ā-lō²-nī-āns, ²Ar-is-tār-chūs and Sē-cūn-dūs; and ²Gā²-ūs of Dēr-bē, and ²Ti-mōth-ē-ūs; and of Asia, ²Tych-i-cūs and ²Trōph-i-mūs.

5 These going before tarried for ²us at ²Trō²-ās.

6 And we sailed away from ²Philip-pi after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Trō²-ās in five ²days; where we abode seven days.

7 And upon ²the first day of the week, when the disciples came together ²to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights in the ²upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eū²-tī-chūs, being fallen into ²a deep sleep; and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, and fell on him, and ²embracing him said, Trouble not yourselves; ²for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 ²And ²we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.

14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mit²-y-lē-nē.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chī²-ōs; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trō²-gyl²-lū-mi; and the next day we came to ²Mi-lē-tūs.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by ²Ephesus, because he ²would not spend the time in Asia; for he feared, if it were possible for him, ²to be at Jerusalem ²the day of Pentecost.

17 ²And from Mi-lē-tūs he sent to Paul's charge to the elders of Ephesus

Ephesus, and called the ²elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, ²from the first day that I came into Asia, ²after what manner I have been with you at all seasons.

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many ²tears, and temptations, which befell me by ²the lying in wait of the Jews:

20 And ²how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house, 21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, ²repentance toward God, and ²faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

23 Save that the ²Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me.

24 But none of these things move me, neither ²count I my life dear unto myself, so ²that I might finish my course with joy, and ²the ministry, ²which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone ²preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that ²I am pure from the blood of all men.

27 For ²I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.

28 ²Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the ²flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you ²overseers, ²to feed the church of God, which he hath ²purchased with his own blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous ²wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples ²after them.

31 Therefore ²watch, and remember, that ²by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now, brethren, ²I commend you to God, and to ²the word of his grace, which is able to ²build you up, and to give you ²an inheritance among all ²them which are sanctified.

33 ²I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Yea, ye yourselves know, that ²these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 ²I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought ²to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, ²It is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 ²And when he had thus spoken, he ²kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him.

38 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they ²accompanied him unto the ship.

CHAPTER 21

AND it came to pass, that after ²we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a ²straight course unto Cō²-ōs, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara:

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto ²Phē-nī²-ā, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had discovered ²Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into ²Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days; who said to Paul ²through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.

5 And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all ²brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we ²kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned home again.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Caesarea: and we entered into the house of ^aPhilip the ^eevangelist, which was one of the seven; and abode with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, ^fvirgins, which did prophesy.

10 And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judaea a certain prophet, named ^gAgabus.

11 And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, ^hThus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for ⁱI am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.

14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, ^jThe will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those days we took up our ^kcarriages, and went up to Jerusalem.

16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Caesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto ^lJames; and all the ^melders were present.

19 And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ⁿministry.

20 And when they heard it, they ^aglorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the law:

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, ^bneither to walk after the customs.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this thing that we say to thee: We have four men which have ^ca vow on them;

24 Take them, and ^dpurify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may ^eshave their heads; and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law.

25 As touching the Gentiles which believe, ^fwe have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them ^gentered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the ^hdays of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, ⁱthe Jews which were of ^jAsia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him,

28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help: ^kThis is the man, that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath ^lpolluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city ^mTrophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and ^athey took Paul, and ^bdrew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.

31 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the ^cchief captain of the ^dband, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.

32 Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ^eran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left ^fbeating of Paul.

33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and commanded him to be ^gbound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And ^hsome cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into ⁱthe castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people.

36 ^jFor the multitude of the people followed after, crying, ^kAway with him.

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?

38 ^lArt not thou that Egyptian, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out ^minto the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

39 But Paul said, I am a man which am a Jew of ⁿTarsus, a city in ^oCilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people.

40 And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and ^pbeckoned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in ^qthe Hebrew tongue, saying,

CHAPTER 22

MEN, ^abrethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence which I make now unto you.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the ^bHebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he said,) ^c

3 I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in ^dTarsus, a city in ^eCilicia, yet brought up in this city ^fat the feet of ^gGa-maliel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and was ^hzealous toward God, as ye all are this day.

4 And ⁱI persecuted ^jthis way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the ^kelders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to ^lDamascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.

6 ^mAnd it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, ⁿSaul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am ^oJesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

9 And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but ^pthey heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, ^qWhat shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, ^rArise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 And one ^sAnanias, a devout man according to the law, having a ^tgood report of all the Jews which dwelt there, 13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he said, ^uThe God of our fathers ^ahath chosen thee, that thou shouldst know his will, and ^bsee that just One, and shouldst hear the voice of his mouth.

15 For ^athou shalt be his witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard.

16 And now why tarriest thou? arise, and ^abe baptized, and ^bwash away thy sins, ^ccalling on the name of the Lord.

17 And it came to pass, that, ^awhen I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in ^atrance;

18 And ^asaw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, they know that ^aI imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:

20 And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, ^aI also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

21 And he said unto me, Depart: for ^aI will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles.

22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, ^aAway with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live.

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air, 24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the ^acastle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge ^aa man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.

Paul is brought before the council

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him: and the chief captain also ^awas afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and ^acommanded the chief priests and all their ^acouncil to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

CHAPTER 23

AND Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, ^aI have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

2 And the ^ahigh priest ^aĀn-ā-ni'ās commanded them that stood by him to ^asmite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, ^athou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by said, ^aReveliest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Paul, ^aI wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, ^aThou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were ^aSadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, ^aI am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: ^aI of the hope and ^aresurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.

8 For ^athe Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: but ^aif a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, ^alet us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the ^acastle.

11 And the night following ^athe Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for ^aas thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at ^aRome.

12 And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and ^abound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and ^aelders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou would-est bring down Paul to morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto ^aFelix the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Claudius ^aLys-i'ās unto the ^amost excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting.

27 This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: ^athen came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that ^ahe was a Roman.

28 And ^awhen I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council:

29 Whom I perceived to be accused of ^aquestions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge ^aworthy of death or of bonds.

30 And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and ^agave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to ^aĀn-tip-ā-tris.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle:

THE ACTS 24

33 Who, when they came to Caesarea, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of ¹Cr-līc-ī-ā;

35 I will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's judgment hall.

CHAPTER 24

AND ¹after five days ²Ān-ā-nī-ās the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tēr-tūl-lūs, who informed the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tēr-tūl-lūs began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes:

6 Who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law.

7 But the chief captain Lys-ī-ās came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge

Paul's defence of his life and doctrine unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:

11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship.

12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confess unto thee, that after the way which they call heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets:

15 And I have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after many years I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

19 Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.

20 Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council, 21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lys-ī-ās the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drū-sil-ā,

Paul accused before Festus which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

26 He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 But after two years Pōr-čī-ūs /Festus came into Felix's room: and Felix, willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

CHAPTER 25

NOW when Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Caesarea to Jerusalem.

2 Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down unto Caesarea; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove.

8 While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Caesar, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Festus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

THE ACTS 25

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Caesar.

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Caesar? unto Caesar shalt thou go.

13 And after certain days king A-grip-pā and Bēr-nī-ḡe came unto Caesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix: 15 About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Caesar.

22 Then A-grip-pā said unto Festus,

I would also hear the man myself.
 "To morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow, when Agrip-pā was come, and Bēr-nī-cē, with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Festus' commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus said, King Agrip-pā, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought not to live any longer.

25 But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrip-pā, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.

27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him.

CHAPTER 26

THEN Agrip-pā said unto Paul, "Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself:

2 I think myself happy, king Agrip-pā, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

3 Especially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews;

5 Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee.

Paul's defence before Agrippa

6 And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers;

7 Unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrip-pā, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?

9 I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

10 Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 Whereupon as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, 13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee:

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee.

18 To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God,

Paul's defence before Agrippa that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O king Agrip-pā, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

20 But shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

21 For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come:

23 That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Agrip-pā, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 Then Agrip-pā said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.

29 And Paul said, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bēr-nī-cē, and they that sat with them:

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds.

32 Then said Agrip-pā unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Cæsar.

CHAPTER 27

AND when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' 2nd band.

2 And entering into a ship of Ad-rā-mī-ti-um, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia; one Aristār-chūs, a Macedonian of Thēss-ā-lō-nī-cā, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilīcī-ā and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycī-ā.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnī-dūs, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under Crete, over against Sāl-mō-nē;

8 And, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The fair havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lā-sē-ā.

9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them,

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phē-ni-cē, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the south west and north west.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Eu-rōc-ly-don.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island which is called Claudia, we had much work to come by the boat:

17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;

19 And the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer; for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

23 For I there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve, 24 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Caesar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.

25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

Paul suffereth shipwreck at Melita

26 Howbeit we must be cast upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship, 31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat: for this is for your health: for there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen souls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land; but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoisted up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart struck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land.

CHAPTER 28

And when they were escaped, then they knew that the island was called Melita.

2 And the barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm.

6 Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

8 And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:

10 Who also honoured us with many honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

11 And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Syra-cūse, we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhē-gi-um: and after one day the south wind blew, and we, came the next day to Pā-tēō-li:

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Ap-pi-i forum, and The three taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.

18 Who, when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to appeal unto Caesar: not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain.

teacher of babes, which hast ²⁵the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.

21 ²⁶Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preaches a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not ²⁷commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou ²⁸commit sacrilege?

23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?

24 ²⁹For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written.

25 For circumcision verily profiteth, ³⁰if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

26 Therefore if ³¹the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, ³²judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?

28 For ³³he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Jew, which is ³⁴one inwardly; and ³⁵circumcision is that of the heart, ³⁶in the spirit, and not in the letter; ³⁷whose praise is not of men, but of God.

30 ³⁸For the righteousness of the law is fulfilled in us who walk by the faith of Jesus Christ.

31 ³⁹What advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

32 Much every way: chiefly, because that ⁴⁰unto them were committed the oracles of God.

33 For what ⁴¹if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the ⁴²faith of God without effect?

34 God forbid: yea, ⁴³let God be true, but ⁴⁴every man a liar; as it is written, ⁴⁵That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

35 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? ⁴⁶Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? ⁴⁷(I speak as a man)

6 God forbid: for then how shall ⁴⁸God judge the world?

7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; ⁴⁹why yet am I also judged as a sinner?

8 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) ⁵⁰Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.

9 What then? ⁵¹are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both ⁵²Jews and ⁵³Gentiles, that they are all under sin;

10 ⁵⁴As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one:

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

13 ⁵⁵Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; ⁵⁶the poison of asps is under their lips:

14 ⁵⁷Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:

15 ⁵⁸Their feet are swift to shed blood:

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways:

17 And the way of peace have they not known:

18 ⁵⁹There is no fear of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that ⁶⁰every mouth may be stopped, and ⁶¹all the world may become guilty before God.

20 Therefore by the deeds of the law there ⁶²shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for ⁶³by the law is the knowledge of sin.

21 But now ⁶⁴the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed ⁶⁵by the law and the prophets;

22 Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ ⁶⁶unto all and upon all them that believe: for ⁶⁷there is no difference:

23 For ⁶⁸all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;

24 ⁶⁹Being justified freely by ⁷⁰his grace, ⁷¹through the redemption that is in ⁷²Christ Jesus:

25 Whom God hath set forth to be ⁷³a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness ⁷⁴for the remission of sins that are past, through the ⁷⁵forbearance of God;

26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

27 ⁷⁶Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay; but by the law of faith.

28 ⁷⁷Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

29 Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also ⁷⁸of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:

30 Seeing ⁷⁹it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, ⁸⁰we establish the law.

CHAPTER 4

WHAT shall we say then that ¹Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, ²hath found?

2 For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.

3 For what saith the scripture? ³Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

4 Now ⁴to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but ⁵believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith ⁶is counted for righteousness.

6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,

7 Saying, "Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And "he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

13 For the promise, "that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to "his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For "if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

15 Because "the law worketh wrath: for "where no law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be "by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all,

17 (As it is written, I have made thee "a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even "God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth "those things which be not as though they were.

18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to

3 And not only so, but "we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation "worketh patience;

4 And patience, experience; and experience, hope:

5 And "hope "maketh not ashamed; because "the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by "the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.

6 For when we were yet without strength, in due time "Christ died for the ungodly. 7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

8 But "God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. 9 Much more then, being now justified "by his blood, we shall be "saved from wrath through him.

Reconciliation by Christ

10 For if, "when we were enemies, "we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved "by his life.

11 And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the "atonement.

12 Wherefore, as "by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and "so death passed upon all men, for that "all have sinned:

13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but "sin is not imputed when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned "after the similitude of Adam's transgression, "who is the figure of him that was to come.

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and "the gift "by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many.

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

17 For if by one man's offence death "reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.)

18 Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life.

19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so "by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

20 Moreover "the law "entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, "grace did much more abound:

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness "unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 6

WHAT shall we say then? "Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid. How shall "we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that so many of us "as were baptized into Jesus Christ "were baptized into his death?

4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as "Christ was raised up from the dead "by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk "in newness of life.

5 For if we have been planted together in "the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that "our old man "is crucified with him, that "the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

7 For "he that is dead is freed from sin.

8 Now "if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:

9 Knowing that Christ "being raised from the dead "dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, he died unto sin "once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but "alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

12 "Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither yield ye "your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but "yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

14 For sin shall not have dominion over you: for "ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? "shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be "thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart "that form of doctrine which was delivered you.

18 Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness, ye delivered yourselves up to the service of righteousness.

19 I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

20 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness.

21 What fruit had ye then in those things? whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

22 But now being made free from sin, and become "servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

23 For "the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 7

KNOW ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For "the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So then if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become "dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should "bring forth fruit unto God.

The law of sin

5 For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, "did work in our members to bring forth "fruit unto death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve "in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, "Thou shalt not covet.

8 But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For "without the law sin was dead.

9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment, "which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore "the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am "carnal, sold under sin.

15 For that which I do I allow not: for "what I would, that I do not; but what I hate, that I do.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.

17 Now then "it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that "in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

19 For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

Works of the flesh and of the Spirit

20 Now if I do that I would not, "it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 For "I delight in the law of God after "the inward man:

23 But I see another law in my members, "warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from "the body of this death?

25 I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

CHAPTER 8

THERE is therefore now "no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, "who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit)

2 For the law of "the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath "made me free from the law of sin and death.

3 For what the law "could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, "God sending his own Son "in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, "who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For "they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.

6 For to be carnally minded "is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and "peace.

7 Because the carnal mind is "enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, "neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that "the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not "the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And "if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but "the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of him "that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead "shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, "not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For if ye live after the flesh, "ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do "mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For as many as are "led by the Spirit of God, they are the "sons of God.

15 For ye have not received "the spirit of bondage again to fear; "but ye have received the Spirit of "adoption, whereby we cry, "Abba, Father.

16 The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the "children of God:

17 And if children, then "heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; "if so be that we suffer with him, that "we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are "not worthy to be compared with "the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For the earnest expectation of the "creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For the "creature "was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same "in hope, 21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that the whole creation "groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the "firstfruits of the Spirit, even "we ourselves groan within ourselves, "waiting for the adoption, to wit, "the redemption of our body.

Spirit of God = Spirit of Christ

21 In. 6:5:17-19.

ROMANS 9

24 For we are saved ^aby hope: but ^bhope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with ^apatience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for ^awe know not ^bwhat we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27 And ^ahe that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he ^amaketh intercession for the saints ^aaccording to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things work together for good to them ^athat love God, to them who are ^bcalled according to his purpose.

29 For whom he did ^aforeknow, he also did ^apredestinate to be conformed ^ato the image of his Son, that he might be ^athe firstborn among many ^abrethren.

30 Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also ^ajustified: and whom he justified, them he also ^aglorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? ^aIf God be for us, who can be against us?

32 ^aHe that spared not his own Son, but ^bdelivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's ^aelect? ^aIt is God that justifieth.

34 ^aWho is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even ^aat the right hand of God, ^awho also maketh intercession for us.

35 ^aWho shall separate us from ^athe love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36 As it is written, ^aFor thy sake ^awe are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

37 Nay, in all these things we are

The ground of the Christian's hope more than ^aconquerors through him that loved us.

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor ^aprincipalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from ^athe love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

CHAPTER 9

^aI SAY the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost,

2 That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

3 For ^aI could wish that myself were ^aaccursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

4 Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth ^athe ^aadoption, and ^athe ^aglory, and ^athe covenants, and ^athe giving of the law, and ^athe service of God, and ^athe promises;

5 Whose are ^athe fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, ^awho is over all, ^aGod blessed for ever. Amen.

6 ^aNot as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For ^athey are not all Israel, which are of Israel:

7 Neither, because they are the seed of ^aAbraham, are they all children: but, ^aIn Isaac shall thy seed be called.

8 ^aThat is, ^aThey which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

9 For this is the word of promise, ^aAt this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son.

10 And not only this; but when ^aRebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father ^aIsaac;

11 (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to ^aelection might stand, not of works, but of ^ahim that calleth:)

12 It was said unto her, ^aThe elder shall serve the younger.

13 As it is written, ^aJacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

God hath mercy on whom he will 14 What shall we say then? ^aIs there unrighteousness with God? God forbid.

15 For he saith unto Moses, ^aI will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

16 So then it is not of him that will, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

17 For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even ^athus saith the Lord, I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he ^ahardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, ^aWhy doth he yet find fault? For ^awho hath resisted his will?

20 Nay but, O man, ^awho art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, ^aWhy hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not ^athe potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one ^avessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the ^avessels of wrath ^afitted to destruction:

23 And that he might make known ^athe riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore ^aprepared unto glory,

24 Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also ^aof the Gentiles?

25 As he saith also in ^aOsée, ^aI will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.

26 And ^ait shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God.

27 E-sai-as also crieth concerning Israel, ^aThough the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:

ROMANS 10

28 For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

29 And as E-sai-as said before, ^aExcept the Lord of Sab-bôth had left us a seed, we had been as Sôd-ô-mâ, and been made like unto Gô-môr-râh.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even ^athe righteousness which is of faith.

31 But Israel, which ^afollowed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it was by the works of the law. For they stumbled at ^athat stumblingstone;

33 As it is written, ^aBehold, I lay in Sion ^aa stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

CHAPTER 10

^aBRETHREN, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record that they have ^aa zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and ^agoing about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

4 For ^aChrist is the end of the law ^afor righteousness to ^aevery one that believeth.

5 For Moses describeth the righteousness ^awhich is of the law, That ^athe man which doeth those things shall live by them.

6 ^aBut ^athe righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.)

8 But what saith it? The word is them, "when I shall take away their sins."

28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are "be-loved for the fathers' sakes."

29 For the gifts and ^ecalling of God are ^gwithout repentance.

30 For as ye ^hin times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:

31 Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

32 For God hath ^mconcluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

33 O the depth of the riches both of the ⁿwisdom and knowledge of God! how ^ounsearchable are his judgments,

34 For ^pwho hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his 35 Or ^s who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him

36 For ^t of him, and through him, and ^s to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen.

CHAPTER 12

1. ~~THE~~ ~~PEEECH~~ ~~man~~ therefore, broth

I BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye ^bpresent your bodies ^ca living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God.

2 And ^ebe not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

3 For I say, through ^h the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you: ⁱ not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, 'according as God hath dealt to every man the measure

4° For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not

5 So we, ^qbeing many, are ^rone body in Christ, and every one ^smem-

bers one of another. II55

6 ^a Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether ^b prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

7 Or ^c ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or he that teacheth, on ^d teaching;

8 Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: ^e he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ^f ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

9 ^g Let love be without dissimulation. ^h Abhor that which is evil; ⁱ cleave to that which is good.

10 ^j Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; ^k in honour preferring one another;

11 ^l Not slothful in business; ^m fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

12 ⁿ Rejoicing in hope; ^o patient in tribulation; ^p continuing instant in prayer;

13 ^q Distributing to the necessity of saints; ^r given to hospitality.

14 ^s Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.

15 ^t Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

16 ^u Be of the same mind one toward another. ^v Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. ^w Be not wise in your own conceits.

17 ^x Repembrace to no man evil for evil. ^y Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, ^z live peaceably with all men.

19 ^{aa} Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, ^{ab} Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

20 Therefore ^{ac} if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

21 ^{ad} Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have ^a praise of the same:

4 For ^b he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also ^c for conscience sake.

6 For for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 ^d Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; ^e honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man any thing, ^f but to love one another: for ^g he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, ^h Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, ⁱ Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore ^j love is the fulfilling of the law.

11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time ^k to awake out of sleep: for ^l now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the ^m works of darkness, and ⁿ let us put on the armour of light.

13 ^o Let us walk honestly, as in the day; ^p not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying.

14 But ^q put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and ^r make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

CHAPTER 14

^a HIM that is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubtful disputations.

2 For one believeth that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.

3 ^b Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.

4 ^c Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.

5 ^d One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 ^e He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. ^f He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for ^g he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For ^h none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: ⁱ whether we live therefore, or die, ^j we are the Lord's.

9 For to this end ^k Christ both died, and ^l rose, and revived, ^m that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for ⁿ we shall all stand before the judgment seat of ^o Christ.

11 For it is written, ^p As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

12 So then every one of us ^q shall give account of himself to God.

13 ^r Let us not therefore judge one another any more: ^s but judge this rather, ^t that no man put a stumbling-block or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there ^a is nothing unclean of itself; but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. ^b Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.

16 Let not then your good be evil spoken of: ^c for the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; ^d but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

17 For he that in these things serveth Christ is ^e acceptable to God, and approved of men.

18 Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may ^f edify another.

20 For meat destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.

21 ^g It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. ^h Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that which he alloweth.

23 And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

CHAPTER 15

^a WE then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

2 ^b Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good ^c to edification.

3 For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, ^d The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

4 For ^e whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through ^f patience and comfort of the scriptures might have ^g hope.

5 Now ^h the God of patience and consolation grant you ^ato be like-minded one toward another according to Christ Jesus:

6 That ye may ^awith one mind and one mouth ^aglorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Wherefore ^areceive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God.

8 Now I say that Jesus Christ ^awas a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm ^athe promises made unto the fathers:

9 And that ^athe Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, ^a"For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.

10 And again he saith, ^a"Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

11 And again, ^a"Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people.

12 And again, E-sai-as saith, ^a"There shall be a root of Jesse, and ^ahe that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with ^aall joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

14 And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with ^aall knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, ^abecause of the grace that is given to me of God,

16 ^aThat I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that ^athe offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being ^asanctified by the Holy Ghost.

17 I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ ^ain those things which pertain to God.

18 For ^a"I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed,

The extensiveness of Paul's preaching

19 ^aThrough mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Il-lyr-ti-cum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, ^anot where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation:

21 But as it is written, ^a"To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.

22 For which cause also ^aI have been much hindered from coming to you.

23 But now having no more place in these parts, and ^ahaving a great desire these many years to come unto you;

24 Wheresoever I take my journey unto Spain, ^aI will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and ^ato be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company.

25 But now I go unto Jerusalem ^ato minister unto the saints.

26 For it hath pleased ^athe Lord, ^athat Macedonia and ^aA-chai-a to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem.

27 It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For ^aif the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.

29 And I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for ^athe love of the Spirit, that ye ^astrive together with me in your prayers to God for me;

31 ^aThat I may be delivered from them that do not believe in Judea; and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be accepted of the saints;

32 That I may come unto you with Paul sendeth divers salutations ^aby the will of God, and may with you be refreshed.

33 Now ^athe God of peace be with you all. Amen.

CHAPTER 16

I COMMENT unto you, Phé-bé our sister, which is ^aservant of the church which is at Cén-chré-a:

2 That ye ^areceive her in the Lord, as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also.

3 Greet ^aPriscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus:

4 Who have for your life ^alaid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.

5 Likewise greet ^athe church that is in their house, / Salute my well-beloved Ep-é-né-tus, who is the firstfruits of ^aA-chai-a unto Christ.

6 Greet Mary, who bestowed much labour on us.

7 Salute Am-drô-ni-cus and Jû-ni-a, my kinsmen, and ^amy fellowprisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me.

8 Greet Am-pli-às my beloved in the Lord.

9 Salute Urbane, our helper in Christ, and Stîch-ys my beloved.

10 Salute A-pél-lis approved in Christ. Salute them which are of A-ris-tô-bâ-lus' household.

11 Salute Hê-rô-di-on my kinsman. Greet them that be of the household of Narcissus, which are in the Lord. 12 Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved Persis, which laboured much in the Lord.

13 Salute ^aRufus chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

14 Salute A-syn-cri-tus, Phlegon, Hermas, Pâr-rô-bas, Hermes, and the brethren which are with them.

15 Salute Phi-lô-ô-gûs, and Julia,

Nê-crê-us, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints which are with them.

16 ^aSalute one another with an holy kiss. The churches of Christ salute you.

17 Now I beseech you, brethren, ^amark them which cause divisions and offences ^acontrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them.

18 For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but ^atheir own belly; and ^aby good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

19 For ^ayour obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet I would have you wise unto that which is good, and ^asimple concerning evil.

20 And ^athe God of peace shall ^abruise Satan under your feet shortly.

^aThe grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

21 ^aTi-mô-thê-ûs, my workfellow, and ^aLucius, and ^aJason, and ^aSô-sip-ê-têr, my kinsmen, salute you.

22 Tertius, ^awho wrote this epistle, salute you in the Lord.

23 ^aGai-ûs mine host, and of the whole church, saluteth you. ^aErastus the chamberlain of the city saluteth you, and Quartus a brother.

24 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

25 Now ^ato him that is of power to establish you ^aaccording to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, ^aaccording to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret ^asince the world began,

26 But now is made manifest, and ^aby the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of ^athe everlasting God, made known to all nations ^afor the obedience of faith:

27 To God ^aonly wise, ^athe glory through Jesus Christ for ever. Amen.

^aWritten to the Romans from Corinthus, and sent by Phé-bé servant of the church at Cén-chré-a.

CORINTHIANS

CHAPTER 1

PAUL, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and ^aSôs-thê-nês our brother, 2 Unto the church of God which is at ^cCorinth, to them that are ^bsancified in Christ Jesus, ^acalled to be saints, with all that in every place ^ccall upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both their's and our's:

3 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 ^aI thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ;

5 That in every thing ye are ^aenriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge;

6 Even as ^athe testimony of Christ was confirmed in you;

7 So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for ^athe coming of our Lord Jesus Christ;

8 Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be ^ablameless in ^athe day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 ^aGod is faithful, by whom ^aye were called unto ^athe fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in ^athe same mind and in the same judgment.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloë, ^athat there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, that ^aevery one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of ^aÂ-pôlôis; and I of ^aÇê-phâs; and I of Christ.

13 Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thank God that ^aI baptized none of you, but ^aCrispus and ^aGaiûs;

15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also ^athe household of Stêphânâs: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: ^anot with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is ^ato them that perish ^afoolishness; but unto us ^awhich are saved it is ^athe power of God.

19 For it is written, ^aI will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 ^aWhere is the wise? ^awhere is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? ^ahath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

21 For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom ^aknew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

22 For ^athe Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

23 But we preach ^aChrist crucified, unto the Jews ^aa stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks ^afoolishness;

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the ^awisdom of God.

25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For ye see ^ayour calling, brethren, how that ^anot many wise men

Paul declareth his preaching after the flesh, not many mighty, nor many noble, are called:

27 But ^aGod hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen ^athe weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;

28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and ^athings which are not, ^ato bring to nought things that are:

29 ^aThat no flesh should glory in his presence.

30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us ^awisdom, and ^arighteousness, and ^asanctification, and ^aredemption:

31 That, according as it is written, ^aHe that glorieth, ^alet him glory in the Lord.

CHAPTER 2

AND I, brethren, when I came to ^ayou, ^acame not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, ^adeclaring unto you the ^atestimony of God.

2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, ^asave Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 And ^aI was with you ^ain weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of ^athe Spirit and of power:

5 That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in ^athe power of God.

6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are ^aperfect: yet ^anot the wisdom of this world, nor of ^athe princes of this ^aworld, that ^acome to nought:

7 But we speak the wisdom of God ^ain a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory:

8 Which none of the princes of this world knew: for ^ahad they known it, they would not have crucified ^athe Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, ^aEye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for ^athem that love him.

10 But ^aGod hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for ^athe Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, ^asave the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now ^awe have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 Which things also we speak, ^anot in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; ^acomparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 But ^athe natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are ^afoolishness unto him: ^aneither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 But he that is ^aspiritual ^ajudgeth all things, yet he himself is ^ajudged of no man.

16 For ^awho hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But ^awe have the ^amind of Christ.

CHAPTER 3

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto ^aspiritual, but as unto ^acarnal, even as unto babes in Christ.

2 ^aI have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ^aye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas ^athere is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?

4 For while ^aone saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of ^aÂ-pôlôis; are ye not carnal?

5 Who then is Paul, and who is ^aÂ-pôlôis, but ^aministers by whom ye believed, ^aeven as the Lord gave to every man?

I CORINTHIANS 4

6 I have planted, ^a & -póllos watered; but God gave the increase.

7 So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now ^a he that planteth and he that watereth are one; and ^a every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

9 For we are ^a labourers together with God: ye are ^a God's husbandry, ye are God's building.

10 ^a According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

11 For of whose foundation can no man lay that that is laid, ^a which is Jesus Christ.

12 Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

13 ^a Every man's work shall be made manifest: for ^a the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed ^a by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; ^a yet so as by fire.

16 Know ye not that ^a ye are the temple of God, and that the ^a Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 Let no man deceive himself. ^a If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For ^a the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, ^a He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

20 And again, ^a The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 Therefore ^a let no man glory in men. For ^a all things are your's;

All distinctions are from God

22 Whether Paul, or ^a -póllos, or Cē-phās, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are your's;

23 And ^a ye are Christ's; and ^a Christ is God's.

CHAPTER 4

LET a man so account of us, as of the ^a ministers of Christ, and ^a stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self.

4 For ^a I know nothing ^a by myself; yet am I not hereby justified; but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

5 Therefore ^a I judge nothing before the time, ^a until the Lord come, ^a who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will ^a make manifest the counsels of the hearts: ^a and then shall every man have praise of God.

6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to ^a -póllos for your sakes; that ye might learn in us ^a not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

7 For who maketh thee to differ from another? and ^a what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?

8 Now ye are full, now ^a ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, ^a as it were appointed to death: for we are ^a made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 We are fools for Christ's sake, but ^a ye are wise in Christ; ^a we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised.

11 Even unto this present hour ^a we both hunger, and thirst, and are

The old leaven must be purged out naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace;

12 And labour, ^a working with our own hands: ^a being reviled, we bless; being ^a persecuted, we suffer it:

13 Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are ^a the offscouring of all things unto this day.

14 ^a I write not these things to shame you, but ^a as my beloved sons I warn you.

15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus ^a I have begotten you through the gospel.

16 Wherefore I beseech you, ^a be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause have I sent unto you ^a Ti-móth-ē-us, who is ^a my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, ^a as I teach every where in every church.

18 Now some are ^a puffed up, as though I would not come to you.

19 But ^a I will come to you shortly, ^a if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

20 For ^a the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

21 What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in ^a the spirit of meekness?

CHAPTER 5

IT is reported commonly that ^a there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, ^a that one should have his father's wife.

2 And ye are ^a "puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

3 For I verily, ^a as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed,

4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, ^a when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,

I CORINTHIANS 5, 6

5 ^a To deliver such an one ^a unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved ^a in the day of the Lord Jesus.

6 ^a Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that ^a a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

7 ^a Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even ^a Christ our passover is sacrificed for us:

8 Therefore ^a let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with ^a the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in an epistle ^a not to company with fornicators:

10 Yet ^a not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world.

11 But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no to eat.

12 For what have I to do to judge ^a them also that are without? ^a do not ye judge them that are within?

13 But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore ^a put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

CHAPTER 6

DARE any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not ^a before the saints?

2 Do ye not know that ^a the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall ^a judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?

4 If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 ^a I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. ¹Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, ye ^ado wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous ⁱshall not inherit the kingdom of God? ^bBe not deceived: ^cneither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And ^{such} were some of you: but ^{by} ye are washed, but ye are ^esanctified, but ye are ^fjustified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 ^{All} things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

13 ^{Meats} for the belly, and the belly for meats: but ^{God} shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but ^{for} the Lord; and ^{the} Lord for the body.

14 And ^{God} hath both raised up the Lord, and ^{will} also raise up ^{us} by ^{his} own power.

15 Know ye not that ^{your} bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.

16 What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? ^{as} for two, saith he, shall be one flesh.

17 But he that is joined unto the Lord is ^{one} spirit.

18 ^{Flee} fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body.

Of the married state

19 What? know ye not that your body is ^athe temple of the Holy Ghost ^bwhich is in you, which ye have of God, and ^cye are not your own?

20 ^{For} ye are bought with a price: therefore ^dglorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

CHAPTER 7

NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: ^eIt is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5 Defraud ye not one the other, ^bexcept it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, ^cthat Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this ^dby permission, and not of commandment.

7 ^{For} I would that all men were even as I myself. But ^eevery man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, ^fIt is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But if they cannot contain, ^glet them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, ^hlet not the wife depart from her husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest ⁱspeak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath an

Of the marriage of virgins husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: ^aelse were your children unclean; but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us ^bto peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, ^cwhether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 But ^aas God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord ^bhath called every one, so let him walk. And ^cso ordain I ^din all churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? ^elet him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised.

19 ^{Circumcision} is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, ^fbut the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 ^{Let} every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is ^athe Lord's freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is ^bChrist's servant.

23 ^{Ye} are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

24 Brethren, ^clet every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins ^dI have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as ^eone that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.

26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress, I say, that ^fit is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 But this I say, brethren, ^athe time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and ^bthey that buy, as though they possessed not;

31 And they that use this world, as not ^cabusing it: for ^dthe fashion of this world passeth away.

32 But I would have you ^ewithout carefulness. ^fHe that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man think that he becometh himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

37 Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.

38 So then he that giveth her in marriage ^adoeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.

39 ^{The} wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; ^aonly in the Lord.

40 But she is happier if she so abide, ^cafter my judgment; and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

CHAPTER 8

NOW as touching things ^aoffered unto idols, we know that we all ^ahave knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, ^bbut charity edifieth.

2 And ^aif any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But ^aif any man love God, the same ^ais known of him.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, ^awe know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that ^athere is none other God but one.

5 For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many.)

6 But to us ^athere is but one God, the Father, ^aof whom are all things, and we in him; and ^bone Lord Jesus Christ, ^aby whom are all things, and we by him.

7 Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.

8 But ^amy consent commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse.

9 But take heed lest by any means ^athis liberty of your's become a ^astumblingblock to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hath knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;

11 And through thy knowledge ^ashall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

12 But when ^aye sin against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.

Christian liberty not to be abused

13 Wherefore, ^aif meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

CHAPTER 9

AM I not an apostle? ^aam I not free? ^ahave I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? ^aare not ye my work in the Lord?

2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for ^athe seal of ^amine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 Mine answer to them that do examine me is this,

4 ^aI have we not power to eat and to drink?

5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as ^athe brethren of the Lord, and ^aCēphās?

6 Or I only ^aand Barnabas, have not we power to forbear working?

7 ^aWho goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? ^awho planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 ^aSay I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

9 For it is written in the law of Moses, ^aThou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. God take care for oxen?

10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? ^aFor our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth ^ain hope should be partaker of his hope.

11 ^aIf we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless ^awe have not used this power; but suffer all things, ^alest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 Do ye not know that ^athey which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?

14 Even ^aso hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

Paul's selfdenial

15 But ^aI have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make ^amy glorying void.

16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for ^anecessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!

17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have ^aa reward; but if against my will, ^aa dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.

18 What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

19 For ^athough I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, ^athat I might gain the more.

20 And ^aunto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law; that I might gain them that are under the law;

21 To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.

22 ^aTo the weak ^abecame I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? ^aSo run, that ye may obtain.

25 And every man that ^astriveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we ^aan incorruptible.

26 I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beatech the air:

27 But I ^akeep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a ^acast-away.

CHAPTER 10

MOREOVER, brethren, I would ^anot that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were ^aunder the cloud, and all ^apassed through the sea;

2 And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea;

3 And ^adid all eat the same ^aspiritual meat;

4 And ^adid all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ.

5 But with many of them God was not well pleased: for ^athey were overthrown in the wilderness.

6 Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, ^aas they also lusted.

7 ^aNeither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, ^aThe people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

8 ^aNeither let us commit fornication, ^aas some of them committed, and ^afell in one day three and twenty thousand.

9 ^aNeither let us tempt Christ, ^aas some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of ^aserpents.

10 Neither murmur ye, ^aas some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of ^athe destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples; and ^athey are written for our admonition, upon whom ^athe ends of ^athe world are come.

12 Wherefore ^alet him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.

13 There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but ^aGod is faithful, ^awho will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, ^aflee from idolatry.

another ^adivers kinds of tongues; to another the ^ainterpretation of tongues;

11 But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.

12 For ^aas the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: ^aso also is Christ.

13 For ^aby one Spirit are we all ^abaptized into one body, whether we be ^aJews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath ^aGod set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members ^arejoice with it.

27 Now ^aye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

28 And God hath set some in the church, ^afirst ^aapostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly ^ateachers, after that ^amiracles, then ^agifts of healings, helps, ^agovernments, ^adiversities of tongues.

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all ^ainterpret?

31 But ^aye covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

CHAPTER 13

THOUGH I speak ^awith the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift of ^aprophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all ^aknowledge; and though I have all ^afaith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 And ^athough I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 ^aCharity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself; ^ais not puffed up;

5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, ^aseeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

6 Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

7 ^aBeareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see ^athrough a glass, darkly; but then ^aface to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also ^aI am known.

13 And now abideth faith, ^ahope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

CHAPTER 14

FOLLOW after charity, and ^adesire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may ^aprophecy.

2 For ^ahe that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but ^arather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he ^ainterpret, that the church may receive edifying.

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by ^arevelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

8 For if the ^atrumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.

11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a ^abarbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the ^aedifying of the church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: ^aI will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

16 Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say ^aAmen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:

19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, than by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice ^abe ye children, but in understanding ^abe men.

21 In the law it is written, ^aWith men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all ispeak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, ^awill they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:

25 And thus are ^cthe secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face, he will worship God, and ^dreport that God is in you of a truth.

26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a ^erevelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God. 29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other ^fjudge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in ^gall churches of the saints.

34 ^hLet your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to ⁱbe under obedience, as also saith the law.

35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

36 What? came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only?

37 ^jIf any man think himself to be a prophet, or ^kspiritual, ^llet him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.

38 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, brethren, covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

40 Let all things be done decently and ^min order.

CHAPTER 15

MOREOVER, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel ⁿwhich I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and ^owherein ye stand;

2 By which also ^pye are saved, ^qif ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, ^runless ye have believed in vain.

3 For I delivered unto you first of all ^sthat which I also received, how that ^tChrist died for our sins ^uaccording to the scriptures;

4 And that he was buried, and that ^vhe rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

5 And that ^whe was seen of Cē-phās, then ^xof the twelve:

6 After that, he was seen ^yof above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are ^zfallen asleep.

7 After that, he was seen of James; then ^{aa}of all the apostles.

8 And last of all he was ^{ab}seen of me also, as of one ^{ac}born out of due time. 9 For ^{ad}I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because ^{ae}I persecuted the church of God.

10 But ^{af}by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but ^{ag}I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye be- lieved.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, ^{ah}how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen:

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are ^{ai}fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the ^{aj}firstfruits of them that slept.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also ^{ak}the resurrection of the dead.

22 For ^{al}as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward ^{am}they that are Christ's ^{an}at his coming.

24 ^{ao}Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

25 For he must reign, ^{ap}till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 ^{aq}The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

27 For ^{ar}he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, ^{as}which did put all things under him.

28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall ^{at}the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And ^{au}why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, ^{av}I die daily.

32 If after the manner of men ^{aw}I have fought with beasts at ^{ax}Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? ^{ay}let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die.

33 ^{az}Be not deceived: ^{ba}evil communications corrupt good manners.

34 ^{bb}Awake to righteousness, and ^{bc}sin not; for ^{bd}some have not the knowledge of God: ^{be}I speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened, ^{bf}except it die:

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 But God ^{bg}giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

43 It is sown in dishonour; ^{bh}it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, ^{bi}the first man Adam was made a living soul; ^{bj}the last Adam was made a ^{bk}quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 The first man is of the earth, ^{bl}fearthy; ^{bm}the second man is the Lord from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, ^awe shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that ^aflesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery; ^aWe shall not all sleep, but ⁱwe shall all be changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for ^athe trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and ^athis mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, ^aDeath is swallowed up in victory.

55 ^aO death, where is thy sting? ^aO grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sin; and ^athe strength of sin is the law.

57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us ^athe victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, ^aalways abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

CHAPTER 16

NOW concerning the ^acollection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of ^aGalatia, even so do ye.

2 Upon ^athe first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, ^athat there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I come, ^awhomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, then will I send to bring your liberality unto Jerusalem.

4 And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Now ^aI will come unto you, ^bwhen I shall pass through ^aMacedonia: for I do pass through Macedonia.

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may ^abring me on my journey whithersoever I go.

7 For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, ^aif the Lord permit.

8 But I will tarry at ^aEphesus until ^aPentecost.

9 For ^aa great door and effectual is opened unto me, and ^athere are many adversaries.

10 Now if ^aTi-mōth-ē-ūs come, see that he may be with you without fear: for ^ahe worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 ^aLet no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother ^aÄ-pöl-lös, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

13 ^aWatch ye, ^astand fast in ^athe faith, quit you like men, ^abe strong.

14 ^aLet all your things be done with charity.

15 I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the ^ahouse of Stēph-ä-näs, that it is the firstfruits of ^aÄ-chäi-ä, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints.)

16 ^aThat ye submit yourselves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboureth.

17 I am glad of the coming of Stēph-ä-näs and För-tū-nä-tūs and Ä-chäi-cūs: for ^athat which was lacking on your part they have supplied.

18 For they have ^arefreshed my spirit and your's: therefore ^aacknowledge ye them that are such.

19 The churches of ^aAsia salute you. ^aAquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with ^athe church that is in their house.

20 All the brethren greet you.

An encouragement against troubles

^aGreet ye one another with an holy kiss.

21 The salutation of me Paul ^awith mine own hand.

22 If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be ^aÄ-näth-ē-mä ^aMär-än-ä-thä.

23 ^bThe grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

^aThe first epistle to the Corinthians was written from Phil-ipp-oi by Stēph-ä-näs, and För-tū-nä-tūs, and Ä-chäi-cūs, and Ti-mōth-ē-ūs.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS

CHAPTER 1

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and ^aTimothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at ^a 18 But as ^aGod is true, our word toward you was not yet and nay.

19 For ^athe Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and ^aSil-vā-nūs and Tī-mōth-ē-us, was not yet and nay, but in you was yet.

20 For all ^athe promises of God in him are yet, and in him ^aAmen, unto the glory of God by us.

21 Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath ^aanointed us, is God;

22 Who hath also ^asealed us, and given ^athe earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover ^aI call God for a record upon my soul, that ^ato spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

24 ^aNot for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: ^afor ^aby faith ye stand.

CHAPTER 2

BUT I determined this with myself, ^athat I would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For ^aif I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but he same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; ^ahaving confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you ^awith many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but ^athat ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is ^athis punishment, which was inflicted of many.

7 So that contrariwise ^aye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him.

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, ^awhether ye be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgive any thing, to whom I forgive it, for your sakes forgive I it in the person of Christ;

11 ^aLest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, when I came to ^aTrō-ās to preach Christ's gospel, and ^aa door was opened unto me of the Lord, 13 ^aI had no rest in my spirit, because I found not ^aTitus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence unto ^aMacedonia.

14 Now thanks be unto God, ^awhich always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are unto God ^aa sweet savour of Christ, ^ain them that are saved, and in ^athem that perish:

16 To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And ^awho is sufficient for these things?

17 For we are not as many, ^awhich corrupt the word of God: but as of ^asincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

CHAPTER 3

DO we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, ^aepistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 ^aYe are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:

3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but ^awith the Spirit of ^athe living God; not in ^atables of stone, but in ^afleshy ^atables of the heart.

4 And ^asuch trust have we through Christ to God-ward:

5 ^aNot that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God;

6 ^aWho also hath made us able ^aministers of ^athe new ^atestament; ^anot of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, ^abut the spirit giveth life.

7 But if ^athe ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses ^afor the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away:

8 How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if ^athe ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have ^asuch hope, ^awe use great plainness of speech:

13 And not as Moses, which ^aput a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:

14 But ^atheir minds were ^ablinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away ^ain the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless when ^ait shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.

17 Now ^athe Lord is that Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, ^athere is liberty.

18 But we all, with open face ^abeholding ^aas in ^aglass the glory of the Lord, ^aare changed ^ainto the same image from glory to glory even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAPTER 4

THEREFORE seeing we have ^athis ministry, ^aas we have received mercy, we faint not;

2 But have renounced ^athe hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor ^ahandling the word of God deceitfully; but ^aby manifestation of the truth ^acommending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3 But ^aif our gospel be ^ahid, it is hid to ^athem that are lost:

4 In whom ^athe god of this world ^ahath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, ^awho is the image of God, should shine unto them.

5 For ^awe preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ^aourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.

6 For God, ^awho commanded the light to shine out of darkness, ^ahath shined in our hearts, to give ^athe light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in ^aearthen vessels, that the excellency of ^athe power may be of God, and not of us.

8 We are ^atroubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;

9 ^aPersecuted, but ^anot forsaken; ^acast down, but not destroyed;

10 ^aAlways bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, ^athat the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, ^aI believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

14 Knowing that ^ahe which raised up the Lord Jesus ^ashall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15 For ^aall things are for your sakes, ^athat the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to ^athe glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet ^athe inward man ^ais renewed day by day.

17 For ^aour light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 While we look ^cnot at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

CHAPTER 5

FOR we know that if ^aour earthly house of this ^btabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this ^awe groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

3 If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but ^aclothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us ^athe earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For ^awe walk by faith, not by sight:)

8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be ^apresent with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we ^alabour, that, whether present or absent, we may be ^aaccepted of him.

10 For we must all appear before ^athe judgment seat of Christ; ^athat every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore ^athe terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are ^amade manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For ^awe commend not ourselves again unto you, but ^agive you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye

A.D. 55
a Ro. 8, 18

may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For whether we be ^bbeside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

14 For ^athe love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if ^aone died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, that they which live should ^anot henceforth live unto themselves, ^abut unto him which died for them, and ^arose again.

16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh; yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be ^ain Christ, he is ^aa new creature: ^aold things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

18 And ^aall things are of God, ^awho hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us ^athe ministry of reconciliation;

19 To wit, that ^aGod was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are ^aambassadors for Christ, ^aas though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For ^ahe hath made him to be sin for us, ^awho knew no sin; ^athat we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

CHAPTER 6

WE then, as ^aworkers together with him, ^abeseech you also ^athat ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 (For he saith, ^aI have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, ^anow is the day of salvation.)

3 ^aGiving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

4 But in all things approving ourselves ^aas the ministers of God, ^ain

His sufferings and patience much ^apatience, in ^aafflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In ^astripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;

6 (By pureness, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by ^alove unfeigned,

7 By ^athe word of truth, by ^athe power of God, by ^athe armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true;

9 As unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed;

10 As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.)

11 O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own bowels.

13 Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto ^amy children,) be ye also enlarged.

14 ^aBe ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for ^awhat fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and ^awhat communion hath light with darkness?

15 And ^awhat concord hath Christ with Bē-lī-āl? or with what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ^aye are the temple of ^athe living God; as God hath said, ^aI will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 Wherefore ^acome out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,

18 And will be a Father unto you, and ^aye shall be my sons and daughters, saith ^athe Lord Almighty.

CHAPTER 7

HAVING therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, ^aperfecting holiness ^ain the fear of God.

A.D. 55

2 Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, ^awe have defrauded no man.

3 I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 Great is ^amy boldness of speech toward you, great is ^amy glorying of you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For, when we were come into ^aMacedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheless God, ^athat comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of ^aTitus;

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For ^athough I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that ^aour care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because ^{his} spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

16 I rejoice therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

CHAPTER 8

¹ MOREOVER, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia;

2 How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality.

3 For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves;

4 Praying with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

6 Inasmuch that we desired ^{of} Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

7 Therefore, as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also.

8 I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward ^a year ago.

Macedonian liberality

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

12 For if there be first ^a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened:

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, ^a He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And ^a we have sent with him ^a the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;

19 And not that only, but who was also ^a chosen of the churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us ^a to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

20 Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

21 ^a Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which I have in you.

23 Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellowhelper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

Almsgiving recommended

24 Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of ^a our boasting on your behalf.

CHAPTER 9

¹ FOR as touching ^a the ministering to the saints, ^a it is superfluous for me to write to you:

2 For I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that ^a Achaia was ready ^a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 Yet ^a have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready:

4 Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your bounty, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.

6 But this I say, ^a He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and ^a he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver.

8 And ^a God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

9 (As it is written, ^a He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever.

10 Now he that ministereth ^a seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and ^a increase the fruits of your righteousness:)

11 ^a Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

12 For the administration of this service not only supplieth ^a the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God;

13 Whiles by the experiment of this ministration ^a they glorify God for ^a your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men;

14 And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you.

15 ^a Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift.

CHAPTER 10

¹ NOW I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who ^a in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you:

2 But I beseech you, ^a that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

4 (For the weapons of ^a our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds:)

5 Casting down ^a imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

6 And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when ^a your obedience is fulfilled.

7 ^a Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? ^a If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even ^a so are we Christ's.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of ^a our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed:

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

10 For ^a his letters, say they, are weighty and powerful; but ^ahis bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.

11 Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

12 For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that ^acommend themselves; but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.

13 But ^awe will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: for ^awe are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:

15 ^aNot boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly, 16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and ^anot to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand.

17 But ^ahe that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

18 For ^anot he that commendeth himself is approved, but ^awhom the Lord commendeth.

CHAPTER 11

WOULD to God ye could bear with me a little in ^amy folly: and indeed bear with me.

2 For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for ^aI have espoused you to one husband, that I ^amay present you ^aas a chaste virgin to Christ.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, ^aas the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds ^ashould be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh ^apreacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or ^aanother gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

5 For I suppose ^aI was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

6 But ^athough I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but ^aI have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God ^afreely?

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for ^athat which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Macedonia ^asupplied; and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

10 ^aAs the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this ^aboasting in the regions of ^aÄ-chä-tä.

11 Wherefore? because I love you not? ^aGod knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, ^athat I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such are ^afalse apostles, deceitful workers, ^atransforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an ^aangel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; ^awhose end shall be according to their works.

16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet ^aas a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 That which ^aI speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but ^aas it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

18 Seeing that ^amany glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, ^aseeing ye yourselves are wise.

20 For ye suffer, if a man ^abring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of ye, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold, ^aI speak foolishly, I am bold also.

22 Are they Hebrews? ^aso am I. Are they Israelites? ^aso am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? ^aso am I.

23 Are they ministers of Christ? ^aI speak as a fool ^aI am more; ^ain labours more abundant, in ^astripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft.

24 Of the Jews five times received I ^aforty stripes save one.

25 Thrice was I ^abeaten with rods, once was I ^astoned, thrice I ^asuffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;

26 In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;

27 In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in ^ahunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

28 Beside those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of ^aall the churches.

29 ^aWho is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?

30 If I must needs glory, ^aI will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, ^awhich is blessed for evermore, knoweth ^athat I lie not.

32 In ^aDamascus the governor under A-ré-täs the king kept the city of the Däm-ä-ç-nés with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me:

33 And through a window in a basket ^awas I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAPTER 12

IT is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and ^arevelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man ^ain Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether ^aout of the body, I cannot tell; ^aGod knoweth;) such an one ^acaught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth:)

4 How that he was caught up into ^aparadise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such an one will I glory: yet of myself ^aI will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, ^athe messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lord ^athrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, ^aMy grace is sufficient for thee: for ^amy strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore I ^atake pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for ^awhen I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for ^aI ought to have been commended of you: for ^ain nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.

12 ^aTruly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you ^ain all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

3 And But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 And that ^abecause of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out ^aour liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, ^athat they might bring us into bondage:

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that ^athe truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But of these who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: ^aGod accepteth no man's person): for they who seemed to be somewhat in conference added nothing to me:

7 But contrariwise, when they saw that ^athe gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto ^aPeter;

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles:)

9 And when ^aJames, Cēs-phās, and John, who seemed to be ^apillars, perceived the ^agrace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor; the same ^awhich I also was forward to do.

11 But ^awhen Peter was come to Ant-ti-ōch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from James, ^ahe did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing ^athem which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to ^athe truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

15 We who are Jews by nature, and not ^asinners of the Gentiles,

16 Knowing that ^aa man is not justified by the works of the law, ^abut by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 For I through the law am ^adead to the law, that I might ^alive unto God.

20 ^aI am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but ^aChrist liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live ^aby the faith of ^athe Son of God, ^awho loved me, and ^agave himself for me. 21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for ^aif righteousness come by the law, then ^aChrist is dead in vain.

CHAPTER 3

FOOLISH Galatians, ^awho hath bewitched you, ^athat ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

2 This only would I learn of you, ^aReceived ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by ^athe hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, ^aare ye now made perfect by the flesh?

4 Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.

5 He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and ^aworketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as ^aAbraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore that ^athey which are of faith, the same are the ^achildren of Abraham.

8 And the scripture, foreseeing that ^aGod would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, ^aIn thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then ^athey which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are ^aunder the curse: for it is written, ^aCursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But that ^ano man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for ^athe just shall live by faith.

12 And the law is not of faith: but, ^aThe man that doeth them shall live in them.

13 Christ ^ahath redeemed us from the curse of the law, ^abeing made a curse for us: for it is written, ^aCursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; ^athat we might receive ^athe promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, ^aI speak after the manner of men; ^aThough it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

16 Now ^ato Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And ^ato thy seed, which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, ^athe law, which was ^afour hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the law? ^aIt was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ^aordained by angels ^ain the hand of a mediator.

20 Now ^aa mediator is not a mediator of one, but ^aGod is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for ^aif there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But the scripture hath ^aconcluded all under sin, that the promise ^aby faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore ^athe law was our schoolmaster ^ato bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

26 For ^aye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

27 For as many of you as ^ahave been baptized into Christ have ^aput on Christ.

28 There is ^aneither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ^aye are all one in Christ Jesus.

29 And ^aif ye be Christ's, ^athen are ye Abraham's seed, and ^aheirs according to the promise.

CHAPTER 4

NOW I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;

2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, ^awere in bondage under the ^aelements of the world:

4 But ^awhen the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, ^amade of a woman, made under the law,

5 ^aTo redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive ^athe adoption of sons.

6 And because ^aye are sons, God hath ^asent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, ^aAb-bā, Father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

8 Howbeit then, ¹when ye knew not God, ²ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now, after that ye ¹have known
God, or rather ²ye are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly ³elements, wherunto ye desire again ⁴to be in bondage?

10 Ye observe ¹days, and months, and times, and years.

11 I am afraid of you, ¹lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how ¹through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first.

14 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.

15 Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 They zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

19 My little children, ¹of whom I travail in birth again ²until Christ be formed in you,

20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the ¹one by a bond-maid, the ²other by a freewoman.

23 ¹But he who was of the bond-woman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was by promise.

24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the ¹mount Sinai, which gen-dereth to bondage, which is ²Agar.

25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and aswereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

26 But ¹Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

27 For it is written, ¹Rejoice, thou barren that barest not; break forth and cry, thou that trailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was,
are the children of promise.

29 But as then he that was born after the flesh ¹persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless what saith the scripture? ¹Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for the son of the bond-woman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free.

CHAPTER 5

¹STAND fast therefore ²in the liberty wherewith ³Christ hath made us free, and ⁴be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, ¹Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that ¹he is a debtor to do the whole law.

4 ²Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ³ye are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit ¹wait for the hope ²of righteousness by faith.

6 For in Jesus Christ ¹neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love.

7 ²Ye did run well; ³who did hinder you that ye should not obey ⁴the truth?

8 This persuasion cometh not of him ¹that calleth you.

9 ²A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 ³I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be ⁴none other-

Fruits of the Spirit

wise minded: but ¹he that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be.

11 And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is ¹the ²offence of the cross ceased.

12 I would ¹they were even cut off which trouble you.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called ¹unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but ²by love serve one another.

14 For ¹all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; ²Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, ¹Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

17 For ¹the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: ²so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But if ye be ¹led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

19 Now ¹the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

20 idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, sedi-tions, heresies,

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things ¹shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But ¹the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness,
goodness, faith,

23 Meekness, temperance: ²against such there is no law.

24 And ¹they that are Christ's ²have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 ¹Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

CHAPTER 6

¹BRETHREN, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ²ye which are spiritual, ³restore such an one ⁴in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

2 ¹Bear ye one another's burdens, and ²so fulfil the law of Christ.

3 For ¹if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 But ¹let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another.

5 For every man shall bear his own burden.

6 Let ¹him that is taught in the word ²communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.

7 ¹Be not deceived; ²God is not mocked: for ³whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8 For ¹he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life ²everlasting.

9 And ¹let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

10 As we have therefore opportunity, ¹let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.

11 Ye see ¹how large a letter I have written unto you ²with mine own hand.

12 As many as desire to make a fair show in the flesh, ¹they constrain you to be circumcised; only ²lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should glory, ¹save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and ²I unto the world.

15 For in Christ Jesus ¹neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but ²a new ³creature.

16 And ^aas many as walk according to this rule, ^bpeace be on them, and mercy, and upon ^cthe Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man gers from ^athe covenants of promise, having ^bno hope, and ^cwithout God in the world:

13 But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were ^afar off are made nigh ^bby the blood of Christ.

14 For ^ahe is our peace, who ^bhath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;

15 Having abolished ^ain his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ^bordinances; for to make in himself of twain one ^cnew man, so making peace;

16 And that he might ^areconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby;

17 And came and preached peace to you which were ^aafar off, and to them that were nigh. ^b2a. 57. 19

18 For through him we both have ^aaccess by ^bone Spirit unto the Father.

19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but ^afellow-citizens with the saints, and of ^bthe household of God;

20 And ^aare built upon the foundation of the ^bapostles and prophets, ^cJesus Christ himself being the chief ^dcorner stone;

21 In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an ^aholy temple in the Lord:

22 In whom ye also are built together for an ^ahabitation of God through the Spirit.

CHAPTER 3

^aFOR this cause I Paul, ^bthe prisoner of Christ Jesus for you Gentiles,

2 If ye have heard of the ^adispensation of ^bthe grace of God which is given me to you-ward:

3 How that ^aby revelation he made known unto me the mystery; (as I wrote afore in few words,

4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in ^athe mystery of Christ)

5 Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is 14 Wherefore he saith, ^aAwake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and ^bChrist shall give thee light.

15 ^cSee then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, 16 ^dRedeeming the time, because ^ethe days are evil.

17 Wherefore be ye not unwise, but ^funderstanding what the will of the Lord is.

18 And ^gbe not drunk with wine, wherein is ^hexcess; but be filled with the Spirit;

19 Speaking to yourselves in ⁱpsalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord;

20 ^jGiving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ;

21 ^kSubmitting yourselves one to another ^lin the fear of God.

22 ^mWives, ⁿsubmit yourselves unto your own husbands, ^oas unto the Lord.

23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as ^pChrist is the head of the church: and he is the ^qsaviour of the body.

24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

25 ^rHusbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;

26 That he might ^ssanctify and ^tcleanse it with the washing of water by the word, 27 ^uThat he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; ^vbut that it should be holy and without blemish.

28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:

30 For ^wwe are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 ^xFor this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.

32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

33 Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

CHAPTER 6

CHILDREN, obey your parents in the Lord; for this is right.

2 ^yHonour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise;

3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

4 And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but ^zbring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

5 ^{aa}Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, ^{ab}as unto Christ;

6 Not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers; but as the ^{ac}servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;

7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

8 Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, ^{ad}the same shall he receive of the Lord, ^{ae}whether he be bond or free.

9 And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; ^{af}neither is there respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, ^{ag}be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

11 ^{ah}Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to ^{ai}stand against the wiles of the devil.

12 For ^{aj}we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against ^{ak}principalties, against powers, against the ^{al}rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in ^{am}high places.

13 Therefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the ^{an}evil day, and having done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, having ^{ao}your loins girt about with truth, and having on the ^{ap}breastplate of righteousness;

15 And ^{aq}your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

16 Above all, taking the ^{ar}shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

17 And take the ^{as}helmet of salvation, and the ^{at}sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

18 ^{au}Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and ^{av}watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints;

19 And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth ^{aw}boldly, ^{ax}to make known the mystery of the gospel, 20 For which I am an ^{ay}ambassador ^{az}in bonds; that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

21 ^{ba}But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, ^{bb}^{bc}^{bd}^{be}^{bf}^{bg}^{bh}^{bi}^{bj}^{bk}^{bl}^{bm}^{bn}^{bo}^{bp}^{bq}^{br}^{bs}^{bt}^{bu}^{bv}^{bw}^{bx}^{by}^{bz}^{ca}^{cb}^{cc}^{cd}^{ce}^{cf}^{cg}^{ch}^{ci}^{cj}^{ck}^{cl}^{cm}^{cn}^{co}^{cp}^{cq}^{cr}^{cs}^{ct}^{cu}^{cv}^{cw}^{cx}^{cy}^{cz}^{da}^{db}^{dc}^{dd}^{de}^{df}^{dg}^{dh}^{di}^{dj}^{dk}^{dl}^{dm}^{dn}^{do}^{dp}^{dq}^{dr}^{ds}^{dt}^{du}^{dv}^{dw}^{dx}^{dy}^{dz}^{ea}^{eb}^{ec}^{ed}^{ee}^{ef}^{eg}^{eh}^{ei}^{ej}^{ek}^{el}^{em}^{en}^{eo}^{ep}^{eq}^{er}^{es}^{et}^{eu}^{ev}^{ew}^{ex}^{ey}^{ez}^{fa}^{fb}^{fc}^{fd}^{fe}^{ff}^{fg}^{fh}^{fi}^{fj}^{fk}^{fl}^{fm}^{fn}^{fo}^{fp}^{fq}^{fr}^{fs}^{ft}^{fu}^{fv}^{fw}^{fx}^{fy}^{fz}^{ga}^{gb}^{gc}^{gd}^{ge}^{gf}^{gg}^{gh}^{gi}^{gj}^{gk}^{gl}^{gm}^{gn}^{go}^{gp}^{gq}^{gr}^{gs}^{gt}^{gu}^{gv}^{gw}^{gx}^{gy}^{gz}^{ha}^{hb}^{hc}^{hd}^{he}^{hf}^{hg}^{hh}^{hi}^{hj}^{hk}^{hl}^{hm}^{hn}^{ho}^{hp}^{hq}^{hr}^{hs}^{ht}^{hu}^{hv}^{hw}^{hx}^{hy}^{hz}^{ia}^{ib}^{ic}^{id}^{ie}^{if}^{ig}^{ih}ⁱⁱ^{ij}^{ik}^{il}^{im}ⁱⁿ^{io}^{ip}^{iq}^{ir}^{is}^{it}^{iu}^{iv}^{iw}^{ix}^{iy}^{iz}^{ja}^{jb}^{jc}^{jd}^{je}^{jf}^{jj}^{jk}^{jl}^{jm}^{jn}^{jo}^{jp}^{jq}^{jr}^{js}^{jt}^{ju}^{jv}^{jw}^{jx}^{ky}^{kz}^{la}^{lb}^{lc}^{ld}^{le}^{lf}^{lg}^{lh}^{li}^{lj}^{lk}^{ll}^{lm}^{ln}^{lo}^{lp}^{lq}^{lr}^{ls}^{lt}^{lu}^{lv}^{lw}^{lx}^{ly}^{lz}^{ma}^{mb}^{mc}^{md}^{me}^{mf}^{mg}^{mh}^{mi}^{mj}^{mk}^{ml}^{mn}^{mo}^{mp}^{mq}^{mr}^{ms}^{mt}^{mu}^{mv}^{mw}^{mx}^{my}^{mz}^{na}^{nb}^{nc}nd^{ne}^{nf}^{ng}^{nh}ⁿⁱ^{nj}^{nk}^{nl}^{nm}ⁿⁿ^{no}^{np}^{nq}^{nr}^{ns}^{nt}^{nu}^{nv}^{nw}^{nx}^{ny}^{nz}^{oa}^{ob}^{oc}^{od}^{oe}^{of}^{og}^{oh}^{oi}^{oj}^{ok}^{ol}^{om}^{on}^{oo}^{op}^{oq}^{or}^{os}^{ot}^{ou}^{ov}^{ow}^{ox}^{oy}^{oz}^{pa}^{pb}^{pc}^{pd}^{pe}^{pf}^{pg}^{ph}^{pi}^{pj}^{pk}^{pl}^{pm}^{pn}^{po}^{pp}^{pq}^{pr}^{ps}^{pt}^{pu}^{pv}^{pw}^{px}^{py}^{pz}^{qa}^{qb}^{qc}^{qd}^{qe}^{qf}^{qg}^{qh}^{qi}^{qj}^{qk}^{ql}^{qm}^{qn}^{qo}^{qp}^{qq}^{qr}^{qs}^{qt}^{qu}^{qv}^{qw}^{qx}^{qy}^{qz}^{ra}^{rb}^{rc}rd^{re}^{rf}^{rg}^{rh}^{ri}^{rj}^{rk}^{rl}^{rm}^{rn}^{ro}^{rp}^{rq}^{rr}^{rs}^{rt}^{ru}^{rv}^{rw}^{rx}^{ry}^{rz}^{sa}^{sb}^{sc}^{sd}^{se}^{sf}^{sg}^{sh}^{si}^{sj}^{sk}^{sl}sm^{sn}^{so}^{sp}^{sq}^{sr}^{ss}st^{su}^{sv}^{sw}^{sx}^{sy}^{sz}^{ta}^{tb}^{tc}^{td}^{te}^{tf}^{tg}th^{ti}^{tj}^{tk}^{tl}tm^{tn}^{to}^{tp}^{tr}^{ts}^{tt}^{tu}^{tv}^{tw}^{tx}^{ty}^{tz}^{ua}^{ub}^{uc}^{ud}^{ue}^{uf}^{ug}^{uh}^{ui}^{uj}^{uk}^{ul}^{um}^{un}^{uo}^{up}^{uq}^{ur}^{us}^{ut}^{uu}^{uv}^{uw}^{ux}^{uy}^{uz}^{va}^{vb}^{vc}^{vd}^{ve}^{vf}^{vg}^{vh}^{vi}^{vj}^{vk}^{vl}^{vm}^{vn}^{vo}^{vp}^{vq}^{vr}^{vs}^{vt}^{vu}^{vv}^{vw}^{vx}^{vy}^{vz}^{wa}^{wb}^{wc}^{wd}^{we}^{wf}^{wg}^{wh}^{wi}^{wj}^{wk}^{wl}^{wm}^{wn}^{wo}^{wp}^{wq}^{wr}^{ws}^{wt}^{wu}^{wv}^{ww}^{wx}^{wy}^{wz}^{xa}^{xb}^{xc}^{xd}^{xe}^{xf}^{yg}^{yh}^{yi}^{yj}^{yk}^{yl}^{ym}^{yn}^{yo}^{yp}^{yq}^{yr}^{ys}^{yt}^{yu}^{yv}^{yw}^{yz}^{za}^{zb}^{zc}^{zd}^{ze}^{zf}^{zg}^{zh}^{zi}^{zj}^{zk}^{zl}^{zm}^{zn}^{zo}^{zp}^{zq}^{zr}^{zs}^{zt}^{zu}^{zv}^{zw}^{zx}^{zy}^{zz}

24 Grace be with all ^{cc}them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

^{cd}Written from Rome unto the Ephesians by Tych-icus.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO THE

PHILIPPIANS

CHAPTER 1

PAUL and ^{da}Ti-mōth-ē-ūs, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at ^{db}Phi-lip-pi, with the ^{dc}bishops and ^{dd}deacons:

2 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 ^{de}I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 ^{df}For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

6 ^{dg}Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you ^{dh}will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in ^{di}my bonds, and in ^{dj}the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace.

8 For ^{dk}God is my record, ^{dl}how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that ^{dm}your love may abound yet more and more ^{dn}in knowledge and in all judgment;

10 That ye may ^{do}approve things that are excellent; ^{dp}that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ;

11 Being ^{dq}milled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

13 So that my bonds in Christ ^{dr}are manifest ^{ds}in all the ^{dt}palace, and in all other places;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will:

16 The one preach Christ of ^{2c} contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the ^cdefence of the gospel.

18 What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation ^athrough your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, 20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, ¹that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all ^bboldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, ^bwhether it be by life, or by death.

21 For ^ato me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not.

23 For I am in a strait between two, having a desire ^ato depart, and ^ato be with Christ; which is far better:

24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

25 And having this confidence, ^bI know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith;

26 That ^ayour rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again.

27 Only ^alet your conversation ^bbe as it ^bbecometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye ^astand fast in ^cone spirit, with one mind ^bstriving together for the faith of the gospel;

28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them

^aan evident token of perdition; but to you of salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also ^bto suffer for his sake;

30 Having the same ^aconflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAPTER 2

IF there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any ^abowels and mercies,

2 Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be ^alike-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

3 Let nothing be done through ^astrife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind ^alet each esteem other better than themselves.

4 ^aLook not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 ^aLet this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

6 ^aWho, being in the form of God, ^bthought it not robbery to be equal with God:

7 But ^amade himself of no reputation, and ^atook upon him the form of a servant, and ^awas made in the likeness of men:

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he ^ahumbled himself, and became obedient ^aunto death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore God also hath ^ahighly exalted him, and ^agiven him a name which is above every name:

10 That at the name of Jesus ^aevery knee should bow, of ^athings in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

11 And that every tongue ^ashould confess that ^aJesus Christ is Lord; to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation ^awith fear and trembling.

13 For ^ait is God which worketh in

The way of salvation

you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things without murmurings and disputings:

15 That ye may be ^ablameless and ^aharmless, the ^asons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a ^acrooked and perverse nation, among whom ^aye shine as lights in the world;

16 Holding forth ^athe word of life; ^athat I may rejoice in ^athe day of Christ, that I have not ^arun in vain, neither laboured in vain.

17 Yea, and ^aif I be ^aoffered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all.

18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.

19 But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send ^aTi-mothee-^aus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I have no man ^alikeminded, who will naturally care for your state.

21 For ^aall seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.

22 But ye know the proof of him, that ^aas a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

24 But ^aI trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you ^aEp-aph-ro-di-tus, my brother, and companion in labour, and ^afellow-soldier, but ^ayour messenger, and he that ministered to my wants.

26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 ^aReceive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and ^ahold such in reputation:

30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, ^anot regarding his life, ^bto supply your lack of service unto me.

CHAPTER 3

FINALLY, my brethren, ^arejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 Beware of ^adogs, beware of evil workers, beware of ^athe concision.

3 For ^awe are the circumcision, which ^aworship God in the spirit, and ^arejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. ^aIf any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

5 Circumcised ^athe eighth day, of the ^astock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, ^aa Pharisee;

6 Concerning zeal, ^apersecuting the church; ^atouching the righteousness which is in the law, ^ablameless.

7 But ^awhat things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of ^athe knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,

9 And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, ^awhich is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, ^athe righteousness which is of God by faith:

10 ^aThat I may know him, and ^athe power of his resurrection, and ^athe fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

11 If by any means I might attain unto ^athe resurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had already attained, either were ^aalready perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, ^aforgetting those things which reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be ^athings in earth, or things in heaven.

21 And ^ayou, that were sometime ^aalienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled

22 ^aIn the body ^aof his flesh through death, to present you ^aholy and unblameable and unreplicable in his sight:

23 If ye continue in ^athe faith ^agrounded and settled, and be not moved away from ^athe hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was ^apreached to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am ^amade a minister;

24 Who now ^arejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh ^afor his body's sake, which is the church:

25 Whereof I am made a minister, according to the ^adispensation of God which is given to me for you, to fulfil the word of God;

26 Even the ^amystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints:

27 To whom God would make known what is ^athe riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is ^aChrist in you, ^athe hope of glory:

28 Whom we preach, ^awarning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that ^awe may present every man ^aperfect in Christ Jesus: 29 Whereunto I also ^alabour, ^astriving ^aaccording to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

CHAPTER 2

FOR I would that ye knew ^awhat great conflict I have for you, and for them at ^aLa-ód-i-cę-a, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;

2 That ^atheir hearts might be comforted, ^abeing knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledge of ^athe mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ; 3 ^aIn whom are hid all the treasures of ^awisdom and knowledge.

4 And this I say, ^alest any man should ^abeguile you with enticing words.

5 For ^athough I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding ^ayour order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 ^aAs ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him:

7 ^aRooted and ^abuilt up in him, and established in ^athe faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein ^awith thanksgiving.

8 Beware ^alest any man spoil you through ^aphilosophy and vain deceit, after ^athe tradition of men, after ^arudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

9 For ^ain him dwelleth all the fullness of the ^aGodhead bodily.

10 And ^aye are complete in him, which is ^athe head of all ^aprincipality and power:

11 In whom also ^aye are circumcised with the ^acircumcision made without hands, in ^aputting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ:

12 Buried with him ^ain baptism, wherein also ^aye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, ^awho hath raised him from the dead.

13 And you, ^abeing dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, ^ahaving forgiven you all trespasses; 14 Blotting out ^athe handwriting of ^aordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;

15 And ^ahaving spoiled ^aprincipality and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

16 ^aLet no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an ^aholiday, or of the ^anew moon, or of the sabbath days:

17 Which are ^aa shadow of things to come; but ^athe body is of Christ.

18 Let no man beguile you of ^ayour ^areward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, ^aintruding in to those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind,

19 And not holding ^athe Head, ^afrom which all ^athe body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.

20 Wherefore ^aif ye be dead with Christ from the ^arudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances, 21 (Touch not; taste not; handle not; 22 ^aWhich all are to perish with the using;) after ^athe ^acommandments and doctrines of men?

23 Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; ^anot in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

CHAPTER 3

IF ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, ^awhere Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

2 Set your affection on things above, ^anot on things on the earth.

3 For ^aye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 When Christ, ^awho is our life, shall appear, ^athen shall ye also appear with him in glory.

5 ^aMortify therefore ^ayour members which are upon the earth; ^afornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry:

6 For which things ^asake the ^awrath of God cometh on the ^achildren of disobedience:

7 ^aIn which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them.

8 But now ye also put off ^aall these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication ^aout of your mouth.

9 ^aLie not one to another, seeing that ^aye have put off the old man with his deeds;

10 And ^ahave put on the new man, ^awhich is renewed ^ain knowledge ^aafter the image of him that created him:

11 ^aWhere there is neither Greek nor Jew, ^acircumcision nor uncircumcision, ^aBarbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is ^aall, and in all.

12 Put on therefore, as the ^aelect of God, holy and beloved, ^abowels of mercies, ^akindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering;

13 ^aForbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, ^aso also do ye.

14 And above all these things ^aput on charity, which is ^athe bond of perfectness.

15 And let the ^apeace of ^aGod rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called ^ain one body; and ^abe ye thankful.

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in ^apsalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 And ^awhatsoever ye do in word or deed; do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, ^agiving thanks to God and the Father by him.

18 ^aWives, ^asubmit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.

19 Husbands, ^alove your wives, and be not bitter against them.

20 Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord.

21 Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 ^aServants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God:

23 And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men;

24 Knowing that of the Lord ^aye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for 'ye serve the Lord Christ.

25 But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

CHAPTER 4

MASTERS, give unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

2 Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving;

3 Withal praying also for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds:

4 That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.

5 Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time.

6 Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

7 All my state shall I testify to you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellow-servant in the Lord:

8 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts;

9 With 'O-nés-i-mūs, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known unto all things which are done here.

Paul's remembrance in prayer

10 'Är-is-tär-çhūs my fellow-prisoner saluteth you, and 'Marcus, sister's son to 'Barnabas, (touching whom ye received commandments: if he come unto you, receive him.)

11 And Jesus, which is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These only are my fellow-workers unto the kingdom of God, which have been a comfort unto me.

12 'Ep-ä-phrās, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God.

13 For I bear him record, that he hath a great zeal for you, and them that are in 'Lä-öd-i-çĕ-ā, and stand in Hi-ēr-ä-pō-lis.

14 'Luke, the beloved physician, and 'Demas, greet you.

15 Salute the brethren which are in 'Lä-öd-i-çĕ-ā, and Nymphas, and the church which is in his house.

16 And when 'this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the 'Lä-öd-i-çĕ-āns; and that ye likewise read the epistle from Laodicea.

17 And say to 'Är-çip-pūs, Take heed to 'the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it.

18 The salutation by the hand of me Paul. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

Written from Rome to the Colossians by Tych'i-cūs and O-nés-i-mūs.

The manner of Paul's preaching in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; as ye know 'what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And 'ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost:

7 So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in 'Macedonia and A-çhā-lā.

8 For from you sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and A-çhā-lā, but also in every place: your faith to God-ward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing.

9 For they themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how 'ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God;

10 And 'to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come.

CHAPTER 2

FOR yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at 'Phi-lip-pi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention.

3 For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:

4 But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts.

5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak of covetousness; 'God is witness:

6 Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.

7 But we were gentle among you,

I THESSALONIANS 2

even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for 'labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children, 12 That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers of 'the churches of God which in Judea are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews:

15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men:

16 Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins away: for 'the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us.

19 For what is our hope, or joy, or

CHAPTER 1

PAUL, and 'Sil-vā-nūs, and 'Ti-mō-thē-ūs, unto the church of the 'Thessalonians which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

3 Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father;

4 Knowing, brethren beloved, your election of God.

5 For our gospel came not unto you crowd of rejoicing? ^aAre not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ ^bat his coming?

20 For ye are our glory and joy.

CHAPTER 3

WHEREFORE when we could no longer forbear, we thought, it good ^ato be left at Athens alone;

2 And sent ^aTi-mothé-us, our brother, and minister of God, and ^bour fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:

3 That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed ^athereunto.

4 For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

5 For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, ^alest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and ^bour labour be in vain.

6 But now ^awhen Ti-mothé-us came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of ^byour faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, ^cas we also to see you:

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith:

8 For now we live, if ye ^astand fast in the Lord.

9 For ^awhat thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God;

10 Night and day ^apraying exceedingly that we might ^bsee your face, and ^cmight perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord ^amake you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you:

13 To the end he may stablish your hearts ^aunblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, ^aat the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.

CHAPTER 4

FURTHERMORE then we beseech you by the Lord Jesus, that ye have ^areceived of us ^bhow ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is the will of God, even your ^a'sanctification,' that ye should abstain from fornication:

4 That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour;

5 ^a'Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles ^b'which know not God:

6 That no man go beyond and ^a'defraud his brother in any matter: because that ^b'the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.

7 ^a'For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness.

8 ^a'He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, ^b'who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love ^a'ye need not that I write unto you: ^b'for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another.

10 And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more;

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

12 That ye may ^a'walk honestly toward ^b'them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them ^a'which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others ^b'which have no hope.

14 For if we believe that Jesus died and ^a'rose again, ^b'even so they also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you ^a'by the word of the Lord, that ^b'we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16 For ^a'the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the ^b'archangel, and with ^c'the trump of God: and ^d'the dead in Christ shall rise first:

17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air; and ^a'so shall we ever be with the Lord.

18 Whereof ^a'comfort one another with these words.

CHAPTER 5

BUT of the ^a'times and the seasons, brethren, ^b'ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For yourselves know perfectly that ^a'the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then ^a'sudden destruction cometh upon them, ^b'as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, such that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all of the ^a'children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

6 Therefore let us not sleep, ^a'as do others; but let us ^b'watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleep sleep in the night; and ^a'they that be drunken are drunken in the night.

8 But let us, who are of the day, ^a'be sober, ^b'putting on the ^c'breastplate of faith and love; and for an ^d'helmet, ^e'the ^f'hope of salvation.

9 For God ^a'hath not appointed us to wrath, but ^b'to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, 10 ^a'Who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

11 Therefore ^a'comfort yourselves together, and ^b'edify one another, even as also ye do.

12 And we beseech you, brethren, ^a'to know them which labour among you, and ^b'are over you in the Lord, and admonish you;

13 And to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. And ^a'be at peace among yourselves.

14 Now we exhort you, brethren, ^a'warn ^b'them that are unruly, comfort the feebleminded, ^c'support the weak, ^d'be patient toward all men.

15 ^a'See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever ^b'follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men.

16 ^a'Rejoice evermore.

17 ^a'Pray without ceasing.

18 ^a'In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.

19 ^a'Quench not the Spirit.

20 ^a'Despise not prophesings,

21 ^a'Prove all things; ^b'hold fast that which is good.

22 ^a'Abstain from all ^b'appearance of evil.

23 And ^a'the very God of peace ^b'sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved ^c'blameless ^d'unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

24 ^a'Faithful is he that ^b'calleth you, who also ^c'will do it.

25 Brethren, ^a'pray for us.

26 ^a'Greet all the brethren with an holy kiss.

27 I charge you by the Lord that ^a'this epistle be read unto all the holy brethren.

28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS

CHAPTER 1

PAUL, and ^aSil-vā-nūs, and ^bTi-mōth²-ūs, unto the church of the ^cThessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound ^ato thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the ^bcharity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth;

4 So that ^awe ourselves glory in you ^bin the churches of God for ^cyour patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure;

5 Which is a ^amanifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be ^bcounted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer:

6 Seeing ^ait is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;

7 And to you who are troubled rest with us, ^awhen the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven ^bwith his mighty angels,

8 ^aIn flaming fire taking vengeance on them ^bthat know not God, and ^cthat obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:

9 ^aWho shall be punished with everlasting destruction ^bfrom the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;

10 When he shall come ^ato be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

11 Wherefore also ^awe pray always for you, that our God would ^bcount you worthy of ^cthis calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power:

12 That ^athe name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER 2

NOW we beseech you, brethren, ^aby the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our ^bgathering together unto him,

2 That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither ^aby spirit, nor ^bby word, nor ^cby letter as for us, as that the day ^dof Christ ^eis at hand.

3 ^aLet no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come ^ba falling away first, and ^cthat man of sin be revealed, ^dthe son of perdition;

4 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, so that he is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, ^ashowing himself that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For the ^amystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume ^awith the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy ^bwith the ^cbrightness of his coming:

9 Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan ^awith all power and signs and lying wonders,

10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in ^athem that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

Paul's request to God

11 And for this cause ^aGod shall send them ^bstrong delusion, that they should believe a lie:

12 That they all might be ^adammned ^bwho believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But we are bound ^ato give thanks always to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God ^bhath from the beginning chosen you ^cto salvation through ^dsanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth.

14 Whereunto he ^acalled you by our gospel, ^bto the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, ^astand fast, and ^bhold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether ^cby word, or ^dour epistle.

16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, ^awhich hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good ^bhope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, and ^aestablish you in every good word and work.

CHAPTER 3

FINALLY, brethren, ^apray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you:

2 And that ^awe may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not ^bfaith.

3 But ^athe Lord is faithful, who shall ^bestablish you, and ^ckeep you from evil.

4 And ^awe have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.

5 And do the Lord direct your hearts into ^athe love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

II THESSALONIANS 3

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye ^awithdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after ^bthe tradition which he received of us.

7 For yourselves know ^ahow ye ought to follow us: for ^bwe behaved not ourselves disorderly among you;

8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but ^awrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:

9 ^aNot because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us.

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that ^aif any would not work, neither should he eat.

11 For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are ^abusy-bodies.

12 Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

13 But ye, brethren, ^abe not weary in well doing.

14 And if any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.

15 Yet count him not as an enemy, but ^aadmonish him as a brother.

16 Now ^athe Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all.

17 ^aThe salutation of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write.

18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

TO

TIMOTHY

CHAPTER 1

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of ^bGod our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is ^dour hope;

2 Unto ^fTimothy, ^gmy own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at ^eEphesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some ^ethat they teach no other doctrine,

4 Neither give heed to ^efables and endless ^egenealogies, which minister ^equestions, rather than godly ^eedifying which is in faith: so do,

5 Now the end of the commandment is ^echarity ^eout of a pure heart, and of ^ea good conscience, and of ^efaith unfeigned:

6 From which some having swerved have ^eturned aside unto ^evain jangling;

7 Desiring to be ^eteachers of the law; ^eunderstanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that ^ethe law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

9 Knowing this, that ^ethe law is not made for a righteous man, but for ^ethe lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for ^emurderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for ^eperjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to ^esound doctrine;

11 According to the ^eglorious gospel of ^ethe blessed God, ^ewhich was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for ^ethat he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry;

13 Who was before a blasphemer, and a ^epersecutor, and injurious: but I ^eobtained mercy, because I did it ^eignorantly in unbelief.

14 And ^ethe grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant ^ewith faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 ^eThis is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world ^eto save sinners; ^eof whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all long-suffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto ^ethe King eternal, ^eimmortal, ^einvisible, ^ethe only wise God, ^ebe honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to ^ethe prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest ^ewar a good warfare;

19 Holding faith, and ^ea good conscience; which ^esome having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck:

20 Of whom is ^eHymē-nē-ūs and ^eAlexander; whom I have ^edelivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

CHAPTER 2

I EXHORT therefore, ^ethat, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;

2 For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

Of bishops and deacons

3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of ^eGod our Saviour;

4 Who will ^ehave all men to be saved, and to come unto ^ethe knowledge of the truth.

5 For ^ethere is one God, and ^eone mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;

6 ^eWho gave himself a ransom for all, ^eto be testified ^ein due time, ^eok.

7 ^eWhereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, ^e(I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not); ^ea teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray every where, ^elifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 In like manner also, ^ethat women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10 But (which becometh women professing godliness) with ^egood works.

11 Let the woman learn in silence ^ewith all subjection.

12 But ^eI suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

13 ^eFor Adam was first formed, then Eve.

14 And Adam was not deceived, ^ebut the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

15 Notwithstanding she shall be saved ^ein childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

CHAPTER 3

^eTHIS is a true saying, If a man desire the office of ^ea bishop, he desireth a good work.

2 ^eA bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, ^egiven to hospitality, ^eapt to teach;

3 Not given to wine, no striker, ^enot greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, nor covetous;

4 One that ruleth well his own house, ^ehaving his children in subjection with all gravity;

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)

6 Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover he must have a good report of ^ethem which are without; lest he fall into reproach and ^ethe snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must ^ethe deacons be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;

9 Holding ^ethe mystery of the faith in ^ea pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 Even so must ^etheir wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ^e“ruling their children and their own houses well.

13 For they that have used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness ^ein the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in ^ethe house of God, which is the church of the ^eliving God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

16 And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: ^eGod was manifest ^ein the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, ^ereceived up into glory.

CHAPTER 4

NOW ^ethe Spirit speaketh expressly, that in ^ethe latter times some ^eshall depart from the faith, giving heed to ^eseducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;

2 ^eSpeaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience ^eseared with a hot iron;

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO

CHAPTER 1

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to ^athe promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,

2 To ^aTimothy, ^amy dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 ^aI thank God, ^awhom I serve ^afrom my forefathers ^awith pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;

4 ^aGreatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;

5 ^aWhen I call to remembrance ^athe unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lœcis, and ^athy mother Bē-ni-cē; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou ^astir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the ^aputting on of my hands.

7 For ^aGod hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of ^apower, and of love, and of a ^asound mind.

8 ^aBe not thou therefore ashamed of ^athe testimony of our Lord, nor of me his ^aprisoner: but ^abe thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God;

9 ^aWho hath saved us, and ^acalled us with an holy calling, ^anot according to our works, but according to ^ahis own purpose and grace, which

10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of ^aour Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath ^aabolished death, and hath brought life and ^aimmortality to light through the gospel:

11 ^aWhereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless ^aI am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that ^ahe is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against ^athat day.

13 ^aHold fast ^athe form of ^asound words, ^awhich thou hast heard of me, ^ain faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

14 ^aThat good thing which was committed unto thee ^akeep by the Holy Ghost ^awhich dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in ^aAsia be turned away from me; of whom are Phylæus and Hēr-mōgē-nēs.

16 The Lord give mercy unto ^athe house of Ō-nēs-iph-ō-rūs; for he oft ^arefreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain:

17 But, when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 ^aThe Lord grant unto him that he may find mercy of the Lord in that day: and in how many things he ministered unto me at ^aEphesus, thou knowest very well.

Exhortations to Timothy

CHAPTER 2

THOU therefore, ^amy son, ^abe strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And the things ^athat thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be ^aable to teach others also.

3 Thou therefore ^aendure hardness, as ^aa good soldier of Jesus Christ.

4 ^aNo man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And ^aif a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not ^acrowned, except he strive lawfully.

6 The husbandman that laboureth must be first ^apartaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was ^araised from the dead ^aaccording to my gospel:

9 ^aWherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even ^aunto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore ^aI endure all things for ^athe elect's sakes, that they may also ^aobtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

11 ^aIt is a faithful saying: For ^aif we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:

12 ^aIf we suffer, ^awe shall also reign with him: ^aif we deny him, he also will deny us:

13 ^aIf we believe not, yet ^ahe abideth faithful: ^ahe cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, ^acharging them before the Lord that they strive not ^aabout words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman ^athat needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing ^athe word of truth.

16 But ^ashun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.

17 And their word will eat as doth

5 ^a Having a form of godliness, but ^c denying the power thereof: ^d from such turn away.

6 For of this sort are ^a they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts,

7 Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 ^a Now as Ján-nēs and Jám-brēs withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of ^a corrupt minds, ^a reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as their's also was.

10 But thou hast fully known ^a my doctrine, ^a manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, ^a patience,

11 ^a Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at ^a An-ti-ōch, at ^a T-cō-ni-um, at ^a Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but ^a out of them all the Lord delivered me.

12 Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus ^a shall suffer persecution.

13 ^a But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

14 But ^a I continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them;

15 And that ^a from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

16 ^a All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

17 That the ^a man of God may be ^a perfect, thoroughly furnished ^a unto all good works.

CHAPTER 4

^a I CHARGE thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at ^a his appearing and ^a his kingdom;

2 Preach the word; be instant in Paul's solemn charge to Timothy season, out of season; reprove, ^a rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.

3 For ^a the time will come when they will not endure ^a sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

4 And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto ^a fables.

5 But ^a I watch thou in all things, ^a endure afflictions, do the work of an ^a evangelist, ^a make full proof of thy ministry.

6 For I am now ready ^a to be ^a offered, and the time of ^a my departure is at hand.

7 ^a I have fought a good fight, I have ^a finished my course, I have kept ^a the faith:

8 Henceforth there is ^a laid up for me ^a a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, ^a the righteous judge, shall give me at ^a that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

9 ^a Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me:

10 For ^a Demas hath forsaken me, ^a having loved this present ^a world, and is departed unto ^a Thēss-ā-lō-ni-cā; Crēs-cēns to Galatia, ^a Titus unto Dalmatia.

11 Only ^a Luke is with me. Take ^a Mark, and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry.

12 And ^a Tych-ī-cūs have I sent to ^a Ephesus.

13 The cloke that I left at ^a Trō-ās with Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the books, but especially the parchments.

14 ^a Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil: ^a the Lord reward him according to his works:

15 Of whom be thou ware also; for he hath greatly withstood our words.

16 At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God that it ^a may not be laid to their charge.

17 Notwithstanding ^a the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that

Of the qualifications of ministers

by me the preaching might be fully known, and ^a that all the Gentiles might hear: and ^a I was delivered ^a out of the mouth of the lion.

18 And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will ^a preserve me ^a unto his heavenly kingdom: ^a to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

19 Salute ^a Prisca and Aquila, and ^a the household of O-nēs-iph-6-rūs.

20 ^a Erastus abode at ^a Corinth: but

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS

CHAPTER 1

PAUL, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's ^a elect, and the ^a acknowledging of the truth ^a which is after godliness;

2 ^a In hope of eternal life, which God, ^a that cannot lie, ^a promised ^a before the world began;

3 But hath ^a in due times manifested his power through preaching, ^a which is committed unto me according to the commandment of ^a God our Saviour;

4 To ^a Titus, ^a mine own son after the ^a common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in ^a Crete, that thou shouldest ^a set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain ^a elders in every city, as I had appointed thee:

6 If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having ^a faithful children not accused of riot or unruly.

7 For ^a a bishop ^a must be blameless, as the ^a steward of God; not self-willed, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;

8 But ^a a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;

9 ^a Holding fast the faithful word as

^a Trōph-i-mūs have I left at ^a M-i-lē-tūm sick.

21 ^a Do thy diligence to come before winter. Eū-bū-lis greeteth thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren.

22 The Lord Jesus Christ be with thy spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

5 The second epistle unto Ti-mōth-ē-us, ordained the first bishop of the church of the Ephesians, was written from Rome, when Paul was brought before Nero the second time.

he hath been taught, that he may be able ^a by ^a sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

10 For there are many unruly and ^a vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the ^a circumcision:

11 Whose mouths must be stopped, who ^a subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

12 ^a One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The ^a P-ec-tricians are always liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witness is true. Wherefore ^a rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in ^a the faith;

14 Not giving heed to Jewish ^a fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the ^a truth.

15 ^a Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and ^a unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

16 They profess that they know God; but in works they ^a deny him, being ^a abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work ^a reprobate.

CHAPTER 2

BUT speak thou the things which ^a become ^a sound doctrine:

2 That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in ^a patience.

3 The "aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

4 That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 To be discreet, chaste, "keepers at home, good, "obedient to their own husbands, "that the word of God be not blasphemed.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be sober minded.

7 In all things "shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity,

8 Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; "that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

9 Exhort "servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not answering again;

10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; "that they may adorn the doctrine of "God our Saviour in all things.

11 For "the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared "to all men,

12 Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, "we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present "world;

13 Looking for that blessed "hope, and the glorious "appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;

14 "Who gave himself for us, that he might "redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a "peculiar people, "zealous of good works.

15 These things speak, and exhort, and "rebuke with all authority. "Let no man despise thee.

CHAPTER 3

PUT them in mind to be "subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, "to be ready to every good work,

Of obstinate hereticks

2 "To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but "gentle, "shewing all meekness unto all men.

3 For "we ourselves also "were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But after that "the kindness and love of "God our Saviour toward man appeared,

5 "Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by "the "washing of "regeneration, and "renewing of the Holy Ghost;

6 "Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour;

7 That being "justified "by his grace, we should be made "heirs according to "the hope of eternal life.

8 This is a "faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.

9 But avoid "foolish questions, and "genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

10 A man that is "an heretic "after the first and second admonition reject;

11 Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.

12 When I shall send Ar-tê-mās unto thee, or "Tych-î-cūs, be diligent to come unto me to Ni-côp-ô-lis: for I have determined there to winter.

13 Bring Zenas the lawyer and P-â-pô-lôis on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.

14 And let our's also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, "that they be not unfruitful.

15 All that are with me salute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

¶ It was written to Titus, ordained the first bishop of the church of the Creitians, from Ni-côp-ô-lis of Macedonia.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON

PAUL, a "prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, unto Phi-lê-môn our dearly beloved, and fellowlabourer,

2 And to our beloved Apphia, and Ar-chip-pūs our "fellowsoldier, and to "the church in thy house:

3 Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 "I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

5 Hearing of "thy love and faith, which thou hast "toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints;

6 That the communication of thy faith may become effectual "by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus.

7 For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints are "refreshed by thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, though I might be much bold in Christ to enjoin thee that which is convenient, 9 Yet for love's sake I rather beseech thee, being such an one as Paul "the "aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my son "On-ê-î-mūs, "whom I have begotten "in my bonds:

11 Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me:

12 Whom I have sent again: "thou therefore receive him, that is, mine own bowels:

13 Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might have ministered unto me in the bonds of the gospel:

14 But without thy mind would I do nothing; that thy benefit should not be "as it were of necessity, but willingly.

15 For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldst receive him for ever;

16 "Not now as a servant, but above a servant, "a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 If thou count me therefore a "partner, receive him as myself.

18 If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that on mine account;

19 "I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides.

20 Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my bowels in the Lord.

21 "Having confidence in thy obedience I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say.

22 But withal prepare me also a lodging: for "I trust that "through your prayers I shall be given unto you.

23 There salute thee "Ep-â-phrās, my "fellowprisoner in Christ Jesus;

24 "Marcus, "Ar-is-târ-chūs, "Demas, "Lucas, my fellowlabourers.

25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE HEBREWS

CHAPTER 1

GOD, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers ^a by the prophets,

2 Hath in ^b these last days ^c spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed ^d heir of all things, ^e ^f ^g ^h ⁱ ^j ^k ^l ^m ⁿ ^o ^p ^q ^r ^s ^t ^u ^v ^w ^x ^y ^z ^{aa} ^{ab} ^{ac} ^{ad} ^{ae} ^{af} ^{ag} ^{ah} ^{ai} ^{aj} ^{ak} ^{al} ^{am} ^{an} ^{ao} ^{ap} ^{aq} ^{ar} ^{as} ^{at} ^{au} ^{av} ^{aw} ^{ax} ^{ay} ^{az} ^{ba} ^{bb} ^{bc} ^{bd} ^{be} ^{bf} ^{bg} ^{bh} ^{bi} ^{bj} ^{bk} ^{bl} ^{bm} ^{bn} ^{bo} ^{bp} ^{bq} ^{br} ^{bs} ^{bt} ^{bu} ^{bv} ^{bw} ^{bx} ^{by} ^{bz} ^{ca} ^{cb} ^{cc} ^{cd} ^{ce} ^{cf} ^{cg} ^{ch} ^{ci} ^{cj} ^{ck} ^{cl} ^{cm} ^{cn} ^{co} ^{cp} ^{cq} ^{cr} ^{cs} ^{ct} ^{cu} ^{cv} ^{cw} ^{cx} ^{cy} ^{cz} ^{da} ^{db} ^{dc} ^{dd} ^{de} ^{df} ^{dg} ^{dh} ^{di} ^{dj} ^{dk} ^{dl} ^{dm} ^{dn} ^{do} ^{dp} ^{dq} ^{dr} ^{ds} ^{dt} ^{du} ^{dv} ^{dw} ^{dx} ^{dy} ^{dz} ^{ea} ^{eb} ^{ec} ^{ed} ^{ee} ^{ef} ^{eg} ^{eh} ^{ei} ^{ej} ^{ek} ^{el} ^{em} ^{en} ^{eo} ^{ep} ^{eq} ^{er} ^{es} ^{et} ^{eu} ^{ev} ^{ew} ^{ex} ^{ey} ^{ez} ^{fa} ^{fb} ^{fc} ^{fd} ^{fe} ^{ff} ^{fg} ^{fh} ^{fi} ^{fj} ^{fk} ^{fl} ^{fm} ^{fn} ^{fo} ^{fp} ^{fq} ^{fr} ^{fs} ^{ft} ^{fu} ^{fv} ^{fw} ^{fx} ^{fy} ^{fz} ^{ga} ^{gb} ^{gc} ^{gd} ^{ge} ^{gf} ^{gg} ^{gh} ^{gi} ^{gj} ^{gk} ^{gl} ^{gm} ^{gn} ^{go} ^{gp} ^{gq} ^{gr} ^{gs} ^{gt} ^{gu} ^{gv} ^{gw} ^{gx} ^{gy} ^{gz} ^{ha} ^{hb} ^{hc} ^{hd} ^{he} ^{hf} ^{hg} ^{hh} ^{hi} ^{hj} ^{hk} ^{hl} ^{hm} ^{hn} ^{ho} ^{hp} ^{hq} ^{hr} ^{hs} ^{ht} ^{hu} ^{hv} ^{hw} ^{hx} ^{hy} ^{hz} ^{ia} ^{ib} ^{ic} ^{id} ^{ie} ^{if} ^{ig} ^{ih} ⁱⁱ ^{ij} ^{ik} ^{il} ^{im} ⁱⁿ ^{io} ^{ip} ^{iq} ^{ir} ^{is} ^{it} ^{iu} ^{iv} ^{iw} ^{ix} ^{iy} ^{iz} ^{ja} ^{jb} ^{jc} ^{jd} ^{je} ^{jf} ^{jj} ^{jk} ^{jl} ^{jm} ^{jn} ^{jo} ^{jp} ^{jq} ^{jr} ^{js} ^{jt} ^{ju} ^{jv} ^{jw} ^{jx} ^{ky} ^{kz} ^{la} ^{lb} ^{lc} ^{ld} ^{le} ^{lf} ^{lg} ^{lh} ^{li} ^{lj} ^{lk} ^{ll} ^{lm} ^{ln} ^{lo} ^{lp} ^{lq} ^{lr} ^{ls} ^{lt} ^{lu} ^{lv} ^{lw} ^{lx} ^{ly} ^{lz} ^{ma} ^{mb} ^{mc} ^{md} ^{me} ^{mf} ^{mg} ^{mh} ^{mi} ^{mj} ^{mk} ^{ml} ^{mn} ^{mo} ^{mp} ^{mq} ^{mr} ^{ms} ^{mt} ^{mu} ^{mv} ^{mw} ^{mx} ^{my} ^{mz} ^{na} ^{nb} ^{nc} nd ^{ne} ^{nf} ^{ng} ^{nh} ⁿⁱ ^{nj} ^{nk} ^{nl} ^{nm} ⁿⁿ ^{no} ^{np} ^{nq} ^{nr} ^{ns} ^{nt} ^{nu} ^{nv} ^{nw} ^{nx} ^{ny} ^{nz} ^{oa} ^{ob} ^{oc} ^{od} ^{oe} ^{of} ^{og} ^{oh} ^{oi} ^{oj} ^{ok} ^{ol} ^{om} ^{on} ^{oo} ^{op} ^{oq} ^{or} ^{os} ^{ot} ^{ou} ^{ov} ^{ow} ^{ox} ^{oy} ^{oz} ^{pa} ^{pb} ^{pc} ^{pd} ^{pe} ^{pf} ^{pg} ^{ph} ^{pi} ^{pj} ^{pk} ^{pl} ^{pm} ^{pn} ^{po} ^{pp} ^{pq} ^{pr} ^{ps} ^{pt} ^{pu} ^{pv} ^{pw} ^{px} ^{py} ^{pz} ^{qa} ^{qb} ^{qc} ^{qd} ^{qe} ^{qf} ^{qg} ^{qh} ^{qi} ^{qj} ^{qk} ^{ql} ^{qm} ^{qn} ^{qo} ^{qp} ^{qq} ^{qr} ^{qs} ^{qt} ^{qu} ^{qv} ^{qw} ^{qx} ^{qy} ^{qz} ^{ra} ^{rb} ^{rc} rd ^{re} ^{rf} ^{rg} ^{rh} ^{ri} ^{rj} ^{rk} ^{rl} ^{rm} ^{rn} ^{ro} ^{rp} ^{rq} ^{rr} ^{rs} ^{rt} ^{ru} ^{rv} ^{rw} ^{rx} ^{ry} ^{rz} ^{sa} ^{sb} ^{sc} ^{sd} ^{se} ^{sf} ^{sg} ^{sh} ^{si} ^{sj} ^{sk} ^{sl} sm ^{sn} ^{so} ^{sp} ^{sq} ^{sr} ^{ss} st ^{su} ^{sv} ^{sw} ^{sx} ^{sy} ^{sz} ^{ta} ^{tb} ^{tc} ^{td} ^{te} ^{tf} ^{tg} th ^{ti} ^{tj} ^{tk} ^{tl} tm ^{tn} ^{to} ^{tp} ^{tq} ^{tr} ^{ts} ^{tt} ^{tu} ^{tv} ^{tw} ^{tx} ^{ty} ^{tz} ^{ua} ^{ub} ^{uc} ^{ud} ^{ue} ^{uf} ^{ug} ^{uh} ^{ui} ^{uj} ^{uk} ^{ul} ^{um} ^{un} ^{uo} ^{up} ^{uq} ^{ur} ^{us} ^{ut} ^{uu} ^{uv} ^{uw} ^{ux} ^{uy} ^{uz} ^{va} ^{vb} ^{vc} ^{vd} ^{ve} ^{vf} ^{vg} ^{vh} ^{vi} ^{vj} ^{vk} ^{vl} ^{vm} ^{vn} ^{vo} ^{vp} ^{vq} ^{vr} ^{vs} ^{vt} ^{vu} ^{vv} ^{vw} ^{vx} ^{vy} ^{vz} ^{wa} ^{wb} ^{wc} ^{wd} ^{we} ^{wf} ^{wg} ^{wh} ^{wi} ^{wj} ^{wk} ^{wl} ^{wm} ^{wn} ^{wo} ^{wp} ^{wq} ^{wr} ^{ws} ^{wt} ^{wu} ^{wv} ^{ww} ^{wx} ^{wy} ^{wz} ^{xa} ^{xb} ^{xc} ^{xd} ^{xe} ^{xf} ^{fg} ^{xh} ^{xi} ^{xj} ^{xk} ^{xl} ^{xm} ^{xn} ^{xo} ^{xp} ^{xq} ^{xr} ^{xs} ^{xt} ^{xu} ^{xv} ^{xw} ^{xx} ^{xy} ^{xz} ^{ya} ^{yb} ^{yc} ^{yd} ^{ye} ^{yf} ^{yg} ^{yh} ^{yi} ^{yj} ^{yk} ^{yl} ^{ym} ^{yn} ^{yo} ^{yp} ^{yq} ^{yr} ^{ys} ^{yt} ^{yu} ^{yv} ^{yw} ^{yx} ^{yy} ^{yz} ^{za} ^{zb} ^{zc} ^{zd} ^{ze} ^{zf} ^{zg} ^{zh} ^{zi} ^{zj} ^{zk} ^{zl} ^{zm} ^{zn} ^{zo} ^{zp} ^{zq} ^{zr} ^{zs} ^{zt} ^{zu} ^{zv} ^{zw} ^{zx} ^{zy} ^{zz}

4 Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained ^a a more excellent name than they.

5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, ^b Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, ^c I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

6 And again, when he bringeth in ^d the firstbegotten into the world, he saith, ^e And let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And of the angels he saith, ^f Who maketh his angels ^g spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But unto the Son he saith, ^h Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And, ⁱ Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands:

11 They shall perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, ^a Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

14 Are they not all ^b ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall ^c be heirs of salvation?

CHAPTER 2

THEREFORE we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, ^a lest at any time we should let them slip.

2 For if ^b the word spoken by angels was stedfast, and ^c every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward;

3 ^d How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; ^e which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was ^f confirmed unto us by them that heard him;

4 God also bearing them witness, both ^g with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and ^h gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will?

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection ⁱ the world to come, whereof we speak.

6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, ^j What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownest him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:

8 Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For ^k in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now ^l we see not yet all things put under him.

Why Christ assumed human nature

9 But we see Jesus, ^a who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, ^b crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should ^c taste death for every man.

10 For it became him, ^d for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make ^e the captain of their salvation ^f perfect through sufferings.

11 For both ^g he that sanctifieth and ^h they who are sanctified ⁱ are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them ^j brethren, 12 Saying, ^k I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

13 And again, ^l I will put my trust in him. And again, ^m Behold I and the children which God hath given me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, ⁿ he also himself likewise took part of the same; that ^o through death he might ^p destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

16 For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but ^q he took on him the seed of Abraham.

17 Wherefore in all things he behaved himself ^r to be made like unto his brethren, ^s that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest ^t in things pertaining to God, ^u to make ^v reconciliation for the sins of the people.

18 For in that he himself hath suffered ^w being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAPTER 3

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly ^a calling, ^b consider the Apostle and ^c High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus; 2 Who was faithful to him that appointed him, ^d as also Moses was faithful in all his house.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.

4 For every house is builded by some man; but ^e he that built

2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: ^bbut the word preached did not profit them, ^cnot being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

3 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, ^cAs I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, ^cAnd God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again, ^aIf they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached ^centered not in because of unbelief:

7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, ^bTo day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if ³⁵Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore ^ca rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also ^ahath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

12 For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any ^ctwoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13 ^aNeither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have ^aa great high priest, ^bthat is passed into the heavens, Jesus the ^cSon of God, ^dlet us hold fast our profession.

15 For we have not an high priest ^cwhich cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points ^ctempted like as we are, yet ^cwithout sin.

16 Let us therefore ^ccome boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

CHAPTER 5

FOR ^cevery high priest taken from among men is ordained for men ^cin things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

2 ^aWho can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is ^ccompassed with infirmity.

3 And by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, ^cso also for himself, to offer for sins.

4 And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, ^aas was Aaron.

5 So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an ^chigh priest; but he that said unto him, ^cThou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place, ^cThou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

7 Who in the days of his flesh, ^awhen he had offered up prayers and supplications ^bwith strong crying and tears unto ^chim that was able to save him from death; and was heard in that he feared;

8 ^aThough he were a Son, yet ^blearned he obedience by the things which he suffered;

9 And ^cbeing made perfect, he became the ^dauthor of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;

10 Called of God an high priest ^aafter the order of Melchisedec.

11 Of whom we have ^amany things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first ^cprinciples of the ^coracles of God; and are become ^csuch as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are ^cof full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses ^cexercised ^cto discern both good and evil.

CHAPTER 6

THEREFORE leaving the ^cprinciples of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on ^cunto ^cperfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance ^cfrom dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 Of the doctrine of ^cbaptisms, and of ^claying on of hands, and of ^cresurrection of the dead, and of ^ceternal judgment.

3 And this will we do, ^cif God permit.

4 For ^cit is impossible for those who were once ^cenlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made ^cpartakers of the Holy Ghost,

5 And have ^ctasted the good word of God, and the powers of ^cthe world to come,

6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing ^cthey crucify to themselves the ^cSon of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh out upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God:

8 But ^cthat which beareth thorns and briers is ^crejected, and is nigh unto cursing; ^cwhose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and ^clabour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ^cministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of ^chope unto the end: 12 That ye be not slothful, but ^cfollowers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, ^che sware by himself, 14 Saying, ^cSurely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily swear by the greater; and ^can oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto ^cthe heirs of promise ^cthe immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath:

18 That by two immutable things, in which ^cit was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope ^cset before us:

19 Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that ^cwithin the veil;

20 Whither the forerunner is for us ^centered, even Jesus, made an ^chigh priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

CHAPTER 7

FOR ^cthis Melchisedec-ec, king of Salem, priest of the ^cmost high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;

2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace;

3 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the ^cSon of God; abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils. 5 And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment ^cto take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:

6 But he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and blessed ^ahim that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Mel-chi's-ed-ec met him.

11 If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Mel-chi's-ed-ec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that our Lord sprang ^bout of Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Mel-chi's-ed-ec there ariseth another priest, 16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

17 For he testifieth, "Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Mel-chi's-ed-ec."

18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

19 For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of ^aa better hope did; by the which ^awe draw nigh unto God.

20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest:

21 (For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, "The Lord swore and will not repent, Thou art

a priest for ever after the order of Mel-chi's-ed-ec.)

22 By so much was Jesus made a surety of ^aa better testament.

23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death:

24 But this man, because he continueth ever, ^ahath an unchangeable priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them ^ato the uttermost that come unto God by him, ^aseeing he ever liveth ^ato make intercession for them.

26 For such an ^ahigh priest became us, who is ^aholy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and ^amade higher than the heavens;

27 Who needeth not daily, ^aas those high priests, to offer up sacrifices, ^afirst for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this ^ahe did once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the law maketh men high priests which ^ahave infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is ^aconsecrated for evermore.

CHAPTER 8

NOW of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have ^asuch an high priest, ^awho is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;

2 A minister of the sanctuary, and of ^athe true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For ^aevery high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

5 Who serve unto the ^aexample and ^ashadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about ^ato make the tabernacle: for, ^aSee, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the ^amediator of ^aa better covenant, which was established upon better promises.

7 For ^aif that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, ^aBehold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now ^athat which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

CHAPTER 9

THEN verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine ^aservice, and a worldly sanctuary.

2 For there was a ^atabernacle made; the first, wherein was the ^acandlestick, and the ^atable, and the ^ashewbread; which is called the sanctuary.

3 And after the second ^aveil, the tabernacle which is called the ^aHoliest of all;

4 Which had the golden ^aaltar, and ^athe ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was ^athe golden pot that had ^amanna, and ^aAaron's rod that budded, ^aand the tables of the covenant;

5 And over it the ^acher-^au-bims of glory shadowing the ^amercyseat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, ^athe priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

7 But into the second went the ^ahigh priest ^aalone ^aonce every year, not without blood, which he ^aoffered for himself, and for the errors of the people:

8 ^aFor the Holy Ghost this signifying, that ^athe way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

9 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, ^athat could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience;

10 Which stood only in ^ameats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an ^ahigh priest of ^agood things to come, by a greater and ^amore perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;

12 Neither by ^athe blood of goats and calves, but ^aby his own blood he entered in ^aonce into the holy place, ^ahaving obtained eternal redemption for us.

13 For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ^aashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:

14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit ^aoffered himself ^awithout spot to God, ^apurge your conscience from ^adead works ^ato serve the living God?

15 And for this cause he is the ^amediator of the ^anew testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, ^awhich are called ^amight receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator.

with ^afear, ^bprepared an ark to the saving of his house; by which he condemned the world, and became ^cheir of the righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith Abraham, ^ewhen he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the ^kland of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with ^lIsaac and ^mJacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

10 For he looked for ^aa city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith also ^aSara herself received strength to ^bconceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged ^chim faithful who had promised.

12 Therefore sprang there even one, and ^bhim as good as dead, so many ^cas the stars of the sky in multitude, ^dand as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

13 These all died in faith, ^cnot having received the promises, but ^dhaving seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed ^ethat they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things declare plainly that ^bthey seek a country.

15 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.

16 But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God ^bis not ashamed ^cto be called their God: for he hath prepared for them ^da city.

17 By faith Abraham, ^bwhen he was tried, ^coffered up Isaac; and he that had received the promises offered up his only begotten son,

18 Of whom it was said, That ^cin Isaac shall thy seed be called:

19 ^aAccounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.

20 By faith ^bIsaac blessed Jacob and ^cEsau concerning things to come.

21 By faith ^bJacob, when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph; and ^cworshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.

22 By faith ^bJoseph, when he died, ^cmade mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith ^bMoses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment.

24 By faith Moses, ^bwhen he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;

25 Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; 26 Esteeming ^bthe reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto ^cthe recompence of the reward.

27 By faith he ^bforsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is ^binvisible.

28 Through faith ^bhe kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them.

29 By faith ^bthey passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were drowned.

30 By faith ^bthe walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

31 By faith the harlot ^bRahab perished not with them that believed not, when she ^bhad received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of ^bGedeon, and of ^bBarak, and of ^bSamson, and of ^bJephthah; and of ^bDavid also, and of ^bSamuel, and of the prophets:

33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, ^bstopped the mouths of lions,

34 ^bQuenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, ^bout of weakness were made strong, waged valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

35 ^bWomen received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain ^aa better resurrection:

36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment:

37 They were ^bstoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented; 38 (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

39 And ^bthese all, having obtained a good report through faith, ^creceived not the promise:

40 God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us ^bshould not be made perfect.

CHAPTER 12

WHEREFORE seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and ^blet us run with patience the race that is ^bset before us,

2 ^bLooking unto Jesus the ^aauthor and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him ^bendured the cross, despising the shame, and ^bis set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 For ^bconsider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied ^band faint in your minds.

4 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, ^bMy son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

6 For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 If ye endure ^bchastening, God dealth with you ^cas with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto ^bthe Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, ^bthat we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the ^bpeaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore ^blift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

13 And ^bmake straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but ^blet it rather be healed.

14 ^bFollow peace with all men, and ^bholiness, ^cwithout which no man shall see the Lord:

15 Looking diligently ^blest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any ^broot of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

16 Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as ^bEsau, ^cwho for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.

17 For ye know how that ^bafterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

18 For ye are not come ^bunto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

19 And ^bthe sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; ^cwhich voice they that heard intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:

20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And "if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:

21 And "so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)

22 But ye are come unto "mount Zion, and unto the "city of the "living God, the "heavenly Jerusalem, and to an "innumerable company of angels,

23 To the general assembly and church of the "firstborn, which are "written in heaven, and to "God the Judge of all, and to the "spirits of just men made perfect, 24 And to Jesus the "mediator of the 'new covenant, and to the blood of "sprinkling, that "speakech better things than that of "Abel.

25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For "if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, "much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven:

26 "Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, "Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.

27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth "the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

28 Wherefore we receiving "a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear:

29 For "our God is a consuming fire.

CHAPTER 13

LET "brotherly love continue.

1, 2 "Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby "some have entertained angels unawares.

3 "Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

4 "Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but "whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

5 Let your conversation be "without covetousness; and "be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, "I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

6 So that we may boldly say, "The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

7 Remember them "which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: "whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation.

8 Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

9 "Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; "not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

10 We have an altar, "whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle.

11 For the bodies of those beasts, "whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the "high priest for sin, are burned "without the camp.

12 Wherefore Jesus also, "that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered "without the gate.

13 Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing "his reproach.

14 For here have we no continuing city, but "we seek one to come.

15 By him therefore let us offer the "sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the "fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name.

16 But to do good and "to communicate forget not: for "with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

17 "Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for "they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, "that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.

18 "Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly.

We are to rejoice under the cross

19 But I beseech you the rather to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

20 Now "the God of peace, "that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, "that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of "the everlasting covenant, 21 "Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, "working in you that which is wellpleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; "to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JAMES

CHAPTER 1

"JAMES, a servant of God and of the "Lord Jesus Christ, to the "twelve tribes "which are "scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, "count it all joy when ye fall into "divers "temptations;

3 Knowing this, that the "trying of your faith worketh patience.

4 But "let patience have her perfect work, "that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

5 "If any of you lack wisdom, "let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

6 But let him ask in faith, "nothing wavering. For "he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord. 8 "A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.

9 Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted:

10 But "the rich, in that he is made low: because "as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11 For "the sun is no sooner risen with a burning "heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion

22 And I beseech you, brethren, suffer the word of exhortation: for I have written a letter unto you in few words.

23 Know ye that our brother "Timothy is set at liberty; with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you.

24 Salute all them that have the rule over you, and all the saints. They of "Italy salute you.

25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

"Written to the Hebrews from Italy by Timothy.

of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

12 "Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the "crown of life, "which the Lord hath promised "to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man:

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then "when lust hath conceived, it "bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 "Do not err, my beloved brethren.

17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is "from above, and cometh down from the "Father of lights, "with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

18 Of his own will "begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of "firstfruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be "swift to hear, "slow to speak, "slow to wrath:

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore "lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, ^c which is able to save your souls.

22 But be ye ^c doers of the word, and ^c not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face ^c in a glass:

24 For he beheldeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But whoso looketh into the perfect ^c law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and ^c brideth his own heart, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

27 Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, ^c "To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to ^c keep himself unpolluted from the world."

CHAPTER 2

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, ^c the Lord of glory, with ^c respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, ^c Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and ^c heirs of the kingdom ^c b which he hath promised to ^c them that love him?

6 But ^c ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy ^c name by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law according Doers of the word are blessed to the scripture, ^c "Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convicted of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, ^c he is guilty of all.

11 For he that said, ^c "Do not commit adultery, said also, ^c "Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the ^c law of liberty.

13 For ^c he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and ^c have not works? can faith save him?

15 ^c "If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith ^c by my works.

19 ^c "Thou believest that ^c there is one God; thou doest well: ^c the devils also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

21 Was not Abraham ^c our father justified by works, when he had ^c offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, ^c "Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called ^c the Friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 Likewise also was not ^c Rahab

Of governing the tongue

the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

CHAPTER 3

MY brethren, ^c be not many ^c masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.

2 For ^c in many things ^c we offend all. ^c If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, ^c we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about by a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, ^c how great a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 And ^c the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire ^c the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and ^c hath been tamed of mankind:

8 But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, ^c full of deadly poison.

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, ^c which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter?

12 ^c Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

13 Who is a wise man and ended with knowledge among you? ^c let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom.

14 But ^c if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15 This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, ^c sensual, devilish.

16 For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work.

17 But the wisdom that is ^c from above is first pure, then ^c peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.

18 And ^c the fruit of righteousness ^c is sown in peace of them that make peace.

CHAPTER 4

FROM whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts ^c that war in your members?

2 Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

3 Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.

4 ^c Ye adulterers and adulteresses, ^c know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? ^c whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the ^c enemy of God.

5 Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, ^c "The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth ^c to envy?

6 But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, ^c "God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. ^c Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 ^c Draw nigh to God, and ^c he will draw nigh to you. ^c Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and ^c purify your hearts, ye double minded.

9 ^c Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

10 ^c Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

11 ^aSpeak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and ^bjudgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

12 There is ^cone lawgiver, ^dwho is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?

13 Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and gain gain:

14 Whereas ^eye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even ^fa vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

15 For that ye ought to say, ^gIf the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.

16 But now ye rejoice in your boastings: ^hall such rejoicing is evil.

17 Therefore ⁱto him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

CHAPTER 5

^jGo now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are ^kmoth eaten.

3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be ^la witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for ^mthe last days.

4 Behold, ⁿthe hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, ^ocrieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of ^pthe Lord of sabaoth.

5 ^qYe have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in ^ra day of slaughter.

6 Ye have condemned and killed ^sthe just; and he doth not resist you.

7 ^tBe patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for

Of patience in adversity and prosperity

the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive ^uthe early and ^vlatter rain.

8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

9 Grudge not one against another, brethren, ^wlest ye be condemned: behold, ^xthe judge standeth before the door.

10 Take, my brethren, ^ythe prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

11 Behold, we count them happy ^zwhich endure. Ye have heard of ^{aa}the patience of Job, and have seen ^{ab}the end of ^{ac}the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

12 But above all things, my brethren, ^{ad}swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? ^{ae}let him pray. Is any merry? ^{af}let him sing psalms.

14 Is any sick among you? ^{ag}let him call for the ^{ah}elders of the church; and ^{ai}let them pray over him, ^{aj}anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and ^{ak}if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

16 ^{al}Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. ^{am}The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

17 ^{an}Eli'as was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: ^{ao}and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months.

18 And ^{ap}he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one ^{aq}convert him; 20 Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way, ^{ar}shall save a soul from death, and ^{as}shall hide a multitude of sins.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER

CHAPTER 1

PETER, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers ^ascattered throughout Pontus, ^bGalatia, ^cCappadocia, ^dAsia, and ^eBithynia, 2 ^fElect according to the ^gforeknowledge of God the Father, through ^hsanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and ⁱsprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace unto you, and ^jpeace, be multiplied.

3 ^kBlessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy ^lhath begotten us again unto ^ma lively hope by the ⁿresurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an ^oinheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and ^pthat fadeth not away, ^qreserved in heaven for you,

5 Who ^rare kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ^sready to be revealed in the last time.

6 Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through ^t manifold temptations:

7 That the ^utrial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and ^vglory at the ^wappearing of Jesus Christ:

8 ^xWhom having not seen, ^yye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:

9 Receiving ^zthe end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

10 Of which salvation ^{aa}the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you:

11 ^{ab}Searching what, or what manner of time the ^{ac}Spirit of Christ which was in them ^{ad}did signify, when it testified beforehand ^{ae}the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with ^{af}the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; ^{ag}which things the angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore ^{ah}gird up the loins of your mind, ^{ai}be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ;

14 ^{aj}As obedient children, ^{ak}not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance:

15 But ^{al}as he which hath called you ^{am}is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation;

16 Because it is written, ^{an}'Be ye holy; for I am holy.

17 And if ye call on the Father, ^{ao}who without respect of persons ^{ap}judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here ^{aq}in fear:

18 Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not ^{ar}redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers;

19 But with the precious blood of Christ, as of ^{as}a lamb without blemish and ^{at}without spot:

20 ^{au}Who verily was foreordained ^{av}before the foundation of the world, but ^{aw}was manifest in these ^{ax}last times for you,

21 Who by him ^{ay}do believe in God, that ^{az}raised him up from the dead, and ^{ba}gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 Seeing ye ^{bb}have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the the Gentiles, when we walked in "lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and 'abominable idolatries':

4 Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, 'speaking evil of you:
 5 Who shall give account to him that is 'ready to judge the quick and the dead.

6 For for this cause 'was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but 'live according to God in the spirit.

7 But 'the end of all things is at hand: 'be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.

8 And above all things 'have fervent charity among yourselves: 'for charity shall cover the multitude of sins.

9 'Use hospitality one to another without grudging.

10 'As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as 'good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

11 If any man speak, let him speak as the 'oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it 'as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, 'to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning the 'fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you:

13 But 'rejoice, inasmuch as ye are 'partakers of Christ's sufferings; and that, when 'his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

14 If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, 'happy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

15 But 'let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a 'busybody in other men's matters.

16 Yet if any man suffer as a 'Chris-

CHAPTER 5

THE 'elders which are among you
 I exhort, who am also an elder, and a 'witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the 'glory that shall be revealed:

2 'Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, 'not by constraint, but willingly: 'not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;

3 Neither 'as being lords over God's heritage, but being 'ensamples to the flock.

4 And when the 'chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a 'crown of glory 'that fadeth not away.

5 Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, 'all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for 'God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

6 'Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:

7 'Casting all your care upon him;
 for he careth for you.

8 Be sober, be 'vigilant; because 'your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, 'walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

9 Whom resist steadfast 'in the faith, knowing that 'the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

 hath called us unto his eternal glory

THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER

CHAPTER 1

SIMON Peter, 'a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained 'like precious faith with us through 'the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ:
 2 Grace and 'peace be multiplied unto you 'through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him 'that hath called us to glory and virtue:

4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding 'great and precious promises: that by these ye might be 'partakers of the divine nature, 'having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

5 And beside this, giving all diligence, 'add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge;

6 And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness;

7 And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity.

8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor 'unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 But he that lacketh these things hath forgotten that he was 'purged

10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make 'your calling and 'election sure: for if ye do these things, 'ye shall never fall:

11 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly 'into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore I will not be negligent 'to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in 'this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance;

14 Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, 'even as I know that our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.

15 Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed cunningly devised 'fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were 'eyewitnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him 'from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount.

19 'We have also a more sure 'word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto 'a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the star day arise in your hearts:

20 Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.

21 For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

CHAPTER 2

BUT there were false prophets also among the false teachers, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3 And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

4 For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment;

5 And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly;

6 And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly;

7 And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked:

8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds.)

9 The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished:

10 But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.

11 Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord.

12 But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;

13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day time.

14 Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they feast with you;

15 Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children:

15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet.

17 These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error.

19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For it had been better for them

The certainty of Christ's coming not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

CHAPTER 3

THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:

2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

3 Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts,

4 And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water:

6 Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:

7 But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, 12 Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?

13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

15 And account that the long-suffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you;

16 As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness.

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For 'this is the message, that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.

12 Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13 Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

14 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.

15 Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But who so hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?

18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.

19 And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him.

20 For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God.

22 And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 And 'this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.

24 And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

CHAPTER 4

BELOVED, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God:

3 And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of anti-christ, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.

4 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world.

5 They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love.

9 In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

13 Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

15 Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20 If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

21 And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

CHAPTER 5

WHOSOEVER believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous.

4 For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

12 He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

13 These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:

15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin unto death.

There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.

17 All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin unto death.

18 We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.

20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF JOHN

^aTHE elder unto the elect lady and her children, ^bwhom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all ^cthey that have known the truth;
2 For the truth's sake, which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever.

3 Grace be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 ^dI rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, ^ebut that which we had from the beginning, ^fthat we love one another.

6 And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN

THE elder unto the wellbeloved ^aGaius, ^bwhom I love in the truth.

2 Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

3 For ^cI rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth.

4 I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.

10 Wherefore, ^dif I come, I will

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JUDE

^aJUDE, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are ^bsanctified by God the Father, and ^cpreserved in Jesus Christ, and ^dcalled:

2 Mercy unto you, and ^epeace, and love, be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the ^fcommon salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly ^gcontend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 For ^hthere are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and ⁱdenying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 ^jI will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, ^khaving saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward ^ldestroyed them that believed not.

6 And the ^mangels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, ⁿhe hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.

7 Even as ^oSodom and Gó-mór-rhā, and the cities about them in like manner, ^pgiving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, 12 Dē-mā'trī-ūs hath good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, and we also bear record; and ^aye know that our record is true.

13 ^bI had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write unto thee:

14 But ^cI trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak face to face. ^dPeace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.

suffering the vengeance of ^eeternal fire.

8 Likewise also these filthy ^fdreamers defile the flesh, ^gdespise dominion, and ^hspeak evil of dignities.

9 ⁱYet ^jMichael the ^karchangel, when contending with the devil he ^ldisputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, ^m"The Lord rebuke thee."

10 ⁿBut these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of ^oCain, and ran greedily after the error of ^pBā-lām for reward, and ^qperished in the ginsaying of ^rCōr-ē.

12 ^sThese are ^tspots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: ^uclouds they are without water, ^vcarried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, ^wplucked up by the roots;

13 ^xRaging waves of the sea, ^yfoaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

14 And ^z"Enoch also," ^{aa}the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, ^{ab}"Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints,

15 To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons in admiration because of advantage.

17 But, beloved, I remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ;

18 How that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.

19 These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit.

20 But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost, 21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

22 And of some have compassion, making a difference:

23 And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.

24 Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy;

25 To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

THE REVELATION

OF ST. JOHN THE DIVINE

CHAPTER 1

THE Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, that he shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:

2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

3 Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

4 JOHN to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne;

5 And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

6 And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; that he be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

7 Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

8 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

9 John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, 11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, to the seven churches of Asia and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamons, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks;

13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire; and his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.

16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last:

18 I am he that liveth, and was dead; and behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death.

19 Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter;

20 The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches.

CHAPTER 2

UNTO the angel of the church of Ephesus write: These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;

2 I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:

3 And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

4 Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

7 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh I will give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

8 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write: These things saith the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive;

9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

10 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.

11 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Pergamons write: These things saith he which hath the sharp sword with two edges;

13 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas we was faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast them that hold the doctrine of ^a Ba-lām, who taught Balac to cast a stumbling-block before the children of Israel, ^a to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the ^a Nic-ō-lā-i-tānes, which thing I hate.

16 Repent; or else ^a I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against thee with the sword of my mouth.

17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh I will give to eat of ^a the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone ^a a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

18 And unto the angel of the church in ^a Thy-ā-ti-rā write; These things saith the Son of God, who hath his ^a eyes like unto a flame of ^a fire, and his feet are like fine brass;

19 ^a I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first.

20 Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee because thou sufferest that woman ^a Je-zē-bēl, which calleth herself ^a a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which ^a searcheth the reins and hearts: and ^a I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thy-ā-ti-rā, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; ^a I will put upon you none other burden.

What John was commanded to write

25 But that which ye have already ^a hold fast ^a till I come.

26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

27 And ^a he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.

28 And I will give him ^a the morning star.

29 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAPTER 3

AND unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the ^a seven Spirits of God, and the ^a seven stars; ^a I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and ^a art dead.

2 ^a Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, ^a I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not ^a defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me ^a in white: for they are worthy.

5 ^a He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the ^a book of life, but ^a I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 ^a He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith ^a he that is holy, ^a he that is true, he that hath the ^a key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth;

Laodicea is rebuked

8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an ^a open door, and no man can shut it; for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

9 Behold, I will make them of ^a the synagogue of Satan, ^a which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, ^a I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that ^a I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, ^a I also will keep thee from the hour of ^a temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try ^a them that dwell upon the earth.

11 Behold, ^a I come quickly: ^a hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take ^a thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh I will make ^a a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him ^a the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is ^a new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God; and I will write upon him ^a my new name.

13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

14 And unto the angel of the church of the ^a Lā-ōd-i-cē-āns write; These things saith the ^a Amen, the ^a faithful and true witness, ^a the beginning of the ^a creation of God;

15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

17 Because thou sayest, ^a I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked;

18 I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and ^a that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.

19 ^a As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

20 Behold, I stand at the door, ^a and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, ^a I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

21 To him that overcometh will ^a I grant to sit with me in my throne, ^a even as I also overcame, and ^a am set down with my Father in his throne.

22 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAPTER 4

AFTER this I looked, and, behold, ^a a door was ^a opened in heaven: and ^a the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, ^a Come up hither, and ^a I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

2 And immediately ^a I was in the spirit; and, behold, ^a a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.

3 And he that sat was to look upon ^a like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was ^a a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

4 And round about the throne were ^a four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed ^a in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded ^a lightnings and thunders and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the ^a seven Spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was ^a a sea of glass like unto ^a crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were ^a four beasts ^a full of eyes before and behind.

7 And the first beast was ^a like a lion, and the second beast like ^a a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like ^a a flying eagle.

8 And the four beasts had each of them ^a six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, ^asaying, ^aHoly, holy, holy, ^aLord God Almighty, ^awhich was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, ^awho liveth for ever and ever,

10 The four and twenty elders ^afall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

11 ^aThou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for ^athou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

The Lamb opens the Book of 7 Seals
CHAPTER 5

AND I saw in the right hand of ^ahim that sat on the throne a book ^awritten within and on the backside, ^asealed with seven seals.

2 And I saw ^aa strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

3 And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, ^athe Lion of ^athe tribe of Juda, ^athe Root of David, ^ahath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the ^afour beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood ^aa Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and ^aseven eyes, which are the ^aseven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders ^afell down before the Lamb, having every one of them ^aharp, and ^agolden vials full of odours, which are the ^aprayers of saints.

9 And they sung ^aa new song, saying, ^aThou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and ^ahast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of ^aevery kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;

10 And hast made us unto our God ^akings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ^aten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be ^aunto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

14 And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

CHAPTER 6 Seven seals

AND I saw when ^athe Lamb opened one of the ^aseals, and I heard, as it were ^athe noise of thunder, one of the ^afour beasts saying, Come and see.

2 And I saw, and behold ^aa white horse; and he that sat on him had ^aa bow; and ^aa crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse that was ^ared: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him ^aa great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo ^aa black horse; and he that sat on him had ^aa pair of balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and ^athree measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold ^aa pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and ^aHell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, ^ato kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under ^athe altar ^athe souls of them that were slain ^afor the word of God, and ^afor the testimony which they held:

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, ^aHow long, O Lord, ^aholy and ^atrue, dost thou not judge and ^aavenge our blood on ^athem that dwell on the earth?

11 And ^awhite robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, ^athat they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellow-servants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great ^aearthquake; and ^athe sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;

13 And ^athe stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as ^aa fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

14 And ^athe heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and ^aevery mountain and island were moved out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

16 ^aAnd said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of ^ahim that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17 For ^athe great day of his wrath is come; and ^awho shall be able to stand?

CHAPTER 7 Interlude

AND after these things I saw ^afour angels standing on ^athe four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending ^afrom the east, having ^athe seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, ^aHurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have ^asealed the servants of our God in their foreheads.

4 And I heard ^athe number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nephtaliim were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasseh were sealed twelve thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After this I beheld, and, lo, ^aa great multitude, which no man could number, ^aof all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the ^bLamb, clothed with ^cwhite robes, and palms in their hands;

10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, ^dSalvation to our God which ^esitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

11 And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the ^ffour beasts, and ^gfell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God,

12 Saying, Amen: ^h"Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen."

13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of ⁱgreat tribulation, and have ^jwashed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

15 Therefore are they before the throne of God; and ^kserve him day and night in his temple; and he that sitteth on the throne ^lshall dwell among them.

16 ^m"They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat."

17 For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne ⁿshall feed them, and shall lead them unto ^oliving fountains of waters; and ^pGod shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

CHAPTER 8

AND when he had opened ^qthe seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

2 And I saw the seven angels ^rwhich stood before God; and to them were given seven ^strumpets.

3 And another angel came and stood at the ^taltar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the ^uprayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.

5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and ^vcast it into the earth: and there were ^wvoices, and thunders, and lightnings, and an ^xearthquake.

6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7 The first angel sounded, and there followed ^y"hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up."

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were ^za great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood;

9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and ^{aa}there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the ^{ab}"fountains of waters";

11 And the name of the star is called ^{ac}"Wormwood"; and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of ^{ad}"the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise."

13 And I beheld, and heard an angel ^{ae}flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, ^{af}"Woe, woe, woe, to the ^{ag}inhabitants of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!"

the three woes

CHAPTER 9

AND the fifth angel sounded, and I saw ^{ah}a star fall from heaven, and he gave him ^{ai}the key of the ^{aj}"bottomless pit";

2 And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke ^{ak}locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 And it was commanded them that they ^{al}should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; ^{am}but only those men which have not the ^{an}seal of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those days shall ^{ao}men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And the ^{ap}"shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men."

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the ^{aq}teeth of lions.

9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the ^{ar}sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails; and their power was to hurt men five months.

11 And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is ^{as}"Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name ^{at}"A-polly-on."

12 ^{au}"One woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter."

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns ^{av}of the golden altar which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the ^{aw}four angels which are bound in ^{ax}the great river Euphrates.

15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

16 And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone.

18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet ^{ay}"repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship ^{az}"devils, and ^{ba}"idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:"

21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

CHAPTER 10

AND I saw ^{bb}another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and ^{bc}a rainbow was upon his head, and ^{bd}his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire:

2 And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,

3 And cried with a loud voice, ^aas when a lion roareth; and when he had cried, ^bseven thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, ^cSeal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth ^dlifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And swore by him that liveth for ever and ever, ^ewho created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be ^ftime no longer:

7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, ^gthe mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth ^hsweet as honey.

10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey; and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

CHAPTER 11

AND there was given me ^aa reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But ^bthe court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it

Two witnesses prophesy not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and ^athe holy city shall they tread under foot ^bforty and two months.

3 And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy ^ca thousand and two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

4 These are the ^dtwo olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.

5 And if any man will hurt them, ^efire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

6 These have power ^fto shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophesy: and have power over waters ^gto turn them to blood, and ^hto smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they shall have finished their testimony, ⁱthe beast that ascendeth out of ^jthe bottomless pit shall ^kmake war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.

9 And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

10 And ^lthey that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall ^msend gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwell on the earth.

11 And after ⁿthree days and an half the ^ospirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, ^pCome up hither. And ^qthey ascended up to heaven ^rin a cloud; and their enemies beheld them.

13 And the same hour was there a great ^searthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand:

The seventh trumpet sounded and the remnant were affrighted, and ^agave glory to the God of heaven.

14 ^bThe second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly.

15 And the ^cseventh angel sounded; and there were ^dgreat voices in heaven, saying, ^eThe kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of ^fhis Christ; and ^ghe shall reign for ever and ever.

16 And ^hthe four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, ⁱfell upon their faces, and worshipped God.

17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O ^jLord God Almighty, ^kwhich art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and ^lhast reigned.

18 And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and ^mthe time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou ⁿshouldst give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and ^othem that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldst destroy them which destroy the earth.

19 And ^pthe temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament: and ^qthere were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great ^rhail.

CHAPTER 12

AND there appeared ^aa great wonder in heaven; ^ba woman clothed ^cwith the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:

2 And ^dshe being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold ^ea great red dragon, having seven heads and ^ften horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.

4 And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and ^gthid cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, ^hfor to devour her child as soon as it was born.

5 And she brought forth a man child, ^awho was to rule all nations with a rod of iron; and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there ^ba thousand and two hundred and threescore days.

7 And there was war in heaven: ^cMichael and his angels ^dfought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,

8 And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 ^eAnd the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which ^fdeceiveth the whole world: he ^gwas cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, ^hNow is come salvation, and strength, and the ⁱkingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, ^jwhich accused them before our God day and night.

11 And they ^kovercame him by the blood of the ^lLamb, and by the word of their testimony; and ^mthey loved not their lives unto the death.

12 Therefore ⁿrejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea: for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he ^ohath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child.

14 And to the woman were given two wings of a great ^peagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for ^qa time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and

CHAPTER 13

AND ^aI stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw ^aa beast ^brise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ^cten crowns, and upon his heads ^cthe name of blasphemy.

2 And the beast which I saw was ^alike unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a ^abear, and his mouth as the mouth of a ^alion; and the dragon gave him his power, and ^ahis seat, and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and ^aall the world wondered after the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

5 And there was given unto him ^aa mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue ^aforty and two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given unto him ^ato make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

8 And ^aall that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in ^athe book of life of ^athe Lamb slain ^afrom the foundation of the world.

9 ^aIf any man have an ear, let him hear.

10 ^aHe that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: ^ahe that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. ^aHere is the patience and the faith of the saints.

11 And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And he ^adoeth great wonders, so that he ^amaketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

14 And ^adeceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.

15 And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast should speak, and cause that as many as would not ^aworship the image of the beast should be killed.

16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive ^aa mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or ^athe number of his name.

18 ^aHere is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.

CHAPTER 14

AND I looked, and, lo, ^aa Lamb stood on the ^amount Zion, and with him ^aa hundred forty and two thousand; ^ahaving his Father's name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, ^aas the voice of many waters, and ^aas the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their ^aharps:

An angel preacheth the gospel

3 And they sung as it were ^aa new song before the throne, and before ^athe four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, ^awhich were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the ^afirstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.

5 And ^ain their mouth was found no guile: for they are ^awithout fault before the throne of God.

6 And I saw another angel ^afly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto ^athem that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,

7 Saying with a loud voice, ^aFear God, and ^agive glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship ^ahim that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the ^afountains of waters.

8 And there followed another angel, saying, ^aBabylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, ^abecause she made all nations drink of ^athe wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, ^aIf any man ^aworship ^athe beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 ^aThe same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be ^atortured with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11 And ^athe smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

12 ^aHere is the patience of the saints: here are they ^athat keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

REVELATION 15

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, ^aBlessed are the dead ^awhich die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, ^athat they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat ^alike unto the Son of man, ^ahaving on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel came out of ^athe temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, ^aThrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from ^athe altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle unto the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great ^awinepress of the wrath of God.

20 And the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAPTER 15

AND ^aI saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, ^aseven angels having the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were ^aa sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that ^ahad gotten the victory over ^athe beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over ^athe number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the ^aharps of God.

3 And they sing ^a the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of ^b the Lamb, saying, ^c Great and marvellous are thy works, ^d Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou ^e King of saints.

4 ^f Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art ^g holy: for ^h all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and, behold, ⁱ the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

6 And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen; and having ^j their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of ^k the four beasts gave unto the seven angels ^l seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, ^m who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And the temple ⁿ was filled with smoke from the ^o glory of God, and from his power; and ^p no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

CHAPTER 16

AND I heard a great voice out of the ^q temple saying to the ^r seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of ^s the beast, and upon them which ^t worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and ^u it became as the blood of a dead man; and every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and ^v fountains of waters; and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art ^w righteous, O Lord, ^x which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus.

6 For ^y they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and ^z thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of ^a the altar say, Even so, ^b Lord God Almighty, ^c true and righteous are thy judgments.

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues; and they ^d repented not ^e to give him glory.

10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon ^f the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain.

11 And blasphemed ^g the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river ^h Euphrates; and the water thereof ⁱ was dried up, that the way of the kings of the ^j east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three unclean spirits like ^k frogs come out of the mouth of ^l the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the ^m false prophet.

14 For they are the spirits of devils, ⁿ working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, ^o to gather them to the battle of ^p that great day of God Almighty.

15 Behold, ^q I come as a thief. ^r Blessed is he that ^s watcheth, and keepeth his garments, ^t lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

16 And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue ^u 'Ar-mi-géd-don.

17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, ^v It is done.

18 And there were voices, and Babylon, the mother of abominations thunders, and ^w lightnings; and there was a great ^x earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.

19 And ^y the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell; and great ^z Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

20 And ^a every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

21 And there fell upon men a great ^b hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

CHAPTER 17

AND there came one of the ^c seven angels which had the ^d seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; ^e I will shew unto thee the judgment of ^f the great whore that sitteth upon ^g many waters:

2 With whom ^h the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and ⁱ the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with ^j the wine of her fornication.

3 So ^k he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon ^l a scarlet coloured ^m beast, full of ⁿ names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman was arrayed in ^o purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having ^p a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:

5 And upon her forehead was a name written, ^q 'MYSTERY,' ^r 'BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.'

6 And I saw the woman drunken with ^s the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and ^a they that dwell on the earth ^b shall wonder, whose names were not written in ^c the book of life ^d from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And ^e there is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

12 And the ^f ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have one mind, and ^g shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 These shall make war with ^h the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is ⁱ Lord of lords, and ^j King of kings: and they that are with him are ^k called, and chosen, and faithful.

15 And he saith unto me, ^l The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

CHAPTER 18

AND after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, "Babylon the great, is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, "Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double.

7 How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

11 And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for

CHAPTER 22

AND he shewed me a pure ^ariver of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the ^bLamb.

2 In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the ^ctree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

3 And there shall be ^dno more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and ^ehis servants shall serve him:

4 And ^fthey shall see his face; and ^ghis name shall be in their foreheads.

5 And there shall be ^hno night there; and they need no candle, ⁱneither light of the sun; for ^jthe Lord God giveth them light: and ^kthey shall reign for ever and ever.

6 And he said unto me, "These sayings are faithful and true; and the Lord God ^lof the holy prophets sent his angel ^mto shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

7 ⁿBehold, I come quickly: ^oblessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

8 And ^pI John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, ^qI fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, ^rSee thou do it not: for I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.

10 And he saith unto me, ^sSeal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for ^tthe time is at hand.

11 ^uHe that is unjust, let him be un-

12 And, behold, I come quickly; and ^amy reward is with me, ^bto give every man according as his work shall be.

13 ^cI am Alpha and ^dÖ-mög-ä, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

17 And ^lthe Spirit and ^mthe bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is ⁿathirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

18 For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, ^oIf any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:

19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of ^pthe book of life, and out of the ^qholy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

20 He which testifieth these things saith, ^rSurely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

THE CONCORDIA

BIBLE DICTIONARY

By

PREFACE

This concise Bible dictionary is designed to be used with the King James Version, the British Revised Version (readings often the same in the American Standard Version), and the Revised Standard Version. Cross references facilitate unified treatment of the readings of these versions. It may in a more limited way be used with independent translations. The listing of variants is also helpful for insights into meanings of concepts and names.

The number of entries was made as complete as feasible; hence, variants and material from the Apocrypha (frequently related to canonical material) are included. Articles, possessive pronouns, copulatives, etc., are often omitted in the abbreviated style.

The meaning of proper names is given after the pronunciation when such meaning has been established by scholars as certain or probable. In some instances a different meaning was urged by some scholars with almost equal plausibility.

The preparation of even a concise dictionary increases appreciation of the time devoted by scholars to the study and elucidation of the Sacred Scriptures. Lexicons, concordances, translations, commentaries, reference works, and articles in journals by American, British, German, French, and other European scholars were continually consulted. This applies also to such dictionaries as Wm. Smith, Dictionary of the Bible (Hurd and Houghton); J. D. Davis, A Dictionary of the Bible (Westminster); Miller-Miller, Harper's Bible Dictionary (Harper); M. F. Unger, Bible Dictionary (Moody); J. Hastings, A Dictionary of the Bible (Scribner's); J. Orr, The International Standard Bible Encyclopaedia (Howard-Severance), revised by Kyle (Eerdmans); F. Rienecker, Lexikon zur Bibel (Brockhaus); T. Schlatter, Calwer Bibellexikon (Calwer).

Several entries are revised summaries made by the author on the basis of material published by the late A. W. Klinck. This is indicated at the end of the article.

On the basis of a sample printing, colleagues at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, and Concordia Seminary, Springfield, gave the author helpful suggestions. Such suggestions were also received from professors at divinity schools, seminaries, and colleges in the United States and from executives, pastors, and teachers. Luther A. Weigle sent lists of comparative readings to the author.

The dictionary was prepared under the auspices of the Literature Board of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. Otto A. Dorn and Elmer E. Foelber gave the author suggestions regarding form and content.

Erich B. Allwardt critically read the entire manuscript, indicated necessary corrections and additions, suggested changes in form, and assisted in the collation of variants.

A

Anan (ā-nā-ār). See Ahar.

Aaron (ā-rūn, of uncertain meaning). Moses' spokesman and assistant (Ex 4:14-17; 7:1). 1st head of Hebrew priesthood. B in Egypt, son of Amram and Jochebed, both Levites (Ex 6:20); brother of Moses (Ex 6:20) and Miriam (Nm 26:59; 1 Ch 6:3); married Elisheba (daughter of Amminadab, who bore Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar & Phineas; Ex 6:23); d at 123 on Mt Hor; buried there (Nm 20:22-29).

Aaron was praised for his eloquence (Ex 4:14); regarded coleader with Moses (Ex 7:1). Helped Hur hold up Moses' hands during battle with Amalekites (Ex 17:12). When Moses tarried on Sinai, Aaron made golden calf (Ex 32). Aaron and Miriam taunted Moses because of his Cushite (KJ; Ethiopian) wife (Nm 12:1). Authority of Aaron vindicated through miracle of rod (Nm 17). Aaron and Moses doubted at Meribah (Nm 20:12).

Moses anointed Aaron and four sons to priesthood, higher order than Levites (Nm 3:1-3). As "holiest of men," Aaron and descendants received offerings from Israelites (Nm 18:8-14). God was his Portion, hence he received no inheritance in Canaan (Nm 18:20). Priestly adornments (breastplate [RSV; breastpiece], ephod, robe, coat, mitre [RSV; turban] etc.) made for Aaron (Ex 28; 39:1-31). Succeeded by Eleazar (Nm 20:28).

Aaronites (ā-rūn-ē). Priestly descendants of Aaron (KJ; 1 Ch 12:27; 27:37). Aaron's rod. Proved Aaron's authority by budding; placed before Ark of Testimony (Nm 17; see Heb 9:4).

sance with Father (Ch 1:19; 1 Jn 5:20); hence He has same attributes (Jn 5:31; 21:17), works (Mt 9:1-8; Jn 5:17, 21, 25; 1 K 15:20), honor (Jn 5:23).

Son of Man. Jesus' primary expression to emphasize His humanity especially in connection with His ministry (Lk 9:55; 19:10). Lower (Mt 8:20) and higher (Lk 4:21; Lk 22:48; Jn 3:14), resurrection (Mt 17:9; Mk 9:9), ascension (Jn 6:62), 2d coming and judgment (Mt 25:31). He is prophesied man (Ch 3:15; Is 7:14; Gl 4:1-7). New Man, New Adam (Ro 5:12-21; 1 Co 15:22; Ph 2:8-11; He brought in new humanity. Shared in flesh and blood as children do (Ro 9:5; Heb 2:14). Thus Christ is God and man in one person (Jn 1:14; 1 J 2:5; C 2:9).

Eternally Life. Conceived by Holy Ghost; born of virgin Mary (Jehohanan); circumcised; presented at temple; taught in Egypt; lived at Nazareth (Lk 2:39); visited Jerusalem (Lk 2:41-52; Lk 4:10-52); when about 30 yrs old, baptized by John (Mt 3:13-17; Mk 1:9-11; Lk 3:21-22; Jn 1:29-31; Mt 3:13-17); began public ministry. Major portion of ministry in Galilee with Capernaum as headquarters; also included Judea, Samaria, even distant regions as that of Tyre and Sidon. Jesus' life and kingdom of God, did good, performed miracles, was opposed by Jewish leaders (lawyers, scribes, Pharisees), and was crucified by Jewish leaders in Gethsemane; condemned by judges gathered by high priest; crucified by Pilate on Golgotha; buried in nearby garden; rose from dead on 3d day; appeared to disciples; ascended to heaven. Gospels present facts of Christ's life that fit their objectives (see Jn 20:30, 31).

Servant of God. Jesus is Servant of God (Mt 12:18; Acts 3:13, 26) because He did that which God willed (Mt 14:32-42; Jn 1:4-5; 4:34; 5:30; 6:38; 7:17; 8:29; 10:18; 12:49; 13:31; 14:31; 15:10; 16:32; 17:1; 18:11; 19:30; 20:17; 21:17; 22:1; 23:1; 24:1; 25:1; 26:1; 27:1; 28:1; 29:1; 30:1; 31:1; 32:1; 33:1; 34:1; 35:1; 36:1; 37:1; 38:1; 39:1; 40:1; 41:1; 42:1; 43:1; 44:1; 45:1; 46:1; 47:1; 48:1; 49:1; 50:1; 51:1; 52:1; 53:1; 54:1; 55:1; 56:1; 57:1; 58:1; 59:1; 60:1; 61:1; 62:1; 63:1; 64:1; 65:1; 66:1; 67:1; 68:1; 69:1; 70:1; 71:1; 72:1; 73:1; 74:1; 75:1; 76:1; 77:1; 78:1; 79:1; 80:1; 81:1; 82:1; 83:1; 84:1; 85:1; 86:1; 87:1; 88:1; 89:1; 90:1; 91:1; 92:1; 93:1; 94:1; 95:1; 96:1; 97:1; 98:1; 99:1; 100:1).

Savior. Jesus is promised Savior (Lk 2:11, 22-29; 19:10; 24:46; 26:31; 27:34; 28:18; 29:10; 30:10; 31:10; 32:10; 33:10; 34:10; 35:10; 36:10; 37:10; 38:10; 39:10; 40:10; 41:10; 42:10; 43:10; 44:10; 45:10; 46:10; 47:10; 48:10; 49:10; 50:10; 51:10; 52:10; 53:10; 54:10; 55:10; 56:10; 57:10; 58:10; 59:10; 60:10; 61:10; 62:10; 63:10; 64:10; 65:10; 66:10; 67:10; 68:10; 69:10; 70:10; 71:10; 72:10; 73:10; 74:10; 75:10; 76:10; 77:10; 78:10; 79:10; 80:10; 81:10; 82:10; 83:10; 84:10; 85:10; 86:10; 87:10; 88:10; 89:10; 90:10; 91:10; 92:10; 93:10; 94:10; 95:10; 96:10; 97:10; 98:10; 99:10; 100:10).

Teacher. Jesus is Teacher between God and man (Jn 3:19; 1 J 2:5; Heb 8:6; 9:15; 12:24) by bringing men to God as Prophet, Priest, King, and Savior (below).

Lamb of God. Jesus is Lamb of God in sense that He is the sacrifice for sin of world (Jn 1:29; 36; Acts 8:32; 1 J 2:5; 1 Pt 1:19; Heb 7:27; See Ex 12; Is 53:7).

Offices. Christ as Prophet announces kingdom of God; reveals to man God in His holiness, mercy, love, and performs signs of Kingdom; forgives sins; and through apostles and church proclaims Gospel (Gospels). Christ as Priest fulfilled all righteousness and atoned for all sin in place of mankind by His blood, life, death, and resurrection (Ro 4:25; 2 Co 5:10; Heb 7). Christ is King in sense that He rules and governs the world (Jn 18:33-38), namely, New Covenant (Jer 31:31-34; 32:40, 41). He is Son of David, through whom God had covenanted with Israel (2 Sm 7: 23:1-7). Jesus is King of kings and Lord of lords (Mt 28:18). See Lord (below).

States. To perform work of redemption, Christ, according to His humanity, did not use prerogatives He might rightfully claim (humiliation, Phil 2:6-8). Resumption of His kingdom and exaltation (Eph 4:8; Ph 2:9-11).

Lord. God made Jesus Lord (in sense that kurios translates JHVH (Lomn, Jehovah), Mk 1:3—is 40:3) by resurrection from dead (Acts 2:31-36; Ro 1:4; Eph 4: 5; Ph 2:9-11; 1 Ti 6:15; Rev 11:15).

Authority of Jesus-Lomn. The authority of God (Mt 28:18; 1 Co 8:4-6). Jesus' lordship is the authority of God (Eph 1:22-23; 2:6-7; 3:10; 4:10; 5:17; 6:15) and will be fully revealed at Parousia (Mt 25:31; 1 Co 15:25-28). He is Lord of individuals (Lk 10:22; 22:29; Acts 5:14; 11:7; 1 J 1:23; 2 Co 3:17; Eph 1:3), and believers (1 Cor 1:30; 2:10; 3:18; 4:6; 5:17; 6:15; 7:22; 8:9; 10:4; C 1:10). As Lomn, Jesus is Head of church, both supreme authority and as goal (Eph 1:22; 23; 4:15; 16; 5:23; 24; C 1:18; 2:10, 19).

Jethro (jê-thêr, eminence, abundance). 1. Judahite; son of Jerahmeel (1 Ch 2:32). 2. Judahite; son of Ezra (1 Ch 4:17). 3. See Jethro (1 Ch 4:17). 4. Gid'on (Jn 2:10; 9:18).

Judaea (jōō-dē, R. ōce, KJ: Judaea). Term used in Ez 3:3 (KJ) and 9:3 (RSV) for province to which tribes of Judah and Benjamin returned (usually called Judah, Neh 2:7). Province mentioned in 1 Esd 1:35, 39; 1 Mac 5:45; 7:10 (KJ). At time of Christ (Mt 2:1; Lk 1:5), division of three Galilee, Samaria, Judea regions into which Roman Province of Palestine was divided. About 55 mi long and wide, located E of Jordan and Dead Sea from Beersheba in S to line from Joppa to 10 mi N of Damascus. Ruled by Jews. Governors, leaders, and deliverers of Israelites between times of Joshua and Saul (Othniel, Ehud, Deborah, Barak, Gideon, Abimelech, Tola, Jair, Jephthah, Izabab, Ezer, Abdon, Samson, Eli (high priest), Samuel (prophet) functioned as judges. Their activity described in Book of Judges.

Judges, Book of. History of Israel from death of Joshua to time of Samuel. Chronology of Israel has presented difficulty since more than one judge may have ruled in different sectors at same time. Book covers period of 300-400 years. Outline: 1. Introduction (1:1 to 3:6). 2. Deeds of the Judges (3:7-16). 3. Founding of the Sanctuary at Dan (17, 18). 4. Outrage of the Benjaminites at Gibeah (19-21).

Judgment, Of. Occasionally administration of justice (2 Sm 15:4; 1 K 3); usually keeping people in right relation to covenant (Is 11: 61). God's judgments are salvation, victory, deliverance of covenant God (Dt 32:35; Jer 50:15; Jer 30:11). Judgment, however, is not on purely national line but based on relationship to Jehovah (Is 60:1; Is 6:12). Judgments preserve remnant (Is 6:12). Judgments are punishment (Is 60:1; Day of Jehovah, which centers in God's self-expression (Is 25; Zech 14). NT: Sometimes administration of justice (Jn 31; Acts 23:3); usually judgment of God and includes salvation of believers (Lk 18:1-8; 2 Th 1:5-10; Ro 2:13-16; 1 Co 11:29-32), culminates in Final Judgment (Mt 11:20-24; 25:31-46; Jn 16:11; 1 Th 4:13-18). Final judgment belongs to God (Mt 18:35; Ro 14:10) and administered by Christ (Mt 25:31-46). Angels (Mt 8:38), believers collaborate (1 Co 6: 2, 3). Judgment is salvation to believers, condemnation to unbelievers (Mt 25:31-46). Criterion of judgment is law (Mt 25); since law has been fulfilled by Christ, relationship to Him is decisive factor (Mt 10:32, 33; Ro 8:1-17; GJ 5:13-25).

Judgment Hall. See Proetorium.
Judith (jōd'ith, praised; Jewess). 1. Wife of Esau (Gen 26:34). 2. Oholibamah (KJ: Abolibamah, my tent is in high place) in Gen 36:2. 3. Heroine of Jdt. Jdt (Jōd'ith). See Judith.

Julia, Junias (jōl'ni-a, -as). Friend of Paul (Jephthah, Izabab, Ezer, Abdon, Samson, Eli (high priest), Samuel (prophet) functioned as judges. Their activity described in Book of Judges.

Just (jōs't, just). See Justice.
Justice. Based solely on God as source of righteousness. Justice in Israel derives from God's dealings in harmony with His covenant (Ex 19:4-9; Dt 29: 30). Justice which is basis of law. This justice embraces every Israelite; includes service to fellows (Ex 20; Is 1:10-31; Mt 6:6-11) and same for all (Ex 22:21-27; Dt 24: 1-22).

Justification. Act of God whereby He applies Christ's universal reconciliation to believers (2 Co 5:18-21), though they are unworthy because of transgression of God's Law (Ro 1-3; 5:12-20). By faith in Jesus Christ (Ro 4:16; GJ 3:22) they receive Christ's righteousness offered in Gospel (Ro 1:16; Jn 15:3; GJ 3:27). See Reconciliation.

spiritual depth; closely associated with sacrifice (Gn 12:8; 26:25) and hence with temple (1 K 8:30, 33; Ps 5:7). In NT prayer is in name of Jesus (Jn 14:13, 14) because He is our right to pray (Gn 4:3-7), our new covenant (Mk 14:24; 1 Cor 11:25; 2 Co 1:20; Heb 10:10). Author and intercessor (Mt 6:9-13; Lk 11:1-4; Ro 8:24; Heb 4:14; 7:25); Holy Spirit through Christ source of prayer (Ro 8:15; 16:26, 27). Prayers are formal (Ps Mt 6:9-13; 26:41) or spontaneous (Jn 17; Lk 18:13; 1 Th 5:17); community (Acts 1:14) or individual (Mt 6:6; 14:23). Prayers at set times and places (Acts 2:42; 6:4; 16:13); at all times and places (Eph 6:18; 1 Th 5:17; 1 Tim 2:8). Attitudes: upright (Acts 25:2; 26:2); kneeling (1 K 8:54; Acts 9:40); prostrating (Mt 26:39), standing (Mt 6:15).

preacher, preaching. Prophetic message of OT, whether denunciation, revelation of God's will, or promise (Eze 20:46; KJ; RV; drop thy word); Jer 11:6 (KJ, RV; proclamation); Is 61:1 (RSV; bring). Preaching in NT centered in story of Jesus (Acts 2:14-40; 3:11-26). Sermons included Law and Gospel (Mt 4:17; Lk 13:14; 4:18; Acts 2:14-40). predestination (prê-dê-tî-nâ-shun). God's election concerning children of God whereby He predestined them for salvation before foundations of world were laid (Eph 1:4, 5), namely: (1) to reconcile human race with God; (2) to offer Christ's merits and benefits through Word and sacraments; (3) to be active in hearts with Holy Spirit through Word; (4) to receive by grace as sons and heirs of salvation those who repent and accept Christ by faith; (5) to sanctify them; (6) to lead and protect them against devil, world, and flesh; (7) to glorify them to the end if they cling to and remain active in God's word; (8) to save them eternally. Mt 20:16; 25:14; Lk 22:28-29; Acts 13:48; Ro 8:28-30; 9:11; 11:15; Eph 1:4, 5; 2 Th 2:13; 2 Ti 1:9; 2:10; 19; 1 Pt 1:12). prophet (prô-fet-â). See prophetic.
